WATEINS GLEN .- An excursion party is about being made up in the place for Watkins Glen, at the head of Sennea lake, N. Y., which will leave here during next week, and be gone for several days. Watkins Gin has become one of the most popular summir resorts in America. Last year the number of visitors reached 50,000, and an increase of 10,000 is anticipated, during the season of 1871. House Greely says :

"Watkins has a are natural attraction in the wooded gien of a mill stream which here falls some four hundred feet in less than a mile from the higher level on he West to the valley of the lake. This fall is nade by a succession of leaps or caseades into pods or basins of varying depth and magnitude, separated by stretches of swift, bright water and described by bright water, and crerhung by the dark ever-greens, which mainly compose the all embracing forest, which the surfradiates but few hours per day. We judge this among the finest succession of entaracts in our Sate, 15

The Glen Mountain House connected with this attractive and popular summer resort, is now open for the season, and is already thronged with visitors. This house has been reflitted and newly furnished, and is under the superintendance of "Grover & Baker" and "Domestle," which are Joshua Jones, formerly of the Arbor Hotel, at FESTIVAL.-The young ladies and gentlemen of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, of this place, are now holding a festival in the hall of the aid in purchasing an organ. Thus far they have been well patronized, and worthily so, for their object is a meritorious one.

The intention was to hold their festival on the lawn in Market Square, but the rain prevented it. If the weather is favorable it will be held there on Friday and Saturday nights of this week, when the square will be beautifully illuminated by Chinese lanterns, and other lights.
