The Chinese Government having (through the Hon Anson Berlingame) conceded to this Company the privi-lege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph calle, we propose commen-cing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following parts, viz POPULATION.

Hong-Kong, Swatow, Wan-Chu, Ningpo. Hong Chenu, . . . Shanghai,

These ports have a foreign commerce of $500,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, beside which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and analygable rivets. The cable being laid, this Company proposes execting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy incans of communication, which must command there, as everywhere class, the communications of the Government, of business, and of somit life, especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steam-ers on water. The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race.—

The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local ung intrates make her population FOUR HUNDRED AND FOURTEEN MILLIONS, ing purpores by the local magiatrates make her population POER HUNDRED AND FOURTEEN MILLIONS, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years oid, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quock to avail themselves of every proferred facility for procuring cally information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits measures in Eregish alone. To day great numbers of fleet steamers answered by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of carly intelligence. If the telegraph we propose, connecting all their great scaports, were now in existance, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter. No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of a vast national importance commercially, politically, and evangelicalically.

The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a designated investment by editorial saticles in the New York Hendly Tribure, Work Express, independent, and in the Philadelphia North Americon, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this Company to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 cach, $510 payable down, $15 on the lat of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 cach, commencing December 1, 1853, on application to

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER. SCHEETZ'S CELEBRATED

Bitter Cordial

This medical preparation is now effered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storchouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a Cora ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for Diarrhoxa, Dysentery, Bowel Complaint, Dyspepsia, Lowness of Spirits, Faintings, Sick-Headache, &e. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will ceunterset the effects of liquor in a few minutes.
