The Sunbury American H. B. MASSER, Editor & Proprietor SUNBURY, PA. SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1867. UNION STATE TICKET. FOR SUPREME JUDGE, HON, HENRY W. WILLIAMS. Of Allepheny County. MARSHAL HEISLER'S POLICE.-The

Police Bill, passed by the last legislature, is likely to make some trouble in this county. Marshal Heisler and his ten police officers came to town on Monday of last week, to draw their pay, which amounted to about $900, for their last month's salaries. The Commissioners positively refused to pay one single dollar. Suit was then brought, and eleven summons were served on the County Commissioners, to appear before Esq. Shindel on Monday last. The Commissioners not appearing, judgment was, of course, entered against them by default. The Commissioners say they have employed the best legal talent, and will resist the pay-ment of these claims as long as any legal re-medy aviate medy exists.

There is a diversity of opinion in regard to the policy of the measure. The friends more than he to serve the cause of justice of the bill say it has quieted the coal region and freedom. He never for a moment forand checked the lawless and turbulent men. Others contend that if a special police was necessary it should be paid by the operators, as in Schuylkill county.

MAXIMILIAN. - The execution of this unfortunate dupe of Napoleon, by the Liberals in Mexico, has caused a profound sensation among the crowned heads of Europe. The act is universally condemned on the continent. In this country there is some difference of opinion on the subject. Had pot Maximilian sanctioned the shooting of the Liberal officers that fell into his hands. sympathy for him would have been more general. If it was right to execute these men, natives of the soil, for political offences, the friends of the fallen Emperor cannot the friends of the fallen Emperor cannot complain of these semi-barbarians following thunder, and instantly an awful spectacle his example when the reverses of war chang- | was presented. es their condition.

VERGINIA CITY, July 7 .- General Thomas Francis Meagher, Secretary and Acting Gov-ernor of this Territory, fell from the deck of the steamer Thompson, at Fort Benton, on the evening of July 1, and was drowned. He had been absent for the last fortnight on public business, and had succeeded in procuring arms for the troops engaged in the defense of the Territory, besides transacting other military business demanded by our present exigency. His death is greatly lamented, and a public demonstration will be made in honor of his distinguished character and services. At the last accounts his remains had not been found. The darkness of the night and the rapidity of the current prevented any rescue.

Mr. Drake introduced a bill providing for the removal of civil officers in the Rebel States, for the appointment of successors by the District Commanders, and for the re-admission of the States. A bill in explanation of the Reconstruction acts was introduced by Mr. Edmunds, declaring the military authority paramount in the South. Mr. Frelinghuysen presented a similar bill, and a resolution was passed requesting the President to furnish copies of all instructions and correspondence under the Reconstruction acts. The Senate adjourned until Friday, after agreeing in caucus to confine its work to the passage of a declaratory bill. In the House the important business transacted was the exclusion of the Kentucky members, notoriously elected as rebels. Mr. Logan's resolution, referring the creden-tials to a committee, and forbidding them in the meanwhile to take their seats, was passed by a vote 67 to 50. Mr. George M. Adams, against whom no charges of disloyalty were made, was admitted. Mr. Eliot offered a resolution limiting the business of the session to the perfecting of the Reconstruction act, and excluding general legislation, which was adopted. The Senate and House agreed upon this point. The House also adjourned over to Friday.

In the Senate on Friday, Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, introduced a bill, which was tabled and ordered to be printed, empower-ing the registration boards in the South to examine and decide upon the qualifications of persons applying to be registered under the Reconstruction acts, and declaring that no person shall be entitled to vote who canno person shall be entitled to vote who can-not take the oath prescribed by the supple-mental act. Mr. Anthony offered a resolu-tion declaring that the business of the ses-sion should be confined to providing for the execution of the Reconstruction act. After considerable opposition and debate the reso-lution was adopted—yeas 23, mays 9. The Senate adjourned until Monday. In the House, a memorial of Green M. Adams against representative Beck from
