An Escrowee.—Joseph has been kept very busy during the last week in regard to an escrowee which lately occurred in our town. The parties comprising were Mr. Paul May, a German tinsmith and ostler, and Mrs. Mary Izel, wife of Charles Izel, restaurant keeper in this place. It appears that eight months ago the parties became acquainted with each other, and from that time matters did not go so smoothly in Mr. Izel's family as before, Mrs. Izel finding fault constantly with her husband on the most trifling matters, accusing him of infidelity, &c.

The effects of deceased soldiers of the late war are now in possession of the Adjutant General's Department at Harrisburg, and are being disposed of by relations or friends on application. Among the list published in the Harrisburg Telegraph we find the following, who are informed, were from this county:

ROASTED GOAT.—A goat belonging to a family in the Seventh ward was in the habit of using a neighbor's back oven as a state-room, where he found comfortable shelter at night from the chilling winter blasts.

As Editor is the man who reads the newspapers, writes articles on any subject, talks to all who call, is blamed for a hundred things which are nobody's business but his own, helps to get into office (who forget all about it afterwards) and frequently gets cheated out of half his earnings.

FRUIT TREES AND GRAPE VINES.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Cummings & Co., of Pittsburg. Those of our readers who are in want of grape vines, fruit trees, &c., can get a superior article to those presented by traveling agents, and at greatly reduced prices.

What the Knights of Pythias are.—The Order of the Knights of Pythias is becoming so widely spread and prosperous that the public have a reasonable curiosity to know something of its character. The ritual was first written and the order worked during the war as a bond of union between army officers. After the war closed it was re-written, modified and thrown open to the people and has spread rapidly, particularly in the last two years in the Eastern States.
