The slang of our day is a puzzle,
Invented by—ah, who can tell?
A drink is a "smile" of "guzzle;"
A swindle is merely a "sell."
One tells you at tale you can't "swaller,"
He tells you "by thunder" 'tis true;
You bet him your last "bottom dollar,"
"By thunder," that's all you can do.

They ask you "how goes it?" on meeting, "Take care of yourself is adleu;
They substitute "beating" for cheating,
And sometimes combine both the two.

If foolish, your head isn't level,"
Or, may be, "your head isn't clear,"
Instead of saying, "go to the devil,"
They tell you, "walk off on your ear." To praise you, they say "you are bully;" For honest they nick-name you "square,"
Although pleased to understand you fully,
There's not many that way, "I swear."
While robbing they call "going through you,"
And "go for him" means an attack,

When fluancial troubles come to you They say, "Oh, he's up on his back." "Fusil oil" is the new name for whisky, "Spondultx" cognomen for pelf,
"You've been there," when charged as too frisky;
Well, "You know how it is yourself."

And if reproof you should offer,
They tell you "that game is quite played,"
Say, walk off, you "big, dirty loafer,"
Or a large "Mansard roof" will be made. Then sometimes you're "cornered," or "eucher

"That is, if you get in a "fix ;"
They call you "galoot" if untutored
In every galoot's knavlsh tricks.
There are "that's what's the matter with Han-

And "dead beats" on every side, If the skunks" will not alter their manners, I don't care a "cuss," "let 'em slide."

MARRYING A WIFE'S SISTER.-The British Commons have once more passed on the propriety of a widower's marrying his deceased wife's sister. The legal and scrip-tural expediency of such a union has been hotly debated for half of this century, and possibly longer, and the pertinacity with which it is debated would almost warrant an inference that every Englishman wished to marry his sister-in-law. The action of the Commons is not final.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all alsould be provided with this antidote for them. Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral in Subspaces.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitts is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague. Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in mowise injures any partient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed. Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveiling through missmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Billous Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had fulled. Prepared by Dt. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.
