REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. AUDITOR GENERAL, Gen. JOHN F. HARTRANFT, OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY. SURVEYOR GENERAL. Col. JACOB M. CAMPBELL,

The result of the Connecticut election proves that the Republicans have gained in that State, notwithstanding Governor English has been re-elected by a majority of 1,500, against 900 last year. This increase has been made in the cities of New Haven and Hartford, by "colonists" and "repeaters." The Repullicans have a majority of 28 on joint ballot in the Legislature, and will elect a United States Senator in place of Dixon, a Johnson man. The Republicans have

The trial will, perhaps, occupy eight or ten days longer. The object of the President's obstacle to stave off the result, as conviction seems inevitable.

BRICK POMEROV. -This notorious and traitorous rebel sympathiser, who edits what he calls a Democratic paper, at La Crosse, Wisconsit, has been invited to lecture before the Maryland Legislature. It is surprising that any individuals who have any claims of intelligence, decency or patriotism, should read his paper or listen to the harangues of a blackguard, who openly defended the rebellion and applauded the asarise for a future occasion.

A CONVICTION CONSIDERED CERTAIN

WASHINGTON, April 3 .- Senator Edmunds Mr. President, I move to strike out that part of it relating to the yeas and nays being taken by the request of the presiding officer.

Senator Conkling—Mr. President, not having heard the motion of the Senator (Edmunds), I ask for the reading of the seventh rule.

It was read as proposed to be amended.

Senator Drake—I have no objection to the amendment of the Senator from Vermont.

The rule as amended was adopted.
On motion of Senator Drake, the rules were ordered to be printed as amended.
Charles A. Tinker recalled.
Mr. Butler—before interrogating Mr.

Tinker I will read a single paper. The paper is the message of the President of the United States communicating to the Senate the report of the Secretary of State, showing oceedings under the concurrent resolu gained all through the State, except the tion of the two Houses of Congress of the 18th of June in submitting to the Legislatures of the several States an additional article to Senator Thayer—What article?

Mr. Butler—The foorteenth article. It is dated June 22, 1856. It is the same one to which the dispatch related. An executive document of the first session of the Thirtycounsel being delay, they will interpose every ninth Congress. In order to show to what dispatch he referred the message was handed to the President's counsel for inspection, after which it was read by the Secretary.

SECRETARY STANTON TO APPEAR. Since the fact has become known that it is of Impeachment as a witness, some fears are entertained that during the time he would be absent from the War Office efforts would be made by General Thomas or the Presi-dent's friends to get possession of it. Q. When was that ? A. I think, sir, that it was a little over a year ago.

Q. What occasion led you to revise it from your notes then ? A. I was summoned by the Committee of the New Orleans riot; I think it was a little time after receiving the summons; I hunted up my notes and again made a comparison, with the speech. Q. How far did that second comparison verify your correctness? A. It was perfect-y correct, sir.

Q. In regard to the particulars of the report, were you enabled to report so correctly as to give inaccuracies of pronunciation?

A. Yes, sir, I did so in many instances.

Q. Where are the original notes now!

A. I can't tell, sir; I searched for them a little after I was summoned here, but I failed to find them.

Q. You had them at the time you were examined before the committee on the New Orleans riot? A. Yes, sir; I have no recollection of them since that time.

Q. Have you a copy of that paper i A.

I have, sir.

Mr. Butler then put in evidence the St. Louis Democrat's report of the President's speech in St. Louis, made on the 8th of Sep. tember, 1866.

The speech was read in full by the Clerk. The most offensive portions of it are set out in the third specification of the tenth arti-cle. Curiously enough it contains a paragraph predicting that the Fortieth Copgress, it constituted as the Thirty-ninth Congress was, would try to impeach and re-move him from office on some pretence of violating the Constitution or refusing to enforce some law.
