DROWNED .- A sad case of drowning occurred in this place on Thursday evening last, about six o'clock. Willie, an interesting son of John W. Frieg. Esq., while playing on a raft lying in the river a short distance above Market street, fell into the water and was drowned. Several persons saw him fall, but the current had become so strong from the late rains that they were anable to rescue him. He was about seven years of age, and had on, when drowned, a roundabout and pair of pants of tweed cloth, and a pair of shoes that had just been soled and heel-tapped. A reward of $40 will be paid for the recovery and delivery of the body to his father,

THE BRANCH ROAD AT LEWISDURG.—The rallroad meeting held at Lewisburg, on Saturday, 27th ult., in relation to the building of a bridge and branch road, to connect with the Philadelphia & Eric Railroad, on the opposite side of the river, was well attended by the business men of that place and vicinity. The Chronicle says that the committee that conferred with the railroad officers reported, through their chairman, Mr. Slifer, that the Philadelphia & Eric Company had withdrawn their proposition to build a branch to Lewisburg, upon the position to build a branch to Lewisburg, upon the conditions stipulated. The Pennsylvania Central, however, offer to build the track from Cameronia to Lewisburg, provided a bridge is built, without cost to that company, strong enough to run their trains across. A conference was to have been held with the latter company on Monday last, respecting the proposition. The citizens of Lewisburg are fully awake to the great importance of this matter.

THE Susquehanna Convocation of the Episcopal Church convened in Muncy, on Tuesday evening of last week. The clergymen present during the ses-sion were Rev. E. N. Lightner, of Danville; Rev. A. A Young Lany returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hard ly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse. rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circussiana Brim, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cutiele it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP is nutritious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome-blood made, which will repei all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, Consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action. Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the lowels are not costive they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhea they are necessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold Exercise about the rooms as much as possible, eat all the richest food—fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well.
