CRIME.-There were no less than sixty crimina asce for trial on the calendar during the recent term f court at this place. This shows an alarming intease of crime in the county. Our District Attor-ty, Jeremiah Soyder, Esq., has his hands full criminal business, and we learn that he was commented by the court for his promptness in having bills of indicament ready for the Grand Jury, for speedy trial of all offenders of the law

Do SNAKES CHARM BIRDS ?- A week or two since two gentlemen, visiting the farm of Mr. Charles Collins, about two miles north of Northumberland, were attracted to a certain shrub by the distressed cry of a cat-bird, hovering near it. Approaching, they dis-covered a large black snake with his body twined around the shrub, while his extended head was following every motion made by the bird, which con-Neither bird nor snake appeared to notice the presence of the gentlemen, though they approached very near, while the head of the snake glowed with an unnatural brilliancy. THE EXHIBITION OF TABLEAUX, &c .- The entertainments at the Masonic Hall, gotten up by a number of the young ladies and gentlemen of this place, for the benefit of the fire department, came off on Wednesday and Thursday ovenings last. The exhibitions, which consisted of a series of Tableaux and Charades. wore well worthy of an appreciative company and audience, and reflected great credit on the ladice and gentlemen engaged in this enterprise. When we say the tableaux were got up with admirable skill and taste, we do not mean it as an ordinary compliment, for we have never seen them excelled anywhere, an opinion concurred in by allpresent, capable of approciating artistic skill. The character were also well performed, and were worthy of the task, talent and enterprise of the young ladics and gentlemen of Sunbury. The orchestra was composed of a number of our best amateur performers, and the music was of a character that did great credit to their skill and taste as musicians

ROBBERT OF THE COUNTY TREASURY .- On Sunday night last the office of John Farnsworth. Esq., the County Trensurer, was forcibly entered and robbed of $150, which was deposited in the money drawer of his table. Mr. Farnsworth keeps his funds in Bank, but this sum had been prid after banking hours, and was placed in the drawer afore-said, although the Treasurer has at command a fine vault, and in which there is an excellent safe. The robber or robbers evidently had some knowledge that Mr. F. had received and left the money in the drawer. The Treasurer's office is in the Court House, immediately opposite the Commissioners' office.— The entrance was effected through a window of the arbitration room, adjoining and unoccupied, opening into the yard, and which had been left open. The door in the partition, leading into a closet, was forced, though unlocked, under the impression that it led into the Treasurer's room. The door leading into the hall was then forced by means of crowbars When once in the hall, the door of the Treasurer's office was forced in the same way, and such was the force used that the brass bolts of the locks were bent before an entrance was effected.

THE ROLLING MILL AT NORTHUMBERLAND. - We take the following from the Miltonian, of the 9th inst. :- "On Thursday morning last a most important event in the history of Northumberland took place. On that morning the first bar of iron ever made in that borough was rolled in the new rolling mill crected by Van Allen & Co., and owned by Mesers. Van Allen, Leslie and Vohrice. The mill is not yet in full operation, but it is expected the remaining portion of the work will soon be completed. Fifteen nall machines will soon be put in operation, and it is thought a furnace will, at no distant day. be crected in conjunction with the rolling mill. The latter establishment, when completed, will have cost $100,000, and will be of vast importance to the future growth of our neighboring borough. Northumberland possesses one of the finest locations for a place of considerable importance, both as regards mechanical and commercial pursuits, to be found anywhere in the State, and its growth has only been retarded by the penny-wise doctrine practiced here tofore by some of those holding the majority of the land in the vicinity. It is to be hoped that the impetus now given it will result in eventually placing it in the front rank of flourishing boroughs in the Keystone State."

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SO-CIETY.—A meeting of the agricultural society of Northumberland county was held in the Court House, in this place, on Monday, 6th inst., at which the following business was transacted :

to recommend it to the public. Some cight years

I then precured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenek, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he com-menced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no

His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the disease which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numorous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astorishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Da. SCHENCK's that have to be litted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Da. Schenck's PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS, are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him.
