

THE NEW CABINET.—The formation of a Cabinet of Secretaries, by an incoming President, is always difficult, and General Grant's experience has been no exception to this rule.

Col. J. W. Calkins.—Among the removals of Andy Johnson on the last day of his term, was that of Col. Calkins, the Collector of Customs, at Philadelphia, and the appointment of Jas. Marks, of Philadelphia, in his place.

DEATH OF HON. C. R. CORCORAN.—We regret to learn of the death of Hon. Charles R. Corcoran, which took place at Nichols, Tioga county, on Monday last, after a lingering illness.

REBEL DEMOCRACY VS. WAR DEMOCRACY.—We copy the following rich article from the Selingsgrove Times, the organ of the rebel democracy of Snyder county.

His HYPOCRISY.—The old demagogue who at the beginning of the war, and all through the war, insisted on that we should join in with the war party, for the reason, as he always alleged, that he could make "ropes of money"—yes, "money by the bushel"—now claims to have been a great and unselfish patriot.

At the late term of the Circuit Court at Sandy Hill, a suit was brought by a Whitehall lumber dealer, Mr. Cooke, against Mr. E. Davis, of the same place to recover $10,000.

JAMES G. BLAINE, who has been elected Speaker of the 41st Congress, is a Representative from Maine, where, for many years, he was a successful editor.

PAY UP! PAY UP! Since the first of January, we have sent out a number of bills of indebtedness to you for subscription, advertising and job-work.

How TO KILL A TOWN.—The Dubuque Herald gives the following receipt for knocking a town stiff and dead: "If you wish to kill off a town, put up no more buildings than you are obliged to occupy yourself."

JAMES GRANT, who killed Rives Pollard, at Richmond, some months since, was, on Saturday, acquitted by a Richmond jury.

A waggon editor says that the streets of Allentown are to be lighted with red headlights, to which an over-practical brother objects that too many people would be found bugging the lamp posts.

The Senate on the 5th inst. confirmed the following nominations in Executive session: Secretary of State—E. B. Washburne, of Illinois.

Resignation of Democratic Members of the Indiana Legislature.—Yesterday the Democratic members of the Indiana Legislature broke up the session.

At the late term of the Circuit Court at Sandy Hill, a suit was brought by a Whitehall lumber dealer, Mr. Cooke, against Mr. E. Davis, of the same place to recover $10,000.

An effort will be made at the next election of County Superintendents in Chester county, in May, next, to have the office filled by a female.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S CABINET.—The cabinet of President Grant has been thoroughly canvassed and whilst some few Republicans seem to be disappointed, it cannot be denied that the masses of the party approve the appointments most heartily.

Mr. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, the Secretary of State, is so well known to the country that reference to his antecedents is almost superfluous. A native of Maine, he commenced life as a lawyer in the State of Ohio.

General STOREY remains in the War Department, at least for the present, a post which he has filled with honor to himself and the country.

With such a Cabinet, the administration of General Grant will not be maintained by the loyal people of the United States.

THE INDIAN WAR ENDED.—ARRIVAL OF GENERAL SHERIDAN AT FORT HAYS IN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON.—HOSTILE TRIBES ENTIRELY SUBDUED.

One of the most complex family relations is that described as follows by Dan Bryant: "I married a young widow, who lived with her step-daughter; my father shortly after married the step-daughter. My wife was therefore, the mother-in-law, and the daughter-in-law of my father; and my step-father was my mother-in-law, and my wife's step-mother."
