JUDGE SHARSWOOD ON LEGAL TENDERS.

Extract from IIis Opinion in the Case of Borio vs. Trott.

"On the whole, then, I am of opinion that the provision of the act of Congress of Feb-ruary 25th, 1862, declaring the notes issued in pursuance of that act to be lawful money, al a legal tender, 18 UNCONSTITUTIONAL. "This renders it unnecessary that I should consider the other question which has been made, as to the effect of the special agreement to pay in lawful silver money of the United States. I am in favor of entering udgment for the plaintiff, but as a majority of the court are of a different opinion, judg-ment for the defendant."-Copiel from the Philadelphia Age of 23d of February, 1864, where the opinion is published in full.

Tribune, sums up the position of the democratre party, of the present day-a position that would make such old fashioned democrats as Jefferson, Madison and Jackson blush. Under Jefferson and Jackson, the democracy was the war party, ready to resent every insult, under the present leaders they are the peace party, ready to submit even to a dissolution of the Union, in order to appease their rebel brothren : PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRACY.

The address of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania has one merit-it is short. But, brief as it is, it contains almost short. But, brief as it is, it contains almost as many false assertions as sentences, and is a specimen of the very worst kind of politi-cal trickery. All the evils of the war—the loss of life, taxation, debt, high prices, pa-per currency—are enumerated as the direct work of the Republican party. Not a word is said of the Rebellion. We wonder what stuff a Democratic State Committee can be made of which gravely submits such an argument as this to the people.

It is true that we have a great debt, which bears as heavily upon Republicans as on Democrats; it is true that we are severely Democrats; it is true that we are severely ing orders have been received from the president: high, that the currency is depreciated. All this we know and lament; but it is also true that we owe these evils, first, to the Rebels, and second, to the Democratic par-Rebels, and second, to the common of the second day of to repeat these truths, for no ingenuity will ever conceal the great fact that the South rebelled, that the Democratic party sympathized with rebellion, and that the Republican party directed and maintained the War for the Union, and brought it to a tri-umphant end. It is notorious that the Republican party directed and maintained the War for the Union, and brought it to a triumphant end. It is notorious that the Re-bels depended for aid upon the Democratic party; that the official action of that party was hailed in the South as an encourage-ment to persist in rebellion ; that if it had not been for Democratic opposition the war would have ended years, perhaps, before it did, and that the debt and all our national In the same copy of the Age is a carefully prepared eulogy of the jud_e and this opin-ion, in which is the following : followed it. THE rapid progress of the Union Pacific Railroad, now building west from Omaha, Nebraska, and form-ing, with its western connections, an unbroken line across the continent, attracts attention to the value of the First Mortgage Bonds which the Company now offer to the public. The first question asked by pru-dent investors is, "Are these bonds secure?" Next, "Are they a profitable investment?" To reply in brief:

Resolved unanimously, 1st. That, in the decease of the Hon. JAMES ARMSTRONG, we have lost one whose place cannot easily be supplied. During a period of (nearly) fifty years he labored at the Bar and on the Bench with eminent ability, industry and success; ever exhibiting those rich and sterling qualities of head and heart which adorn the Christian the Patriot, the jurist and citizen. In his intercourse with his clients, he was patient, frank and unassuming ; and they always relied upon him with unwavering faith, and spoke of him as courteous, sin-cere and skillful. As a Judge he was learn-ed both in principles and cases, and prompt in their application. It was his delight to sustain the hopes and protect the feelings of young and timid counselors; while he never failed in respect to the aged. Such, indeed, was the true dignity of his deportment and his whole character as a lawyer, a judge, and a christian gentleman; such the urbanity of his manners; the kindness of his heart, such the uprightness and puri-ty of his conduct, and his scrupulous fidelity of his conduct, and his scrupulous fideli-ty in the discharge of every duty and every trust, that he could not fail to secure the respect of his fellow-citizens, the regard of his clients, the confidence of the Court, the friendship of the Bar, the approbation of his own heart, and leave, for imitation and emulation, a life marked as a consistent whole, with no irregularity of proportion. Always active in works of virtue, benevo-lence and usefulness, his memory will be lence and usefulness, his memory will be cherished by his fellow-citizens with affec-tion, by the Court and Bar with reverence, by his personal associates with love. In the circle of home it can only be forgotten when

"Are they a profitable investment ?" To reply in brief: Ist. The early completion of the whole great line to the Pacific is as certain as any future business event can be. The Government grant of over twen-ty million acres of land and fifty million dollars in its own bonds pracfically guarantees it. One fourth of the work is already done, and the track continues to be laid at the rate of two miles a day. 24. The Union Pacific Railroad bonds are issued upon what promises to be one of the most profitable lines of railroad in the country. For many years it must be the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific ; and being without competition, it can maintain remunerative rates. 34. 425 miles of this road are finished, and fully equipped with depots, locomotives, ears, de., and two trains are daily running each way. The mate-rials for the remaining 92 miles to the electer humo of the Rocky Mountains are on hand, and it is under contract to be done in September. 4th.
