WM. M. ROCKEPELLER. LLOYD T. ROHRBACH. ROCKEFELLER & ROHRBACH.

ATTORNETS AT LAW OFFICE the same that has been heretofore occu-pied by Wm. M. Rozkofeller, Esq., nearly op-posite the residence of Judge Jordan. Sunbury, July 1, 1985.—ly

HILL & WOLVERTON. Attorneys and Counselors at Law WILL attend to the collection of all kinds of claims, including Back Pay, Bounty and Penapl. 1, '66.

G. W. MIEGLER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW. North Side of Public Square, one door cast of Old Bank Building.

SUNBURY, PENN'A. Collections and all Professional business promptly attended to in the Courts of Northumberland and adjoining Counties. Sunbury, Sept. 15, 1866.

BRUNER & KASE. Attorneys and Counsellors at Law,

Chesnut Street, west of the N. C. and P. & E. Rait-road Depot, in the building lately occupied by P. Lazarus, Esq., SUNBURY, PENN'A. Collections and all Professional business promptly attended to in Northumberland and adjoining Coun-ties. apl 67

G. W. HAUPT. Attorney and Counsellor at Law, Office on south side of Market street, five doors East of the N. C. Rairroad, SUNBURY, PA.

Will attend promptly to all professional business entrusted to his care, the collection of claims in Northumberland and the adjoining counties.

Sanbury, April 13, 1867.

EDWIN A. EVANS, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Market Square, near the Court House, SUNBURY, Northumberland County, Pa, Collections promptly strended to in this and adjoining Counties. April 13, 1867.

JEREMIAH SNYDER. Attorney & Counsellor at Law. SUNBURY, PA. District Attorney for Northum-Sunbury, March 31, 1866.—:y

L. SEASHOLTZ, C. H. WOLVERTON, C. P. SEASHOLTZ COAL! COAL! COAL!

THE subscribers respectfully inform the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that they have opened a COAL YARD at J. Hans & Co's Lower Wharf, Sambury, Pa.
where they are prepared to supply all kinds of Shamokin Coal, at cheap rates. Families and others promptly supplied. Country ensum respectfully solicited. SEASHOLTZ & CO.
Sunbury, Jan. 12, 1867.

JNO. KAY CLEMENT,

ATTORNEY AT LAW. Business in this and adjoining counties carefully and promptly attended to.
Office in Market Street, Third door west of Smith
& Genther's Stove and Tinware Store,

H. B. MASSER. A tiorney at Law, SUNBURY, PA.— Collections attended to in the counties of Northumberland, Union, Snyder, Montour, Columbia

REPERENCES. Hon. John M. Reed, Philadelphia,

Hon. John M. Reed, Philadelphia,
A. G. Cattell & Co.,
Hon. Wm. A. Porter,
Morton McMichael, Esq.,
E. Ketchain & Co., 289 Pearl Street, New York.
John W. Ashmeal, Attorney at Law,
Matthews & Cox, Attorneys at Law,
Sunbury, March 29, 1862. JACOB SHIPMAN,

FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE AGENT SUNBURY, PENN'A. REPRESENTS

Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co., York Pa., Jumberland Valley Mutual Protection Co., www.York Mutual Life, Girard Life of Phil's. & Hartord Conn. General Accidents. Sunbury, April 7, ly. W. J. WOLVERTON.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Market Street, 5 doors west of Dr. Eyster's Store SUNBURY, PENN'A. All professional business in this and adjoining counties promptly attended to.
Sunbury, November 17, 1866.—1y

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!! GRANT & BROTHER, Shippers & Wholesale & Retail Dealers in

WHITE & RED ASH COAL, in every variety. Sole Agents, westward, of the Celebrated Henry

LOWER WHARP, SUNBURY, PA.

VALENTINE DIETZ. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER

in every variety of ANTHRACITE COAL, Upper Wharf, SUNBURY, Penn's.

Orders solicited and filled with promptness and capatch. Sunbury, May 12, 1866.—y

BOUNTY FOR SOLDIERS.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

ARE the most perfect purgative we are able to produce, and, as we think, has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the other medicines in use.—They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their ponetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disense. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distempor, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart tone and strength to the whole system. Not only do they care the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-conted, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are entirely harmless.—Cures have been made that would surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent elergymen and physicians certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our preparations courtibate immensely to the relief of our afflicted follow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish graits our American Almanac, containing directions for the use of these medicines and certificates of their cures of the following complaints.—Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nauseu, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Less of Appletite, and all diseases which require in evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could roach, such as Deafness, Partial Bindness, Neuralis and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, I HAVE made arrangements in Washington City, for the prompt collection of Beauty under the late Act of Congress. I have also received the proper blanks to prepare the claims. Soldiers cuttiled to this Bounty should apply immediately, as it is estimated that it will require three years to adjust all the claims.

timated that it will be the claims.

All soldiers who enlisted for three years and who have not received more than $100 bounty are entitled to the benefits of this Act, as well as soldiers who have enlisted for three years and discharged after a service of two years, by reason of wounds received, disease contracted in line of duty, or re-enlistment.

LLOYD T. ROHRBACH.

Sunbury, August 18, 1866.

JACOBO BECK, MERCHANT TAILOR,

And Dealer in CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTING, &c. Fawn street, south of Weaver's

Motel. SUNBURY, PA.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING, BY H. B. MASSER & CO., SUNBURY, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, PENN'A.

NEW SERIES, VOL. 3, NO. 48.

SHAMOKIN, Northumberland County, Pa.

A LL business attended to with promptness and diligence.

Shamokin, Aug. 10, 1867.—19

J. D. JAMES. ATTORNEY AT LAW, SUNBURY, PA.

Office—Market street, 4 doors west of the railroad lately used as a Post Office.

Will attend promptly to the collection of claims and other professional business intrusted to his care, in Northumberland and adjoining countles.

August 10, 1867.

Dr. CHAS. ARTHUR,

Momoopathic Physician.

AUGUSTA HOTEL,

SAMUEL MANN, Proprietor.

(Formerly of the Mansion House, Mahonoy City, Schuylkill county, Pa.)

In Cake's Addition, near the Machine Shops,

SUNBURY, PENN'A.

Transient and permanent boarders will find this a most comfortable house and possessing the advantages of convenience to the railway and business part of the town. Being newly furnished with all the modern household improvements, there is every facility for the convenient accommodation of guests. Good stabling and experienced hostlers in attendance.

DR. J. S. ANGLE.

GRADUATE of Jefferson Medical College, with five years practice, offers his professional services to the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity—will attend all calls promptly.

OFFICE over Thacher's Store, in Pleasants' building, Market Square,
OFFICE HOURS | from 8 to 10 A. M.
| 2 to 5 P. M.
| Sunbury, April 27, 1867.

S. BYERLY, PROPRIETOR,

E. C. GOBIN,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

July 8, 1865.—oct 15, '64.

Sunbury, June 8, 1867.

February 16, 1867.--6m

BOONVILLE, COOPER CO , MISSOURI.

UNION HOTEL.

CHAS, ITZEL, Proprietor.

In Cake's Addition to SUNBURY, near the Penn's

Railroad Company's Shope.

His Liquors are of the choicest kind

PERMANENT AND TRANSIENT BOARDERS

Mount Carmel Hotel

MT. CARMEL, Northumberland Co., Pa.,

GIRARD HOUSE,

ping places in the city.
H. W. KANAGA, Preprietor.

CHOICE FRUIT & ORNAMENTAL

TREES.

BENJ. BOHNER,

L'F' N. B.—Insurances taken in several of the nest responsible Fire Insurance and Horse Detective Companies in the State. June 8, 1867.—y

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

tion of lis functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations on which they make more profit. Demand Ayer's and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should

Propared by Dr. J. C. Avan & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine

For sale by W A BENNETT, Druggist, Sun.

BENJ. BOHNER,

l'axinos, North'd. Co.

Orders are respectfully solicited.

Address

THOS. BURKET, PROPRIETOR.

ance. Sunbury, June 22, 1867.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 14, 1867.

OLD SERIES, VOL. 27, NO. 48.

JOHN RUNALE. TALES AND SKETCHES. CTHE UNION." MRS. HOUGHTON'S CAT. ARCH STREET, between Third and Fourth Street

PHILADELPHIA. June 29, 1867.—1y WHO WAS THE BURGLAR. ADDISON G. MARR, BY CAROLINE F. PRESTON. ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Mr. Jones was on his way home from a small party, at a late hour in the evening. It was a very dark night,—darkness solid enough to cut, as somebody has expressed it. Under the circumstances it was not perhaps strange that Mr. Jones found considerable difficulty in finding the way home, familiar as it was.

At length, with a feeling of relief, he turned into the street which he lived. I should say into the street which he suppose he lived. The fact was that he mistook the street, and turned into one running parallel

"Now where's my house?" thought Jones.
It was rather hard to tell. He tried with Graduate of the Homosopathic Medical College of Pennsylvania.

Oppics, Market Square opposite the Court House: SUNBURY, PA.

Office Hours—7 to 9—morning; 1 to 3—afternoon; 7 to 9—evening.

May 18. his eyes to peer through the darkness, but not very successfully. At last he discerned an outline that looked like the front of No.

62, which he occupied.
"Yes," said he confidently, and with a feeling of decided relief, "that's it." But he was mistaken. It was the residence of Mr. Houghton, dry goods merchant.

But how should Jones know? He couldn't read the name on the door plate. However he felt so confident he was right, that he probably wouldn't have done so if he could. He took out his latch-key, and inserted it in the proper place.

By a very curious coincidence, and unfortunately for Mr. Jones, as it proved, his latch-key fitted Mr. Houghton's door. The door flew open, as if to its lawful proprietor, and Jones entirely unconscious"that he was committing a grave offence in the eye of the law, stepped tranquilly inside.
It was about twelve o'clock. Every soul was in bed and asleep. I ought to except Mrs. Houghton, who had been kept awake by a severe tooth-ache. Jones groped his way along until he came to the hat stand, which happened to occu-py a position similar to that in his own hall, and quietly took off his coat and hung it up. His hat ditto. He then thought he AMBROTYPE AND PHOTOGRAPH CALLERY.

Corner Market & Fawn Street, SUNBURY, Pa. would make his way out into the diningroom opening out of the hall at the end, and light the gas.
"I should think Mrs. Jones might have kept the hall burners lighted," he said to Photograph, Ambrotypes and Melainotypes taken in the best style of the art. apl. 7, 1y "She knew I was going to stay out late. Confound it." This last exclamation was elicited by a stumble over an article of furniture in the WILL pay taxes on lands in any part of the State. Buy and sell real Estate, and all other matters entrusted to him will receive prompt attendining-room, which he had slready entered. Jones fell over it with considerable violence, producing a contusion on the knee, and a trifling pain in that bone sometimes denominated the crazy-bone. "It's a regular man-trap," muttered Jones.

picking himself up somewhat irritably.— "What is it I have stumbled over?" He felt about, thinking it might be a chair, but his astonishment may be conceived when he discovered, by his sense of feeling, kept who will find ample accommodations. Good cooks and waiters, boarders can enjoy the quiet com-forts of home with fare equal to the best hotels. the offending article was a cradle,

"A cradle in my house !" he exclaimed,-Mr. Jones' youngest child was ten years old, so that he had some ground for his sur

"A cradle!" be repeated, "Good heavens! Has Mrs. Jones been entertaining babies during my absence! Even if she has, she might have the good sense to put away the cradle, so that I needn't break my shins over it."

This large commodious Hotel is located near the depots of the Shamokin Valley and the Quakake & New York Railronds. Trainsarrive and depart daily. This bouse is located in the centre of the Coal Region and affords the best accommodations to travelers and permanent customers. jay 5. He made a stride forward-an unfortu nate step it proved. The table was laid for breakfast—the custom in that household, but not in that of Mr. Jones. Coming into violent collision with it, the table was tipped THIS well known Hotel, situate near the corner of Ninth & Chesnut Streets, Philadelphia, is, on account of its superior location and excellent accommodations, one of the best and most desirable stopover and there was a tremendous smashing of crockery, making a hideous racket.

"Good gracious!" thought Jones, "what on earth induced Mrs. Jones to set the table over night, on this particular occasion. She never has done so before. I suppose I have destroyed ten or fifteen dollars of crockery. It is Mrs. Jones' fault. I shall deduct it out of her pin money."

Meanwhile in the chamber above, Mrs. Houghton had striven in vain to find relief Dester in Fruit and Ornamental Trees, will furnish from the most responsible Nurseries in this and other States, first class TREES of all kinds. Also, Shrubbery, Vines and Plants. Garden Seeds of all kinds. from her tooth-ache, She tried cloves, she tried tooth-ache drops, and various other remedies, but all to no purpose. The disa-greeable pain would not be exorcised. She envied Mr. Houghton, who lay in tranquil slumber unheeding her torments.

All at once she thought she heard the outer door open. Still she could hardly believe it. It must be her imagination. She thought, however, she would listen again, No; she was not mistaken. She certainly did hear a step in the hall. Mrs. Houghton began to be frightened. "Could it be burgiars ?" She waited.

Next came the sound of Jones, stumbling ver the cradle. "It must be somebody," thought Mrs. Houghton, nervously. "Shall I wake Mr. Houghton? If I do, and he goes down, and if burglars, they will very likely shoot him. I'll wait a minute.' She did wait a minute. Then came the fearful crash of crockery, sound which Mrs. Houghton heard with a degree of terror which quite cured the tooth-ache. She felt that she could no longer stand it alone So she gave her husband a vigorous shake. "What's wanted?" demanded he, drowsily, more than half asleep. "Wake up!" "Is it morning?"

"No, but you must wake up at once!"
"What for? what's the matter ?"
"There's matter enough !" exclaimed Mrs.
Houghton, in an energetic whisper. "There's afburglar in the house !" "A what?"

"A burglar! I heard him come in. He's making a tremendous noise below. I think there may be two or three of them." "What's to be done?" said Houghton, now fairly awake. "They'll carry off my silver. I forgot to bring it up to night."

"I've got a pistol," said Mr. Houghton,
"and I believe it is loaded." "Then you'd better go down stairs and use it," said his wife, her anxiety about her silver getting the better of her anxiety for her husband's safety.

There was another crash, and a loud exclamation from Jones, as he stepped on a dish which had thus far lay uninjured, and

"He's swearing," said Mrs. Houghton,— 'Oh, do go down quick, before he gets at Mr. Houghton didn't seem to be much in with a burglar. However, he put on his pants in a leisurely manner, greatly to Mrs. | The audience in their bewilderment could | Milk Batt. -E traordinary Reve- | From the Dubuque Times, August 27. | A Modern Bluebeard Houghton's disturbance.

"Oh, do be quick," she said.

"I suppose you want him to shoot me," he muttered. "Why don't you go down yourself?"
"That's a pretty question for a man to ask bis wife. There isn't any danger. He's in the dark, and you can open the door at the foot of the stairs and fire."

"But perhaps he's got a lantern."
"O, do go down, Mr. Houghton, or I shall "Go, if you wish to." "I believe you're a coward."

"I am going as quick as I can," said Houghton, who did not relish this imputation, more especially as he had a decided conviction that it was near the truth. "Here's your pistol."

Just then he stumbled across a box of front door, and hurried down the steps, fearing lest an alarm might be raised. He soon reached his own house, and entered, saying nothing of his adventure. The Houghtons did not sleep much. Mr. Houghton was convinced that he had shot

"Better wait till morning, he said. "He may still be alive, and might shoot me."

He bolted the chamber door, but it is needless to say that neither he nor his wife

Houghton's favorite cat, who had received the bullet intended for the midnight ma-

"You told me to." "I don't understand it; I distinctly heard omebody swear."

"Probably it was the cat," said Mr. Ioughton, sarcastically.

Mrs. Houghton was not sure. It seemed s if puss were the only burglar, yet she had never heard that cats were in the habit of swearing. To this day that night's adventure is a mystery to the bewildered pair. of course Mr. Jones never revealed his complicity, and the cat still bears the blame of the nocturnal uproar, and the destruction

MISCELLANEOUS.

Female Federal Spies. THEIR OPERATIONS IN LOUISVILLE DURING THE WAR.

From the Louisville Courier, 24th ult.

During the spring and summer of 1863 the city of Louisville was lined with spies, male and female, who were operating in the interest of the United States Government. These agents did not confine their labors to Kentucky, but also operated in Southern Indiana, visiting the towns and hamlets, wherever any clue could be obtained to parties dealing in articles contraband of war. The female spics were generally disguised in male attire, and so complete was the deception that they visited the Louis-ville Hotel, Galt House, theatres, and other public places, without attracting any paricular attention or exciting the slightest suspicion of their sex. They appeared like young men of eighteen or twenty years of age, and dressed in the latest styles, twisting their fancy canes and smoking cigars like young bloods of the first water. With the exception of, perhaps, three or four ci-vilians, their range of acquaintances was confined to the officers then on duty at this post. It was their custom to report to the provost marshal's office, in female attire, every day, and as there were women con-stantly at the office on business, the presence of these spies never gave rise to any

These females frequently made incursions through the lines, and penetrated the depths of the Confederacy, gaining important information regarding the movements of the enemy, etc. Of these the most daring was a handsome young actress, who had been a great favorite at Wood's Theatre, in this city. She has since, we understand, published a yellow covered history of her operations in the Confederacy. But the most interesting part of it has never been written. It was the manner in which she was engaged as a spy and the cunning plan by which she was delivered through the lines to the Confederates as an "enemy" to the Union. If we mistake not she was playing a part in the "Seven Sisters" when it occurred to the Provost Marshal that she would be just the "trick" for a spy. It was accordingly proposed to her, and she "accepted the situation in good faith," agreeing to abide by and follow out the instructions laid down. In one of the scenes a hanquet occurs, at which each of the performers gave a toast, in which they aimed to make a "local bit." It was understood that this extress should advance to the foot. that this actress should advance to the foot-lights and drink "the health of Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy," when she was to be instantaneously arrested by the Provost Marshal, who was on hand with his Mr. Houghton didn't seem to be much in a hurry. In fact he was rather cowardly by pature, and didn't at all relish a conflict was a great sensation.

The audience in their bewilderment could scarcely believe their ears, eyes or senses, and as she was a favorite on the Louisville boards, the sympathy for the supposed rash young lady was deep and earnest, although her friends were powerless to help her, or save their pet from the impending doom.—On the following day, this incident (not set down in the programme) was the topic of the state of the New says:—Near the outskirts of the view of Brooklyn lives a man and wife who keep a large number of cows, the man serving the milk to his customers every morning. It is not swill milk, for they have large down in the programme) was the topic of thought. "He is probably some desperate ruffian."

He slipped quietly to the foot of the stairs, and pulling the trigger fired.

There was a piercing scream, such as it was hard to think could proceed from any human lungs.

Mr. Houghton, his soul stricken with fear, bounded up the stairs, four stairs at a bound. Jones heard the report, and he too was astonished.

"Who has got into the house?" he thought. "Somebody has fired a pistol at me. Who screamed, I wonder?"

Just then he stumbled across a box of step and others, and her triumphant reception and others, and her triumphant reception.

she was conducted to the out posts with the usual baggage allowed in such cases, in which were stowed away copies of the papers containing accounts of the affair. The pair of the foot of the stairs, and young accounts of the affair. The part of the foot of the stairs, and bounded disappear for about an hour, and the milk was brought in, taking several pairs of the papers containing accounts of the affair. The papers containing accounts of the affair. The papers containing accounts of the papers containing accounts of the affair. The papers containing accounts of the affair. The papers containing accounts of the papers containing accounts of the affair. The papers containing accounts of the session, and sent to Nashville, where she had a big reception, and received some handsome presents from those who appreciated her trials and faithfulness to the Union down in the hall, and took up a paper cause. The government afterwards com-missioned her as major, and for aught we know, she wears the rank to-day and re-murder which had been committed upon a Houghton was convinced that he had shot a burglar, and that he was probably stretched out in the dining-room. But he didn't like to go down and look at him.

"Better wait till morning, he said. "He ceives pay, though we have not heard of her even having been assigned to the command of any department. The last account we should be all up stairs murdered in their bad of her she was one of the attractions at beds. So up stairs I rushed opened the first meats, &c.—are all prepared with brandy; to their customers! I closed the consequently the patient is in a state of con-quietly, and made my exit as I entered. "Could it be possible that Tom upset the thoughton.

"I think it must be," said her husband, bewildered.

"Explored the patient is in a state of countries of the commence putting up about the time to commence putting up is becoming darker and darker, and is greatly complicated by the interference of curing it will probably be acceptable to many of our readers: "Get your corn when

In Maryland the Republican Union party are organizing for a vigorous effort to defeat the new Constitution framed by the late Conservative Convention, which essentially turns the State over, bound hand and foot, to the rebel element. The Republicans will have a hard battle to fight, with the chances against them. In a State where the rebel soldiers are petted and freely accorded the right to vote and control the State, and the colored man who bravely fought and bled for the flag, is down-trodden, there can be little hope that Union principles will prevail yet awhile.

A. Johnson telegraphed to Ohio for the colored lawyer and orator, Mr. Langston; whereupon Mr. L. went to Washington, and obeying the summons of the President, called upon him. After a free conversation on the Freedmen's Bureau and the course of General Howard, Mr. Langston was offered the high position as Superintendent in the place of General Howard, but refused point blank, and begged the President not to make the contemplated removal. So it appears that even a "nigger" refuses to hold office under A. J. Since President Johnson's overtures to the Democrats have grown so shameless, they are evidently becoming somewhat afraid of their company. The New-York World of last week, in discussing the probable cabinet reorganization, hopes that dependant upon it. We never knew it to be only Republicans will be appointed to positions. It does not want the Democracy to Journal. be held responsible. But the difficulty is that no decent Republican can be found who will so far forget himself as to asso-ciate himself with Johnson. Only renegades from both parties are low enough.

A free and easy conversation with Gen. Sheridan on his Presidential prospects, is reported to have elicited the following reply :- "I expect to live and die in the army. have no aspirations for civil position. I believe I can discharge the executive duties of my present position, as I have succeeded in the command of both infantry and cavalry forces, finding new exigencies ever tapping new energies commensurate with new fields of labor within the army; but I love army life too well to seek its exchange for new and untried labors in civil life." GAMBLING IN NEW YORK .- A stringent GAMBLING IN NEW YORK.—A stringent law was passed by the last Legislature of New York for the suppression of gambling, and anti-gambling societies have been formed in New York city for the purpose of carrying out the law. The gamblers have also formed a society and mean to contest the constitutionality of the law. One of the papers declares that there are four hundred and fifty men in that city who earn their livelihood by decoying parties into are livelihood by decoying parties into aro-banks, and sharing the plunder with their keepers.

A FAMILY MAN.-The Rheinische Zeitung, a German newspaper, says two years ago Mr. Christian Seyemeyer became father of his fifty-eighth child. His first wife gave birth to twenty-three,of which six were twins and eleven single born children; his second wife to nineteen, and his third and yet living wife is mother to sixteen children. Of these fifty-eight children, twenty-eight are living, all being daughters, and the man has never been sick, and enjoys good health, as do his children.

Negro soldiers are just the troops for war Sixteen troublesome Indians have been the plains. The Indians never scalp them. killed by the miners at Sweetwater, Utah.

On the following day, this incident (not set down in the programme) was the topic of conversation, and many were the expressions of sympathy for this act of madness in the very teeth of the blue coats and bristling bayonets. It will be recollected that at that time the theatres were under the supervision of a provost guard, who were ready to arrest the first one who committed, by act or word, a breach of lovalty. The tion, more especially as he had a decided conviction that it was near the truth.

"Here's your pistol."

Mr. Houghton took the pistol with no great alacrity, and opening the door, began to descend the stairs. He heard sounds, as of some one groping about, and that gave him courage. It seemed to indicate that the burglar had no light.

"I hope he won't catch hold of me," thought he, and his blood ran cold at the thought. "He is probably some desperate ruffian."

He slipped quietly to the foot of the stairs, was to be sent through the lines for disloyalty to the government. This was considered a lenient sentence, but it was generally supposed that she was deemed a monomaniac by the military authorities.—

Of course, no person but himself and two fine figures, and, as I before stated as one of the family. Both of these women have on their part.

When the day for her departure arrived, she was conducted to the out posts with the usual baggage allowed in such cases, in which were stowed away copies of the pa who has the same remarkable clearness of complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a companion than servant, eating her meals with them, and in overy respect is treated as one of the family. Both of these women have fine figures, and, as I before stated, remarkable clearness of disloyalty to the government. This was I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a complexion a

Just then he stumbled across a box of matches, and struck one against the wall.—
The light revealed to him the startling information that he was in the wrong house.
"Good gracious!" he exclaimed, the light flashing upon him, "I've been fired at as a burglar. I must get out of this."

He lost no time in making his way to the front door, and hurried down the steps, fearing lest an alarm might be raised. He lost no time in making his way to the fearing lest an alarm might be raised. He had of her she was one of the attractions at Barnum's Museum, in New York.

Barnum's Museum, in New York. He bolted the chamber-door, but it is needless to say that neither he nor his wife slept much that night.

With the first glimmering of dawn, everything below being quiet, his courage returned and supported by Mrs. Houghton, be descended to the dining-room.

He opened the door nervously, but instead of seeing the dead burglar, only saw an overturned table, demolished crockery, and on a chair, cold in death, the body of Mrs. Houghton's favorite cat, who had received the bullet intended for the midnight manners.

Barnum's Museum, in New York.

To Cure Drunkenness is cured in Holland in the following manner:
The patient is shut up in a room, and descended to the dining-room.

As often as he pleases, spirits—brandy, whisky, gin, &c., are given him, but mixed with two-thirds water; all other drinks, such as beer, coffee, wine, &c., are limited with order in the habit of taking a daily bath of milk, frein from the cow, and, in mixed with one-third brandy. The various vivands, too, that are given him—bread, meats, &c.—are all prepared with brandy:

To Cure Drunkenness is cured in Holland in the following manner:

The patient is shut up in a room, and descended to the dining-room.

As I opened the door I beheld the young woman before spoken of in a bath tub fast asleep, her head being supported by a strap. She was in a bath of milk! Here was the mystery of the fine complexion of mistress and maid, as also of the mystery of the carrying up and down stairs of the milk. They were in the habit of taking a daily bath of milk, frein from the cow, and, in the following manner:

The patient is shut up in a room, and descended to the dining-room.

As I opened the door I beheld the young woman before spoken of in a bath tub fast asleep, her head being supported by a strap. She was in a bath of milk! Here was the physician. As often as he pleases, spirits—brands with two-thirds water; all other drinks, such as beer, coffee, wine, &c., are given him—bread, by the please of the door that came to hand, and door that came to hand, an to their customers! I closed the door his organs absolutely abhor alcohol. The Turkey. What right Turkey has to crush cure is complete, and from that day forth our blacks is not clear, but that she does the very smell of spirits produces the effect of an emetic.

In Maryland the Republican Union party as follows: Mr. Seward wants to see the Turkish Minister, Mr. Blacque. His Secretary writes to Judge Black. Black is out of town, and his son telegraphs to him. Black, thinking he is to go into the Cabinet, rushes back to Washington, and the first man be meets at the State Department is Blacque Black and Blacque gaze at each other black-ly. Black turns white, and Blacque grows red. This dreadful encounter throws a gloom over the whole country, and we suggest that Mr. Seward should call the atten

> THE COAL TRADE. - The quantity sent by railroad this week is 60,547 15-by canal 16,040 15-for the week 76,588 10 tons against 116,407 tons for the corresponding week last year.

The trade still remains without improve ment. This Region with its large productive capacity is now placed in the position by the inactivity of manufacturing operations and the high rates of transportation on the Reading Railroad, of merely supplying the surplus required by the market and which the other regions cannot furnish. And even this is done at prices which are not remunerative to the operator. The immediate future of the trade here is gloomy and pregnant with trouble to all classes dependant upon it. We never knew it to be

The Copperheads of Schylkill county held their nominating convention on Monday of last week. It was the occasion of a forcible demonstration of the Irish element in opposition to the English and Germans. Many of the Irish delegates were armed, and prepared to go any length to accomplish their purposes. The convention continued in session until midnight, and then broke up in a row. Altogether it was a disgraceful affair, but was no doubt a fair exhibition of the character of "Democracy" in Schuylkill county. W. M. Randall was nominated for re election to the State Senate; and as we are to have a Copperhead from that district, we are content he shall be a gentleman of Randall's courteous and amiable disposi Anny's party is daily getting smaller and beautifully less. Even the Democrats are deserting him. In York County, the home of Jere. Black, who expects to be called to Johnson's Cabinet, a Democratic Convention was held the other day, in which Andy's name was not even mentioned, while the Democratic County Convention of Allegheny, which met in Pittsburg a few days since, re-fused to pass a resolution which was offered endorsing the administration of Johnson.

Peaches of the best quality are selling at Philadelphia at seventy-five cents per basket. Why should they command three times that price at Sunbury?

The Apaches and Navajoe Indians are committing outrages in New Mexico. They had driven off some 13,000 sheep, of which 1500 had been recovered. Brandy distilled from pure grape juice wine, or apple cider, is to be taxed as though distilled directly from grapes or apples.

Sixteen troublesome Indians have been Auditors', Administrators' and Executors' Notices 83,00. Obituaries (except the usual announcement which is free,) to be paid for at advertising rates Local Notices, Society Resolutions, &c.; 10 cents per line.

Advertisements for Religious, Charitable and Educational objects, one-half the above rates.
Transient advertisements will be published until ordered to be discontinued, and charged secondingly.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. The following are the rates for advertising in the American. Those having advertising to do will find it convenient for reference:

Ten lines of this sixed type (minion) make one

A Modern Bluebeard.

Three years ago there was no happier girl in all Milwaukie than Mary Schroeder. Her parents were in comfortable circum-stances, and refused their daughter nothing that could add to her comfort and happi-

One day she met Chris, Gantenbein, and conversation, and many were the expressions of sympathy for this act of madness in the very teeth of the blue coats and bristling bayonets. It will be recollected that at that time the theatres were under the supervision of a provost guard, who were ready to arrest the first one who committed, by act or word, a breach of loyalty. The newspapers recorded the arrest of the fair actress, and in due time it was announced that she was to be sent through the lines for disloyalty to the government. This was considered a lenient sentence, but it was generally supposed that she was deemed a monomaniac by the military authorities.—

Of course, no person but himself and two or three of the military were supposed to be in the secret, or had an idea that it was all of the family. Both of these women have in the secret, or had an idea that it was all of the family. Both of these women have in the secret, or had an idea that it was all of the family in the secret, or had an idea that it was all of the family. Both of these women have in the secret, or had an idea that it was all of the family. Both of these women have in the secret, or had an idea that it was all of the family. Both of these women have in the man has more customers than he can the man has fine looking woman, about twenty-five years of age, though she looks to be much younger, and she has the finest complexion that it was ever my fortune to see. They have living with them a young girl who is very good looking, and who has the same remarkable clearness of complexion as the mistress.

I should say that she is more of a companion than servant, eating her meals with the man has more customers than he can the dan not tell Mary of it. He had not a handsome face, he had not a handsome face, be had n was introduced to him. He had just served him. There was no carriage to receive her at the ferry landing. She walked with him clear up to the Fifth ward to his brother's house. There she learned that he was not only not rich, but was very poor.

Somebody furnished him a little mone and he started a saloon. Soon he moved into the building at the corner of Fifteenth and Iowa streets. Customers came to him and he commenced prospering. Alas for Mary! He commenced getting drunk, too, and to beat her. Her home was a perfect hell to her. She was in constant fear of life, and she says that time and again, when she asked for money to buy food, she has been answered by a blow and a kick. She became a mother, and then her torments of heart were doubled, for she knew of her inability to protect the child in his moments or rather hours. ments-or rather hours-of passion. Thus she has lived for three years-subject to more kicks than kisses—more blows than blessings—a hundred fold more. This life of torment culminated last Sutur-

day. Gantenbein got drunk. Several times during the day he whipped his wife. In the evening, with her child in her arms, she told him there was no bread in the house, and nothing fot the little one to eat. He and nothing for the little one to eat. He swore a terrible oath, and said he would give her bread! Picking up a dog chain, he wound it about her neck, knocked her down on the floor, and then dragged her by the chain across the large room. Then he caught hold of her long hair and dragged her back again. Then he took the chain and beat her over the head and face with it, bicked her and at last nicked up a butcher. kicked her, and at last picked up a butcher-knife and jabbed her cheek with it. She screamed murder, and the neighbors and passersby rushed in and rescued her. All this time the child lay on the floor, screaming at the top of its voice. Officer Herkes arrested Gantenbein and took him to jail.

Yesterday he was brought before Justice Foltzer for examination. He plead guilty to assault with intent to do great bodily harm, and was held to bell in the harm, and was held to bail in the sum of $500.

the grains are in prime order for the tablewhen the corn is tenderest and the juice sweetest. Boil the corn a few minutes (not above five)-three is better than five. Then cut out and lay away to dry. Take any method that will soonest dry your corn, being always careful not to burn it; and do not lay in lumps, or too close together when drying, or it will soon mould. Around a stove, or where there is a fire is a good place, always avoiding dampness, steam, etc. Put in sacks, and hang it away in a dry place, and your corn is fit for next winter's use. In using, you are to restore it as near as possible to the original state. This is best done by first washing it to get out dust and tion of Turkey to that section of the Civil Rights bill which prohibits any persecution husk, and then thoroughly soaking in water, using the same to boil it in. on account of race or color .- N. Y. Tribune.

> The Indian tribes who are now at war with the United States, number as follows:
>
> -Appaches, 7000; Arappaces, 3000; Blackfeet, 6000; Crows, 3000; Camanches, 20,000; Kiowas, 4000; Cheyennes, 2500; Gros
> Ventres, 500; Minatares, 25,000; Navajoes,
> 7500; Sioux, 22,000. Total, 76,000.

> Rebel antecedents appear to be fatal to political supremacy even among the Chero-kee Indians. At their election of Chief, Ross, whose family has been supreme for thirty years, was defeated because he had been a Rebel Licutenant-Colonel. The business men of several towns in > Illinois are signing agreements that after a certain date they will neither receive nor pay out torn or defaced postal currency. The merchants of Decatur intend adopting a similar policy. Flaxseed has proved a profitable crop this year in many parts of Ohio, the yield having been unusually large, and the price, two dollars per bushel, satisfactory to farm-Mrs. Kate Totten has sued the Pacific railroad at St. Louis for running a train over her husband and killing him, a few days since. She valued him at $12,000. The United States Patent Office recently refused to grant a patent to a spiritualist of New York who applied for a patent for "an arrangement to make ghosts visible.'

Isaac F. Bragg, of Pine Meadow, walkeds recently to Hartford, Conn., a distance of nineteen miles. He is in his eighty-second

The largest income returned at San Francisco last year was that of Florinza Hay-ward, the owner of a coal mine. It was $165,333.

The Board of Education of Utica have challenged the Common Council to play a match game of base ball.

Of the ten principal iron manufacturing States of the Union, Michigan stands second, the first being Pennsylvania.

The Greek Government has beheaded three thousand brigands within the last quarter of a century.

A hundred dollars is offered for a pint of water in New South Wales, where they are dying of thirst.

There are in Virginia and West Virginia 818 Baptist Churches, with 118,322 members, besides over 6000 auti-mission Baptists. During the past twenty years four million emigrants have arrived at the port of New York,

Is a bottle of ginger-pop weighs one pound and a half, how much will your grandpon weigh ?-Answer solicited.