GEN. GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT .-It is well known that President Johnson and the Democrats, have long tried to inveigle Gen. Grant, and get him to commit himself to their policy, and if possible to become their candidate for the Presidency. The President has attempted to impeach the veracity of Gen. Grant, in charging him with having promised to hold on to the office of secretary of War, or resign it before Secre-tary Stanton could be reinstated by the Senate. Gen. Grant, in his last letter to the has infused in the general system of educa-President, denies most indignantly that he tion, has brought about this great change in ever made any such promise, and charges favor of liberality, on the part of the people, for the cause of education. Whatever is the the President with "an attempt to involve influence at work, we are satisfied it is doing him in resistance of law, for which the an immense amount of good, and that its President himself hesitated to assume the tendency is to place our system of education responsibility, in order to destroy his on a still firmer and broader basis, promising (Grant's) character before the country." It is now a simple question of veracity between congratulate all concerned in this grand the General and the President, and on such work, on the cheering evidence they an issue the President will stand nowhere.

THE SHERIFF of Luzerne county had levied on and advertised for sale all the property and franchises of the Union Coal Company. One portion of this property was acquired hast year, the price paid being $1,750,000. The property of this Company, situated in Wayne county, was sold some weeks ago, the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company becoming the purchaser, as it doubtless will be of the property located in Luzerne county. Indeed, it is quite probable the Union Coal Company was organized for the express purpose of being sold out; its property and franchises thus falling into the possession of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company. This will work an augmentation of its pri vileges which it could hardly have obtained from the Legislature .- Pitteburg Gazette.

GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT .- The New

York Times' special pronomness the state ment, said to be supported by the Cabinet, that Grant admitted that he had agreed to hold on until removed, as totally false. He agreed with the President, that if he (Grant) was removed, Stanton would have to resort to the Courts, but he never promised the President that he would so remain and become a party to the controversy. A subsequent examination of the law convinced him of the course he must pursue, and forty-eight hours before the Senate acted, he waited upon Johnson of his own volition and announced his determination. It is said that Mr. Bonner, who likes to have everybody write for the Ledger, asked

General Grant to become also a contributor, and that the General told him, "You may print my speeches."

A BALM FOR EVERY WOUND. - Graces Celebrated Salee is now so generally used for the cure of flesh wounds, cuts, burns, ulcers, felons, sprains, and all diseases of the skin, that praise of it seems to be needless. Those who have tried it once always keep a box on hand, and nothing will induce them to be without a supply.

More First Premiums have been awarded to FAIRBANKS' STANDARD SCALES. than to all others combined. The opinion of the world in their favor was confirmed by their receiving the highest premiums at the Paris Exposition.

NATIVE WINES.—Some time since we stopped at Passaic, and were really surprised to see the old store house there sell filled with wine on storage. The amount of Mr. Speer's stock of Port Grape Wine on band is almost fabulous. Four storehouses are filled, and tiers upon tiers of casks up and down stairs, and in some cases huge vats, occupy every available spot, leaving only little alley ways through which to walk. It is an illimitless quantity of wine. None is sold until it has acquired the age of four years, and the buildings, 1. 2, 3 and 4, are of the first, second, third and fourth year's vintage. Our druggists have some of the oldest of the above wine direct from Mr. Speer.—Patersonian.
