A CHANGE IN GEORGIA.-The Georgia Legislature has discovered that circumstances alter cases. The negroes were expelled from the Legislature at a time when it was believed to be safe to do so. Now that such expulsion promises to work the overturning of their whole reconstruction, the Georgia legislators are very anxious to get out of it, and wonderfully willing to though he had just entered upon his duties.

President Johnson is expected to very abide by a decision of the court in the premises. This eager humility is sufficiently amusing, but even more gratifying. At last southerners are capable of learning the will of the nation without having it thrust into them at the point of the bayonet. These Georgians have heard of the election of Grant, and they have found out precisely what it means.

The Tenure of Office Act.

On Monday, General Butler, who is generally equal to any emergency, finding there was no probability of getting his bill to repeal the Tenure of Office act out of the hands of the Judiciary Committee, had a copy made, and, under the call of States for resolutions, Mr Washburne, of Indiana, introduced it, called the previous question, and put it upon its passage without any debate, and, to the surprise of many, it passed by a vote of 119 to 47. The minority are all Republicans and every Democrat present, to maintain his consistency, against its original passage.

Among those voting "no" on the repeal Delano, Ames, Jenckes, Garfield, Laflin, Keisey, Mercur, Ferris, Pomeroy, Ward, Shellabarger, McCarthy, Morrel, Pettis and Moorhead. Of one hundred and nineteen yeas there were thirty-six Democrats and eighty three Republicans; or, excluding the Democratic votes entirely, it would have been repealed by the Rapublicans them-selves by a vote of eighty-three to fortyseven. Its fate in the Senate is doubtful, with the chances against its absolute repeal.

It is asserted that the people are disgusted with the administration of Juarez; that the President is controlled by Terdo when our interests are touched. We have de Tejada; that the government officials do as they please, and there is no protection for American residents. An American was murdered outside the walls of Vera Cruzshortly before the sailing of the French steamer. The assassin, although known to the authorities, was suffered to escape, and arrived at Havana yesterday. The United States Consul at Vera Cruz is powerless to obtain justice. The Mexicans are much incensed against the United States, and some of them clamor for another war. It was reported that General Alatorree would head a revolution against Juarez for the purpose of placing Porfrio Diaz at the head of the Government.

NEW

YORK TRIBUNE For 1869.

Within the last eight years our country has triumphantly passed through the gravent and mont trying perals which have confronted her same her fishependence was acknowledged. She has vindicated beyond, appeal her right to be regarded as no mere confederacy or league of jedous, envious, discordant States, but as substantially and permanentity a Nation, wherein the pretensions of no part can be admitted or uphed in opposition to the integrity, the paramount authority, of the One Republic.

The right of each man, by writee of his birth or his instrumization as a citizen of the United States, to the full enjoyment of onle, liberry, and the pursuit of happiness," until he shall forfest the right by crime, is also essablished on impregnable foundations. Our fathers proclaimed it in justifying their separation from Great Britain; it was left to us to establish as a fact what they merely affirmed as a principle. What the cannon of Seratoga and Verkitown proclaimed as an abstraction, the esmon of Gettysburg, vicksburg, and Five Forks, established as a living, embodied, caucied truth. Widely as our flag now floats, still more widely as it may float hereafter, there is, there can henceforth be, no legal master, no festered slave. Wrongs and abuses, servility and oppression, may still exist; but the Federal Constitution is no longer their shield, and the folds of our flag no longer emblazon nor seek to conceal a inc. The humblest American, so long as he violates no law, is master of his own limbs and the sole owner of all his can housely earn.

Of these commense results, the importance and the bene-

iie. The homblest American, solong as be violates no law, is master of his own limbs and the sole owner of all he can honestly eism.

Of these immense results, the importance and the beneficience will become more palpable with every added year. Distance is required to enable us to measure and appreciate the magnitude of the pyromid of Four Millions of shackles, stricken from the searred limbs of our estimaters which form the enduring monument of our struggle and our triumph. New arts, new industries, new developments of natural wealth, too long unbeeded and unvalued, will year by year stand forth in attensities that none of us has yet edequately realized the magnitude and the benignity of our National victory.

No great good is ever achieved without effort or without cust. Four years of patrictic struggle and sacrifice, Half a Million of men shin in battle or dying of the privations and exposures of War, Millions of bereaved ones, Five Billions of Pots incurred, attest the magnitude of the contest and the unyielding valor of the combatants.

At length, the smoke rises from the hard-won field, showing that the last intrenchment has been carried. The election of Graxy and Cottax gives assurance that the storm is over—that the Bow of Promise arches the sky. There are still obstances to samount, peris to avert, noble ends to be achieved; but the ship of State has reiden out the tempest and has her haven full in view. The seven State reconstructed under the recent acts of Congress, will stand, and will be followed by the three that have hitherto stould along; the rights of the Freedmen will be upsied and respected, and impartial Soffrage throughout the land will soon plant them on foundations that cannot be shaken.

The Tannows will contend, in the future as in the past, for Universal Annesty as well as for Impartial Suffrage throughout the land will soon plant them on foundations that cannot be shaken. Universal Anneaty as well as for Impartial Suffrage It has no faith in vengeance, in proscription, in confiscation, nor in the shedding of blood otherwise than in actual and necessary war. "There is a time for War and a time for necessary war. "There is a time for War and a time for Peace;" and the latter follows swiftly on the heels of the former. Whenever those who fought against the Union shall have in good faith given up the contest, they are no shall have in good faith given up the contest, they are no longer our foes but our countrymen.

In the joyful trust that Grant's election has given the death-blow to Ke-Klox Klams, and all manner of outrages on Unionists and Freedmen as such, and that impartial Sufferage with no longer he seriously resisted, we hope to see the next four years signalized by an unprecedented expansion of the National Industry and a consequent income of the Periodicals of 1869 may receive, gratis, any one of Four Reviews for 1869.
