This Distressing Affection—which renders Life niserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid bythe victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary piligrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the meiancholy reflec-tion that the happiness of another becomes bighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and impradent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease me're their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat diseased nore, nocturnal pains in the head and lin's, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bone and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

And rejoice in your own hixuriant hair.

Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own have inthat.

Reparator Capilli.

For restoring hair upon build heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of bair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon build heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there'is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such see we would say, try the Reparator Cappilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire antisfaction is not given.
