FROM WASHINGTON. The Impeachment Question.

· Washington, June 3 .- A clear majority of the Judiciary Committee is known to fa vor an adjournment until December, because they do not deem a July session of Congress either advisable or necessary, and this majority includes one member who believes an impeachment can be sustained before the House. The matter will be definitely deci-ded this afternoon. The seven Republican members of the committee, although strong in their censure of the President, are divided on the impeachment question. The charges of complicity in the assassination have not been sustained. It is, however, shows that the President has been criminally negligent in not sufficiently aiding the efforts to bring the conspirators in the great plot to justice Impeachment.

WASHINGTON, June 3, 1867. The House Judiciary Committee to-day closed the impeachment investigation, which they commenced under an order of the House and in pursuance of charges made by Representative Ashley, of Ohio, in January last. After taking nearly two thousand pages of printed evidence, during a session covering five months, the committee proceeded to vote on the report it should make to the House. The result was as follows, on the question "Does the evidence warrant the committee in reporting articles of impeachment?" The affirmative vote were, Messrs. Boutwell, Thomas, Lawrence and Williams. The negatives were, Messrs. Wilson, Chairman, Woodbridge, Churchill, Eldridge and Mar-shall. So the committee decided not to re-port in favor of impeachment.

A resolution of censure was then presented, to the effect, that the evidence produced before the Committee, of the official and respect of the American people.

This was agreed to by yeas 7, nays 2, as follows:-

The Sunbury American, Gov. Wells, of Louisinna, Removed

General Sheridan issued an order on Tues day the 3d inst., removing Governor Wells, of Louisiana, from office, and appointing Thomas J. Durant in his stead. Some time ago the General deposed two rival boards of Levee Commissioners, one of which had been appointed by Governor Wells, and the other by a secession Legislature. The Gov. thereupon obtained from the President and Secretary of War an order requiring Gen. Sheridan to withhold the execution of his order regarding the commissioners. This order was as follows :

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, June B, 1867.

Major General P. H. Sheridan, New Orleans : Application baving been made to the President of the United States, by the Governor of Louisiana, and others, for revocation of your order removing the Board of Levee Commissioners, and that the State authorities be permitted to proceed in the execution of the State laws, the President directs that all further proceedings be suspended until further instructions. You will please report the facts in relation to your order, with the reasons for giving it.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War, On the strength of this interference with the workings of the reconstruction law, General Sheridan immediately issued the following order: His Excellency the Governor of Louisiana, Madison Wells, having made bimself an impediment to the faithful execution of the act of Congress of March 2, 1867, by directly and indirectly impeding the General in com-mand in the faithful execution of the law, is just of contempt and detestation to all loyal hereby removed from the office of Governor of Louisiana, and Mr. Thomas J. Durant appointed thereto. Mr. Durant will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

By command of Maj. Gen. P. H. Sheridan.

GEORGE L. HOOD, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Sheridan, in reply to the Secretary of War, gives his reasons for removing the lished in pamphlet from his argument Levee Commissioners. He says the Louisiamade by him in the Senate in favor of the na Legislature last winter passed an act ratification of the Russian treaty. The rea- containing the old Levee Board in office, so sons he assigns for the acquisition have that $4,000,000 appropriated might be disbursed by a board of rebellious antecedents, and adds :

After the adjournment the Governor appointed a board of his own, in violation of party by securing for it votes at the time of when New Orleans fell into our hands, and pealed to General Sheridan to sustain it, which he would not do, as the question would then have gone to the courts and have taken a year to decide. The State was then overflowed and poor people suffering. quarters that the largest political meeting To abate this trouble and afford immediate and procession that ever occurred in New relief, which the honest disbursement of four millions would give, an order dissolving both boards was issued. Of Governor Wells the General says: I say now unequivocally that Governor Wells is a political trickster and a disunion ist. I have seen him myself, when I first came to this command, turn out all the Union men who supported the Government, and put in their stead rebel soldiers, some of whom had not doffed the gray uniform: I have seen him again, during the July riot of 1866, skulk away where I could not find bim a guard, instead of coming out as a manly representative of the State and join ing those who were desirous of preserving the peace. I have watched him since, and his conduct has been as sinuous as the mark left in the dust by the movement of a snake. I say again that he is dishonest, and dishonesty is more than must be expected of me.

General Sheridan also issued orders on the and appointing William Baker in his place, The cause of the removal is neglect of duty and the uncleanly condition of the city.
