He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

Immediately Cared, and Full Vigor Restored.

This Distressing Affection—which renders Life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretent to deary that the power of procreation is lost seemer by those falling into improper habits than by the prudents? Besides deing deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring the most serious and destrective symptoms to both body and mind sites. The system becomes Derauged, the Physical and Mental Punctions Weakened, Loss of Procentive Power, Nervous Irritability. Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debitty, a Wasting of the Frame, Gough, Consumption, Decay and Death,

Dr. Johnston,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Gradunte from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the huspitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when salech, great nervousness, being slarmed at sudden a unids, bashfolmess, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured
icomediately. Dr. Johnston,

Dr. J. addresses all these who have injured themselve by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which rui-both body and mind, unfitting them for either business both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or immringe.

Thiss are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth. viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sght, Loss of Muscular Power, Psipitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irritability, Demograment of the Digestive Functions, General Debithy, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss or Memory, Confionant of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil-Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitade, Timidity, &c. are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and enactated, having a slingular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

Want a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the durling of his parcents, should be suntched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating Young Men

Marriage, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote communal happiness. Indeed without those, the journey through life becomes a weary pitgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melanchaly reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own

Disease of Imprudence.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that in all-timed sense, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. delaying till the constitutional as improvens of this horized disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated aware throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful tapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this award disease becames a horized object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melaucholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, ewing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that "Deadly Pouson, Mercury," ruin the constitution and make the residue of life

Trust not your lives, or health, to the care of the many Unlearned and Worthless Pretenders, destrute of knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr Johnston's advertisements, or style themselves, in the newspapers, regularly Educated Physicians, incapable of Curing, they keep you trilling month after month taking their fifthy and poissonus compounds, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined health to high over your gailing disappointment.
