G. W. BAUPP, Esq., has resigned his position as Superintendent of Common Schools of this county. We understand there are several applicants for the position.

The Presbyterians have been holding a Ponch Festival in the hall of the Court House, during the past week. We have not recorded the amount they realized.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS FOR SALE—J. M. Arter, corner of Fourth and Penn streets, Sunbury, will sell his furniture, &c., on September 17th, with the intention of removing to the West.

STRAWS—On Monday last a vote was taken on the Express Train, North, between Harrisburg and this place, with the following result:—For Grant and Colfax, 47; for Seymour and Blair, 22.

KILLED—Philly Doolittle was caught by a fall of coal in the hall of the Court House, near Mt. Carmel, on Friday morning, 25th ult., and injured to such an extent that he survived but a few hours. He was about 60 years of age.

EXCURSION TICKETS.—The Phila. & Erie Railroad Company will issue excursion tickets at this place to those who wish to attend the Looming County Fair, at Williamsport, on the 23d and 24th inst. Fare, $1.35 for the round trip.

DR. JOHN P. TAGGART, a native of Northumberland, and known to many of our citizens, but for several years a citizen of Cairo, Ill., is the Republican candidate for the Legislature in his county, and has taken the stump in favor of Republican principles.

SENTENCED.—On Monday of last week a man named James Carle, of Milton, was sentenced by Judge Bentley, at the session of court at Williamsport, to imprisonment for five years in the Penitentiary, and a fine of $30 and costs, for stealing a horse from Fishkill Hay.

HARNESS, WAGONS AND HARNESS FOR SALE.—Wm. Regan, Esq., will sell for sale, at Drummiller's Hotel, in this place, to-day, (Saturday), at 4 o'clock, P. M., a fine lot of harness, wagons and harness. The horses are all first-class, and the wagons and harness in good order.

The market for fruit and vegetables is well supplied, and prices are more reasonable. Watermelons of good size sell from 25 to 50 cents; cantaloupes from 10 to 20 cents. Tomatoes are abundant and sell at 60 to 75 cents per bushel, and have been sold as low as 50 cents. New potatoes are worth $1.50 per bushel.

PEACHES.—The finest peaches brought to our market, this season, are from the orchard of G. B. Youngman, Esq., near this place. They are selling at from $1 to $1.25 per bushel. Mr. Youngman's orchard is located on the hill, seven miles east of Sunbury, and will yield about two hundred bushels this season. It is a singular fact that there are no peaches, whatever, in our gardens in town.

SUNBURY CLASSICAL EXERCISES.—The first session of the present school year of this institution, consisting of both Primary and Higher Departments, was opened on Tuesday, Sept. 1st. All pupils desiring entrance are requested to appear as soon as possible, to be able to join their respective classes.

ELIAS SCHNEIDER, A. M.—The rebuilding of the Saw Mill of Mr. William Regan, in this place, recently destroyed by fire, is now a fixed fact. The Mill will be erected by a stock company, and will be greatly enlarged and improved, with a capital of $40,000 or $50,000. The work is in the hands of enterprising men and will be a creditable enterprise.

NEEDS LOOKING AFTER.—A subscriber complains of the bad "hot" material, between 4th and 5th. The sidewalks are not kept in repair, and in some instances are blocked with dirt and building material to such an extent that pedestrians are compelled to take the middle of the street. The Street Commissioners should immediately enforce the paving ordinance in that locality and have the street properly repaired.

The new railroad now in progress between this place and Hazleton, called the Danville, Hazleton and Wilkesbarre Railroad, is being pushed forward with great vigor. What is very important to the people of this place is the change of location, above town. The location will be so changed as to run along the river bank, instead of the hill. This will prevent the inundation of the low grounds above the bridge, and thus afford additional security to this place against unfiled floods in the river.

I. O. O. F.—At the regular stated meeting held by Fort Augustus Encampment, I. O. O. F., on Monday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: C. P.—Solomon, Sirah. H. P.—Henry Clement. S. W.—Charles P. Seasholtz. J. W.—Emanuel Wilvert. Sirah.—Townsend Himes. Treasurer.—Valentine Clem.

A GRANT AND COLFAX CLUB was organized at Northumberland, one evening last week, and the following persons were elected officers of it: President—George M. Leslie. Vice Presidents—Thos. H. Watts and Jesse Youan. Secretary—D. W. Samped. Corresponding Secretary—M. B. Priestley.

The Club meets every Saturday evening in Johnson's Hall. We are pleased to state that this Club is doing good service. The district is being thoroughly canvassed, and much good has already been accomplished.

ESCAPE OF PRISONERS.—On Sunday last, between 12 and 1 o'clock, two prisoners confined in our jail, named John O. Williams and Jesse Barnhart, made their escape. They took the wooden rod from the pump stock, and after climbing up to the second story of the jail building, on the outside, by means of the iron window grating, they laid one end of the rod on the window sill and the other, to which there was an iron hook attached, on top of the wall, and walked across. They then laid the rod on the outside of the wall and let themselves down to the ground and made their escape. There were no very serious charges pending against them. The Sheriff offers a reward of $40 for the arrest of Williams and $20 for Barnhart.

DISTURBANCE AT PITCH MEETINGS.—The conduct of the boys at the Court House, whenever any public meeting of any character is held in that building, is most disgraceful. There should be some one clothed with police authority to take charge of the building, and see that no disturbance is made. The auditor might be invested with such authority and compensated for his trouble. If some of the worst boys were arrested and imprisoned they would learn that youth is no excuse for want of decency and good order. These remarks will apply, also, to the meetings in the Masonic Hall. No public gathering should be permitted without some authorized person to keep order. This is done in all well regulated communities.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—On Tuesday evening an impromptu Republican meeting, of a few hours' duration, was held in the Court House, to listen to an address from Hon. Frank P. Jordan, of Harrisburg, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The meeting was organized by calling Geo. Waggoner to the chair, assisted by James Board, Dr. Joseph Eyster and Geo. Harrison, as Vice Presidents, and the appointment of John Youngman, Wm. A. Sober and E. Wilvert, as Secretaries.

Mr. Jordan had a large audience, and we were pleased to observe present a number of Democrats. Mr. Jordan's address was of that character that could not fail to have a good effect on all candid men, who were capable of appreciating the truth of an argument. He reiterated only well-established facts. He made no attack, whatever, on the personal character of Gov. Seymour, not even on the doubtful reputation of Frank Blair.

If Gov. Seymour's reputation for loyalty sufficed, it was because the evidence of his own friends was brought to bear against him. He quoted from a speech of Daniel Dickson, for many years the ablest of the New York Democracy, that Mr. Seymour was not true to his country. He quoted from the National Standard of New York, and from the Philadelphia Record, and from the Pennsylvania State Gazette, that Mr. Seymour was not true to his country.

Mr. Jordan was not true to his country. He quoted from the National Standard of New York, and from the Philadelphia Record, and from the Pennsylvania State Gazette, that Mr. Seymour was not true to his country.

The speech of Mr. Jordan was unanswerable, because he spoke from the records. Mr. Jordan followed in a few well received remarks, after the conclusion of Mr. Jordan's address.

GRANT AND COLFAX CLUBS.—A Grant and Colfax Club was organized at Mt. Carmel on the evening of the 25th ult. The following are its officers: H. T. Johnson, President; Richard Carnes, Vice President; David L. Leach, Recording Secretary; A. B. Deery, Corresponding Secretary; J. M. John, Treasurer. Some forty members were enrolled.

On Saturday evening, 29th ult., a Grant and Colfax Club was formed in Harg's Hall, Milton, with the following officers: L. M. Morton, President; L. Huff, J. D. Strino and John McMurtrie, Vice Presidents; R. L. Hatfield, Secretary; R. M. Frick, Corresponding Secretary; F. Piper, Treasurer; R. M. Frick, P. H. Schreyer and Milton Kerr, Financial Committee.

The grape crop, this season, will be a partial failure, as many of the vines have been winter-killed. The Concord and Delaware, with ourselves, have proved the most hardy. The Hartford Prolific have been ripe some ten days since. The Concord are ripening.

A DEMAGOGIC PIZLE.—The other day, said a grand flourish of trumpets, the valiant Purdy undertook to address the "unwashed" democracy of Potogrovo. By having an amanuensis to prepare notes for him the gifted orator managed to wade through about ten minutes of the most abominable jargon, and when he had done, he looked at his audience, but like the glories of the past, departed. He concluded it would not pay to talk to the four or five persons who remained to listen to his harangue. Never mind, Purdy, better luck next time!—Million.

PENNSYLVANIA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—ANNUAL MEETING.—The authorized delegates from the several counties of the State Agricultural Societies convened in the College Chapel, at Bellefonte, on Wednesday morning, 2d inst. John F. Wolfinger and David L. Ireland represented Northumberland County.

On motion of Judge Watts, of Cumberland county, Wm. B. Roberts, of Montgomery, was unanimously elected Chairman of the meeting, and John F. Wolfinger, of Northumberland, Secretary.

The Hon. Judge Watts, in behalf of the Board of Trustees, submitted their annual report. It contained a succinct statement of the management, an account and present status of the institution, and a declaration of its failure to meet the ends proposed by the originators of the movement. The report was supplemented by some pithy and earnest remarks relative to the prostrated situation of the institution, notwithstanding the handsome endowment fund and the aid of the churches, whose services had been rendered from the organization of the college. The measure lies not in the mismanagement of the institution, or in the erroneous ideas of one or many of the members of the Board of Trustees, but in the failure of the agricultural districts of our State to render the efforts of these self-educating and non-renumerated units. The school is prepared to give a thorough and liberal education to the sons of farmers, at an average of from two hundred and forty to two hundred and sixty dollars per year, while the expenses of a first-class literary institution are from eight hundred to a thousand dollars. Pupils are needed. These must be supplied through our county agricultural societies. The report was adopted and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Wolfinger, of Northumberland, entertained the convention by a brief and pertinent speech. He attributed this course of evil not to be in the management of the board, but to the citizens of the Keystone State, the members of the agricultural societies, and public men, for a lack of interest in the college, which should be the pride and glory of our State. He advocated a reduction in the price of tuition, board, &c., so as to put within the reach of the poorest farmer in the land the means for education not only for all the male members of the household, but for the members of the convention to return home and stir up the executive committee of the agricultural societies, editors of newspapers and public men of their respective neighborhoods, to a re-education of their own faith, and affection for this much-abused institution.

Mr. Wolfinger asked for the acceptance of the following resolution: Resolved, That the officers of our several agricultural societies throughout the State be requested to obtain the services of a suitable person to deliver an address before their respective societies at an early date, urging our farmers and mechanics to encourage and patronize the college until it shall successfully fulfill the great and sublime mission aimed at in its organization.

ONE PRICE CLOTHING. The resolution was adopted. The convention, on motion of A. B. Hamilton, proceeded to the election of trustees to fill vacancies occasioned by death and limitation of term. The ballots were duly cast and collected and the result announced as follows: For one year, Harry White, Esq. For three years, Messrs. Heister, Ellis and Kelly. There being no further business before the convention, on motion, it adjourned.

[For the Sunbury American.] Sunday School Celebration. The members of the Emanuel Union Sunday School celebrated the 4th day of September in a grove near the township school house of Lower Augusta. The school assembled at 9 o'clock, A. M., in the presence of several hundred persons, who were sung by the school. Preparations were then made to march to the grounds, when the order was given by the "Chief Marshal," and all marched out and formed in double line. When all was ready the order was forward, with singing the Royal Proclamation well.

We arrived on the ground, while singing ourselves and getting into order, the school sang another beautiful hymn. After all was quiet singing was again introduced by the Superintendent, as follows: To thee, O blessed Saviour, Our grateful songs we raise: O thou our hearts and voices Thy holy name to praise. 'Tis by sovereign mercy We've been rescued from distress, To join with friends and teachers Thy blessing to entreat.

After singing, prayer was offered up to Almighty God in behalf of the Sunbury School. Then the prayer audience was addressed by Revrs. W. A. Haas, J. B. Schmidt and J. F. Focht. Then dinner was prepared and the school assembled at the table. When the scholars had finished their repast another table was prepared, and so on, until about three hundred persons or over had refreshed themselves on the banquet which was provided by the surrounding neighbors and friends. Dinner being over, the remainder of the day was spent in various amusements. It was supposed that there were about five hundred persons on the ground, and all seemed to enjoy themselves well.

But ere we close we feel like telling our many kind friends and friends that they have our best thanks for their presence, and for the many kind and good order. These remarks will apply, also, to the meetings in the Masonic Hall. No public gathering should be permitted without some authorized person to keep order. This is done in all well regulated communities.

John Blauvelt says that while mankind complain of the shortness of life, people generally waste more time than they use. He admits, however, that the time is not wasted which is spent in purchasing a fine suit of clothing at Beck's sporting establishment, on Fourth street, and that those who go there get the worth of their time as well as the money.

A WRITER may be paid to be more free than a king, inasmuch as he can "choose his own subjects." And he who is wise in making a choice will buy his hat or cap at St. Faust's, in Market Square, where the finest and best assortment ever seen in Sunbury can be found.

Boots and Shoes are in demand all over the country just now. Attending political meetings "finish up" a good many pairs. A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Farmer who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleeding of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues, and can certify to the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire exhaustion of hope could induce him to hazard the experiment.
