places of residence on the first of April, will oblige us by notifying us where they want their paper directed to. Please state where you move from, as well as where you move to. A CHANGE -Alfred Krause of Milton, has purchased the Tin-ware and Stove establishment of Mr. George W. Smith, in this place, lately, and will earry on the business hereafter at the old stand on-Market street. Mr. Krause is a first-class workman, and comes highly recommended as an excellent citizen-Man Does .- We have been informed that a number of dogs were bitten in this place during last week by a dog that is supposed to have been mad. A numher of eases of hydrophebia have been netleed lately in different parts of the county, and we hope our citizons will at once proceed to guard against such casualties, and have a muzzle placed on every canine running at large. To PENSIONERE - Pousioners who have money due them by the United States government, will bear in mind, that the Pension Agent's Office is closed, and that there is no use to make application for the present, as there is no precise time set for the payment of money due them. A Strong Pire occurred in Cake's addition,on Friday afternoon of last week, in the house of Mr. William Wold, which would have proved disservous, had it not been for the timely discovery by those suplayed in the shops of the P. & E. R. R. The fre originated from a stove in one of the bed rooms, and consumed a bod and some clothing. PETERS MUSICAL MOSTHLY .- The March number of this musical periodical, published by J. L.

G. G. MILLER, Chairman. E. L. MATCHIN, Sourctary.

Signer Burs is Course .- The original Magician and Ventriloquist, Signor Blitz, from Philadelphia, with his learned Canarie birds, will give one of his entertainments in this place, at the Massure Hall, on Wednesday, the 24th instant. Those who have seen the Signer perform will go again; while these who have not, should embrace this opportunity.

New School House - The School Board of Nerthumberland will build a new three story brick school house in the centre of a square on Second street, during the comming season, at a cest of about $15,000. The building will contain eight subcol reems and one lecture room.

Fine.-A saw mill in Potter county, owned by the Sunbary Lumber and Cont Company, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 24th ult. Less about $7000. Insured for $3,000 in the Lycoming Mutual and $1,500 in the Cumberland Valley.

SUDDEN COLD .- The sudden cold enap on Friday and Saturday closed the river at this place with ice, nearly three inches thick. A number of persons crossed the river on the ice on Menday, but the mederate weather of Tuesday carried it off. This was the fourth time the river was frozen over this winter; yet there were only a few days when it was passable and safe for teams.

On Tuesday last, John Tinnes was crushed by a fail of coal in the mines at the Luke Fidler Colliery. Dr. E. S. Robins was called, but found the unfortunate man's injuries to be of such a unture as to render medical aid unaveiling, and he died in about as hour | sell, Mrs. John McFerland and Mrs. Daniel Smith. after the occurrence. HOTEL CHANGES AT GEORGETOWN .- We learn that Augustus Wald, Esq., the popular landlord of Lower Mahanoy township, will take possession of the land and Robert Montgomery are hereby appointed Railroad House, at the depot in Georgetown, in this county, on the lat of April next. The house will be refurnished, and as Mr. Wald is one of those landtords who are always ready and willing to attend to the wants of his guests, and in short, "knows how to ed sine dis. keep a hotel," his friends will be happy to know of his whereabouts when visiting that part of the county. Mr. Franklin Saroh will take the place of Mr. Wald, of the Bingaman House, in that place Frank is a clever fellow, and will, no doubt, receive his share of patronage.

Too HARLY. -One of our justices, last week, imued a summons in a matter of dispute between E.P. Robback and J. G. L. Shindel, and made a mistake as to the time of appearance, the summons reading "2 Walnut street, near Second. Women are the centres of homes, and love and respect. They are modest, they are graceful, from nature's hands they use little ornament, they have retinement that shrinks from publicity, they have courteous demeanor, they have the halo of mother-Load, the saintship of life's duties nobly performed, they have a deep religious faith that guides them they have an unselfish regard for the rights of others, they have a conscience that shrinks from the faintest breath that would bully the True glory and power of womanhood. It is easy to assume the garb of the sex, but it is difficult to attain the spirit of it, if by nature or education an individual belongs to a coarser mould; but it is worth the striving for. There can be no higher honor than is contained in the words. "A noble woman." If wemen would only lay saide their anxiety about a variety for their bodies, and study as earnestly to clothe their minds with firm purposes, with noble aspirations, with oulture, with unselfish thoughts or aspirations, they would find that the true secret of life was at last within their grasp, and that all before had been but the outer

SHANOEIN, March 9, 1869.

Dear Sir-I was surprised to notice in the Sunbury Gazette of lest week, the result of the voting for the Silver Lantern at the G. A. R. Fair at this piace, claimed as evidence of the great popularity of one of the contestants, viz: Mr. Forrester. Now, the estizons of Shamokin, understanding how the money is raised on such occasions have long since eased to recognize the result as having any bearing upon the standing of the candidates in the community. In this particular case it was considered as a contest between the N. C. R. R. Co and the P. & R. R. Co, and the persons chosen serve merely as the representatives of their respective reads.
