Published at $1.50 per year, by W. R. DE POT & BROTHER, SPS-Brandway, New York. THE LADY'S FRIEND, POR MAY, 1871 .- This is a superb number. The steel plate is a beautiful picture of the pride and giory of California—the matchless Yosemite Valley—with its wonderful inatchiess Yosemite Valley—with its wonderful towering walls of rock, its waterfalls, and clear tream winding through. Of itself, this is worth many times the price of the number. Then the colored Fashion plate is of usual interest, as it presents us with actual portraits of distinguished personages—the former Prince Imperial of France, the Princess Louise—all, of course, attired in the latest style. "The Fisherman," a fine wood-cut, is such a picture as one does not often see; taking bold upon the heart with the well discination of its tragin pathos. Music mal cages possessed by the various Menagerie companies now traveling will prove the truth of literary matter is very rich, maintaining the high character of this magazine.
