

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL. Gen. JOHN F. HARTMAN, OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY. SURVEYOR GENERAL. Gen. JACOB M. CAMPBELL, OF CASHTOWN.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1868. The rainy season is upon us, and with it has come, as usual, the yearly meeting of the Quakers.

But they are not the only religious body now in Convention. The Episcopal Convention also met yesterday and was presided over by Bishop Stevens, having recovered from his injuries in a late railroad accident near Wilkes-Barre.

Business is at a stand, and all are anxiously looking for a settlement of our national affairs at Washington. The city has been in an excited condition for the past week on the subject of impeachment.

Republicans everywhere are firm in their convictions that President Johnson is guilty and should be removed. There is no doubt, however, that Messrs. Fessenden, Trumbull and others, have suffered feelings and prejudices to control them in this matter.

Chase, it is said, will be the Johnson candidate, and some of those recent Senators may be looking for cabinet appointments.

THE ADMISSION OF ARKANSAS.—The passage of the bill for the admission of Arkansas to the Union, by Congress, is an event which marks the conclusion of the business of restoration.

Who had sat silently quiet in his chair all day, and who assured his correspondent an hour previous that he would not speak to-day, rose and stated to the Senate that, had this case been before any ordinary justice of the peace, it would have long ago been dismissed.

Who read his written argument, which you were previously advised he was preparing before Bingham commenced to speak.

A rapid survey of the field showed that there were now lost—Messrs. Trumbull, Fessenden, Henderson and Grimes, upon all the articles; Mr. Fowler had not spoken, but he was expected to do so in the afternoon.

On Monday last Hon. Thaddeus Stevens reported to the House a bill providing for the re-admission of North and South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama to the Union.

With a power and an eloquence that made the Senate Chamber ring, and fixed upon him the eyes and minds of all, he introduced the excuses of Trumbull and Henderson, and made them wince under his sledge hammer blows.

THE FEELING IS REPORTED TO BE CALM. The feeling that the case has been sold out, and that money is the great lever which has been brought to bear upon the Senate, is boldly declared.

THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC is perfecting its organization for effective service in the campaign. These soldiers will not permit the welfare of the Union to be endangered by the restoration of disloyal men to political power.

A GOOD RULE is in force on some of the railroads of Pennsylvania, to the effect, that the officers of such roads are clearly forbidden to sell a ticket to or allow any intoxicated person to ride in any of their cars.

A GEORGIN 7 feet high and weighing 480 pounds, has been buried and a tombstone is being made for him in Vermont.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 11, 1868. A DAY OF GLOOM. From a feeling of safety and certainty a great political party has shifted this afternoon into doubt and almost despair.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

Adjournment of the Impen-

WASHINGTON, May 13-4 P. M.—The reading of the journal was concluded at 11:45, when Mr. Edmunds' order, regarding the rule requiring this vote to be taken to-day, was adopted without a division.

The Senate was then called to order, and a motion made by Mr. Drake to adjourn till to-morrow was lost by a vote of 23 to 27.

Mr. Drake thought they could recover from it to to-morrow, but Mr. Yates held that it would be necessary to allow longer time to calm their nerves.

Mr. Morton supported the motion for adjournment till to-morrow and it was then temporarily laid aside, when various House bills were disposed of.

WASHINGTON, May 12-4:20 P. M.—The city is rapidly filling up with out-of-town visitors, who are coming from different parts of the country.

It is understood that in case the President is elected and removed, he and his family are to be invited by a prominent and wealthy citizen of New York to visit the latter city, at which place a purse of $50,000 to $100,000 will be made up and presented to him.

It is reported also that if the President is acquitted a grand banquet will be given by the leading citizens of New York to the counsel for the President.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—It is understood that Mr. John W. Forney has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Senate, to take effect on the election of his successor.

Very respectfully, &c., GEORGE W. ANDERSON, WM. A. PILE, C. A. NEWCOMB, JAMES J. GRAYLIVY, JOHN W. MCILROY, BENJ. F. LOAN, JOHN F. BENJAMIN.

There is intense indignation among the loyal men, especially against Fessenden and Grimes, and the friends of the seceders.

Fessenden concealed his purpose from his most intimate friends. Up to the moment he spoke, even his own colleagues, Senator Howell and Senator Van Winkle, were ignorant of his intention.

Mr. Trumbull's course, in withholding his action from his own delegation up to the moment of his prepared speech, which had been secretly concocted, is loudly censured.

Col. Forney has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Senate of the United States, to take effect on Saturday.

"Postponement means defeat" is the mistaken cry of the Copperheads. The spirit of mischief has exhausted its influence, and the only result of the postponement of the final vote on the impeachment case is an advantage to the friends of the President.

With a power and an eloquence that made the Senate Chamber ring, and fixed upon him the eyes and minds of all, he introduced the excuses of Trumbull and Henderson, and made them wince under his sledge hammer blows.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

off with Messrs. Wade and Howard, but re-

Senator Sumner and others of like ilk declare that if the eleventh article is certain, the Senate will vote to acquit.

The Senate was then called to order, and a motion made by Mr. Drake to adjourn till to-morrow was lost by a vote of 23 to 27.

Mr. Drake thought they could recover from it to to-morrow, but Mr. Yates held that it would be necessary to allow longer time to calm their nerves.

Mr. Morton supported the motion for adjournment till to-morrow and it was then temporarily laid aside, when various House bills were disposed of.

WASHINGTON, May 12-4:20 P. M.—The city is rapidly filling up with out-of-town visitors, who are coming from different parts of the country.

It is understood that in case the President is elected and removed, he and his family are to be invited by a prominent and wealthy citizen of New York to visit the latter city, at which place a purse of $50,000 to $100,000 will be made up and presented to him.

It is reported also that if the President is acquitted a grand banquet will be given by the leading citizens of New York to the counsel for the President.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—It is understood that Mr. John W. Forney has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Senate, to take effect on the election of his successor.

Very respectfully, &c., GEORGE W. ANDERSON, WM. A. PILE, C. A. NEWCOMB, JAMES J. GRAYLIVY, JOHN W. MCILROY, BENJ. F. LOAN, JOHN F. BENJAMIN.

There is intense indignation among the loyal men, especially against Fessenden and Grimes, and the friends of the seceders.

Fessenden concealed his purpose from his most intimate friends. Up to the moment he spoke, even his own colleagues, Senator Howell and Senator Van Winkle, were ignorant of his intention.

Mr. Trumbull's course, in withholding his action from his own delegation up to the moment of his prepared speech, which had been secretly concocted, is loudly censured.

Col. Forney has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Senate of the United States, to take effect on Saturday.

"Postponement means defeat" is the mistaken cry of the Copperheads. The spirit of mischief has exhausted its influence, and the only result of the postponement of the final vote on the impeachment case is an advantage to the friends of the President.

With a power and an eloquence that made the Senate Chamber ring, and fixed upon him the eyes and minds of all, he introduced the excuses of Trumbull and Henderson, and made them wince under his sledge hammer blows.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

W. A. BENNETT,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST, 101 N. BROADWAY, SUNBURY, PA. Has just opened fresh and full assortment of Drugs and Medicines, unprepared in purity and freshness, and kept constantly on hand. My stock will always be found complete in every article of merit in Medicine.

FANCY ARTICLES! My stock is unusually large and embraces everything that can be found on a first class Toilet Table, including American and genuine French and English

Perfumery, Pomades, Hair Oil, Ivory, Guita Percha Wood and Horn Combs, Toilet Soaps, Hair, Tooth, Nail, Cloth and Palm Brushes, &c.

Wines, Brandies and Liqueurs, that I can procure. Before purchasing elsewhere, call and compare your own mind.

REVOLTING OUTRAGES UPON AMERICAN CITIZENS IN MEXICO. On Tuesday evening, the 21st instant, Messrs. Ernest Pritchard, Ferris H. Potter, Samuel B. Karkins, James Montgomery, Zaphia, and Rice, American merchants, who were promoting the principal streets of Monterey, were arrested by a squad of the city police, by order of Gov. Davila.

They were taken to a verminous dungeon which contained about 70 of the very scum and dregs of Mexican law, criminals and vagabonds, and after a night of horrors two of their number were ordered to carry out and empty a tub containing the accumulated filth of the preceding twenty-four hours.

They naturally refused to obey this beastly order, whereupon the jailer made a convulsive effort to seize them, and in executing his command he cut through the gentleman's clothing and drew blood.

Feeling that they might be flogged to death, the gentlemen dismissed their scruples and performed the menial task. Then three of our companions were forced to take turns in cleaning the cell and court yard of the prison, the degraded and brutal jailer, meantime, heaping upon them every epithet of abuse which their groveling brains could conceive.

Very respectfully, &c., GEORGE W. ANDERSON, WM. A. PILE, C. A. NEWCOMB, JAMES J. GRAYLIVY, JOHN W. MCILROY, BENJ. F. LOAN, JOHN F. BENJAMIN.

There is intense indignation among the loyal men, especially against Fessenden and Grimes, and the friends of the seceders.

Fessenden concealed his purpose from his most intimate friends. Up to the moment he spoke, even his own colleagues, Senator Howell and Senator Van Winkle, were ignorant of his intention.

Mr. Trumbull's course, in withholding his action from his own delegation up to the moment of his prepared speech, which had been secretly concocted, is loudly censured.

Col. Forney has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Senate of the United States, to take effect on Saturday.

"Postponement means defeat" is the mistaken cry of the Copperheads. The spirit of mischief has exhausted its influence, and the only result of the postponement of the final vote on the impeachment case is an advantage to the friends of the President.

With a power and an eloquence that made the Senate Chamber ring, and fixed upon him the eyes and minds of all, he introduced the excuses of Trumbull and Henderson, and made them wince under his sledge hammer blows.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

THOMAS G. NOT,

MERCHANT TAILOR, MARKET SQUARE, SUNBURY, PA. HAS JUST RECEIVED A LARGE AND WELL-SELECTED STOCK

OF SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the finest CLOTHS, CASSIMERES AND VESTINGS

ever brought to Sunbury, and which he promises to sell for the lowest price. Having the services of skillful tailors, he guarantees a good fit in every instance—inferior to none outside of the city.

Everything in the establishment will be guaranteed as represented. THOMAS G. NOT, Sunbury, May 6th, 1868.—17

Excutor's Notice. Notice is hereby given that letters testamentary have been granted to the undersigned, on the estate of Catherine Brocius, late of Lower Mahoning Township, Northumberland County, Pa., deceased.

ALL kinds of SCHOOL BOOKS, States, Pens, Ink, Paper, &c. Miscellaneous Books, a good assortment. All the new books received as soon as published, and at low prices.

PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS cheap and good. Gold Pens and Holders. Gold Pens and Holders. Picture Frames. Stereoscopes and Views, American, French, &c.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE. In pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Northumberland county, will be exposed to public sale, on the premises, in the Borough of SUNBURY, Pa., on SATURDAY, the 30th day of JUNE, 1868,

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

DAVID FRY. Respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he will take to order all kinds of

W. A. BENNETT,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST, 101 N. BROADWAY, SUNBURY, PA. Has just opened fresh and full assortment of Drugs and Medicines, unprepared in purity and freshness, and kept constantly on hand. My stock will always be found complete in every article of merit in Medicine.

FANCY ARTICLES! My stock is unusually large and embraces everything that can be found on a first class Toilet Table, including American and genuine French and English

Perfumery, Pomades, Hair Oil, Ivory, Guita Percha Wood and Horn Combs, Toilet Soaps, Hair, Tooth, Nail, Cloth and Palm Brushes, &c.

Wines, Brandies and Liqueurs, that I can procure. Before purchasing elsewhere, call and compare your own mind.

REVOLTING OUTRAGES UPON AMERICAN CITIZENS IN MEXICO. On Tuesday evening, the 21st instant, Messrs. Ernest Pritchard, Ferris H. Potter, Samuel B. Karkins, James Montgomery, Zaphia, and Rice, American merchants, who were promoting the principal streets of Monterey, were arrested by a squad of the city police, by order of Gov. Davila.

They were taken to a verminous dungeon which contained about 70 of the very scum and dregs of Mexican law, criminals and vagabonds, and after a night of horrors two of their number were ordered to carry out and empty a tub containing the accumulated filth of the preceding twenty-four hours.

Very respectfully, &c., GEORGE W. ANDERSON, WM. A. PILE, C. A. NEWCOMB, JAMES J. GRAYLIVY, JOHN W. MCILROY, BENJ. F. LOAN, JOHN F. BENJAMIN.

There is intense indignation among the loyal men, especially against Fessenden and Grimes, and the friends of the seceders.

Fessenden concealed his purpose from his most intimate friends. Up to the moment he spoke, even his own colleagues, Senator Howell and Senator Van Winkle, were ignorant of his intention.

Mr. Trumbull's course, in withholding his action from his own delegation up to the moment of his prepared speech, which had been secretly concocted, is loudly censured.

Col. Forney has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Senate of the United States, to take effect on Saturday.

"Postponement means defeat" is the mistaken cry of the Copperheads. The spirit of mischief has exhausted its influence, and the only result of the postponement of the final vote on the impeachment case is an advantage to the friends of the President.

With a power and an eloquence that made the Senate Chamber ring, and fixed upon him the eyes and minds of all, he introduced the excuses of Trumbull and Henderson, and made them wince under his sledge hammer blows.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.

At the opening of the debate to-day a motion was made to modify the House that the Senate would be ready to have the House present to-morrow at twelve.