TRAVEL .- Railroads have worked wonderful changes in regard to travel. A few years since, a stage coach, daily, carrying nine passengers, was considered a fair complement for the business of an ordinary route of travel. Now trains of cars containing several hundred passengers are not unfrequent.

The additional train recently put on the Northern Central and Philadelphia & Erie roads, which leaves this place at 6 o'clock in the evening for Harrisburg and Philadelphia, is a great convenience. There are now twenty arrivals and departures of pas. senger trains, at this place, every twenty. four hours. Surely this ought to satisfy the public.

Provisions still rule high, notwith. standing the favorable prospects of the creps. The price of wheat must certainly recede before long. It is now only about eight weeks until barvest, and if the abunddant crops turn out as well as expected there must be a rapid decline in prices.

JEFF DAVIS' counsel will make formal application at the May term of the United States Court in Richmond, Va., for ren will less care to read than that self-same the trial of Jeff Davis or his release upon trial, with wayward and rude justice. Then hall neither of which will be granted. The bail, neither of which will be granted. The counsel claim to have a promise from the fession, asserted her innocence. We had President to interfere and secure a release or the escape of Surratt—his wanderings under trial, but it is extremely doubtful that the Government espionage—the fact that it was President contemplates any such action.

THE Press asks : Why is it that Confederate story writers always find a place in the Democratic press for their rebel reminiscences and glorification? They never do in that tried Payne and his companions. His the Radical papers, who, if nothing else, are continued imprisonment without trial, or surely patriotic. Straws show which way the wind blows.

THE President, Congress and the Supreme Court, all unite in condemning the folly and illegality of the injunction got up by Sharkey, Walker, Cowan and Black. These gentlemen have found themselves in a pitiful minority against the whole country.

AT a meeting of the stockholders of AT a meeting of the stockholders of ly, we have the most provoking delays the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, the about the trial of Surratt, with an announcestockholders, voting by shares, decided by a ment that he is not to be tried, because the very large majority of stock to accept the act of the Legislature, passed at its last session, and to take action under it.

A few weeks since a war between France and Prussia was almost certain. But through the mediation of the British government, seconded, no doubt, by Queen Victoria herself, the dispute adout Luxomarranged by the conference, which will be held in London, shortly, for that purpose.

The Washington Chronicle says that the rolling stock, &c., of Southern Railroads turned over to the former owners of those roads by the President's order, were officially valued at $7,663,223, whereof but $1,154,-146 had been paid at the date of the last report. The Chronicle adds:

"So little do the persons who have been made the beneficiaries of Presidential liberalfirst acts, after the newly-built roads, with Alabama, April 12, says: their splendid engines and substantial rolling stock, had been restored to them, was discharged all the employees of Northern birth. The President of the Western and Atlanta Railroad, who has his headquarters at Atlanta, Georgia, as soon as that improvement was turned over to him, on the 8th of August, 1865, dismissed all the employees of Northern birth, on the ground that the sen-timent of the people of Georgia would not permit him to retain Northern men in any

Another murder was committed in Philadelphia, on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Magilton, aged 62 years was murdered in her own house, by a young man named Winnemore. The murderer had not yet left the premises when the husband of Mrs. Magilton returned after an absence of about an hour, and found his wife murdered -Winnemore was arrested and after a hearing was committed for trial. Mrs. Magilton was known to have two $2 bills in her pocket in the morning,-these were gone and two bills of the same denomination found in the possession of Winnemore. The murderer accomplished his great crime by beating his victim over the head, fracturing the scull in several places, and afterwards cutting her throat with a razor. He had visited the house of his victim frequently during a month past, he having made the acquain-tance of the Magilton family at a meeting of spiritualists.

THE ODD FELLOWS THANKSGIVING .- Friday last being the day set apart as a National Thanksgiving, by the I.O. of O.F., we notice by our exchanges, was generally observed by the Order throughout the country. In the cities and larger towns particularly divine service was attended by large numdivine service was attended by large num-bers, and in some instances the day was made the occasion for parades, orations, &c. It is stated that the largest and most im-posing display of the kind, ever witnessed in Washington city, took place on that day, some 1500 members of the order being in procession. Grand master Garey, of Balti-more, delivered the oration at the National procession. THE SURRATT MYSTERY. A dispatch from Washington to the N. Y. Herald says:

"It is the opinion of persons high in authority and influence here, that the trial of John H. Surratt will be ultimately abandoned. The impression is that there is a general conviction prevailing in official quarters that the unfortunate Mrs. Surratt was not guilty of the crime for which she was executed, and that the trial of her son would only result in more clearly establishing that fact. Such a development, of course, would not be relished by the Administration and others concerned in the trial and condemnation of the mother. There is another cause however, not very creditable, assigned why the President would not wish the trial to occur; but, as it would cast a deep slur upon the reputation of one who lately has not been sleeping on the bed of roses, I refrain from giving it publicity. It might only be creating another sensation, and perhaps, without justification of scandal-mongers.— However this may be, it is not believed that the evidence in possession of the Govern-ment will warrant the trial of John H. Sur-

The Tribune says : "We think it time to say that the many mysteries surrounding this Surratt case should cease. Since the assassination of President Lincoln, we have had endless surmises, and make shifts, and tricks, in reference to the crime and those accused. In the first place, we had the Government proclamations accusing Davis, and Sanders, and Thompson of the assassination. Then we had the trials, in which these persons were solemnly arraigned as participants in that crime. There are few things that our childcrime. known where he was, and no effort made to arrest him until Mr. Boutwell, speaking the public opinion of the nation, compelled his arrest. We have also had the imprisonment of Davis as an assassin-if there is any value in the judgment of the commission and a shame. Then came Gen. Butler's famous speech, showing that the diary of Booth had been suppressed, on the conspi-racy trial, and the declaration of a great lawyer that Mrs. Surratt had been innocently hanged. Immediately came an announce ment that the War Department would print the Booth diary so soon as something or other occurred. Well: time enough has passed for twenty things to happen, and nothing is heard of the Booth diary ! Finaltrial might establish the fact that Mrs. Sur-ratt was not guilty at all!

It is time that this juggling should cease; and especially as the Surratt case is only a part of the juggling that has been permitted since the death of Mr. Lincoln. That tragedy is one of the most mysterious in the annals of crime. There is something hidden that we crave to know. What it is we cannot say; but the records of the trial, the Victoria herself, the dispute adout Luxom-bourg will be satisfactorily and amicably especially the shuffling of the Government, compel distrust and suspicion. Why has not Booth's diary been published? Why is George N. Sanders not demanded from the British Government if the Administration really believes he was a partner in the crime of Booth? Why is not Davis, either pun-ished or released? And why is not John H. Surratt, against whom, at least, all the evidence we have points unerringly, brought to justice ?"

of circumstances, the news of your benevolent organization came to us, whereupon we called a meeting of our citizens and organized our society, called the Hepzibah Relief Society, in the county, thirty miles from the city of Tuscaloosa, consisting of about two undred and seventy-five heads of families, averaging five to each family, equal to one thousand three hundred and seventy-five souls, to make application to you for help to keep us from starvation; and we hereby humbly appeal to your Christian generosity for help,

"Our language is not sufficient to describe to you the thousandth part of our suffering our children without clothing or bread, or the means of education, in which situation we implore you not to let us remain. Help us speedily for mercy and humanity's sake, and God will bless you for so doing. If our leading politicians did precipitate us into an unholy and nnnatural war, it was not our fault. If you knew how many of us struggled against that measure, you could not cherish an unkind feeling against us. Our sons, brothers, busbands and fathers, were hunted down like wild beasts, and dragged in chains to the fields of deadly conflict; and many for refusing to go were shot down like dogs and left to feed the vultures of the air.

"Gentlemen, this is no fancy picture. The war devastated our country, and in addition thereto a failure of a crop last year leaves us in an awful condition, and can you or will you refuse us our relief? I write as the representative of 1875 starving poor. Be so kind as to send us bread, meat, shoes, bats, clothing, or any thing you can

The procession was about starting but there being a total absence of an Ameri-can flag in the column, notwithstanding the great number of all sorts of other banners. Gen. Sickles addressed the Post Commandant, Brevet Brig.-Gen. Clitz, the following letter, and ordered the column not to move until the requirements of this letter were complied with:

GENERAL: You remember the regrets we expressed to prominent citizens on the day of the last firemen's parade, that the Ameri-can flag was not seen in the column. It was then said to have been an inadvertent omission. It is reported to me this morning that among the various emblems borne by the several companies at the rendezvous on the citadel parade ground the flag is not there. I desire that you will at once send for the Chief of the Fire Department, and inform him that the national standard must be borne in front of the column : that an escor of honor, to consist of two members of each company present, will be detailed by him-self to march with the colors; that the coself to march with the colors; that the colors be placed opposite the reviewing personages on the ground designated for the review, and that every person in the column shall salute the colors by lifting his hat or cap on arriving at the point three paces distant from the colors, and carrying the cap uplifted, marching past the colors to the point three paces distant from the same.

The London Peace Conference.

The warlike Cable dispatches which we have been receiving for some time from Europe, and which stated that Count Bismarck had sent an ultimatum to France, that both countries were arming, and that war was almost certain, are now succeeded by the announcement that Louis Napoleon has submitted more moderate demands, that the Queen of England had urged upon the King of Prussia to take the new French proposi tions into consideration, that Prussia had complied with this request, and that on the 15th of May a Peace Conference of representatives of all the great Powers of Europe is to meet in London. The basis of the Con-ference proceedings will be the neutralization of the Grand Duchy, and the dismantling of the fortress.

It will be remembered that the whole complication arose out of the steps taken by the French Government for the purchase of the Grand Duchy. Count Bismarck openly declared in the German Parliament that Prussia claimed no right to compel Luxemburg to enter the North German confederation, though he insisted that Prussia had a treaty right to garrison the fortress. The original design of France having been baffled, Prussia, on her part, declared a readiness to withdraw her troops from the for-
