An editorial appeared in last week's Democrat, in reply to a paragraph of ours, which, it is very evident, was written by Mr. Scott himself. The article is full of misrepresentations. We defy the editors of the Democrat or Mr. Scott to furnish responsible proof, that the sentence quoted from us is not correct. Why is it, that Mr. Scott is so anxious to have us cease giving the truth to the public, and has asked our friends to speak to us in regard to it, and does not furnish proof of a creditable character that our statements are incorrect. The friend he complained to last week, who advised him to refute it, was somewhat surprised when Mr. Scott acknowledged that "he was in rather bad company at Mt. Carmel," but denied that Pat Hester was present. If Mr. Scott is disposed to associate even with Pat Hester's associates, what right has he to ask us to suppress the truth, when the people of the whole district are interested in the matter.

The article refers to a certain Democrat, who feels disposed to act honorably towards his Democratic friends, by exposing the imposition that is wont to be practised upon his party, and as he is acknowledged as a Democrat, we feel sure that he is fully able to the task, and will inform his friends of certain movements of Mr. Scott's, which he fears might be exposed.

The writer says: "We venture to say that no man ever yet approached Mr. Scott in so gentlemanly way, who did not receive a courteous and gentlemanly welcome." If Mr. Scott calls, putting on airs of a King, and turning his back towards men who approach him on business, and really inform him what he did not do, and that his office is receiving them "courteously and gentlemanly", then we acknowledge our mistake.

The writer says: "Instead of running around the streets begging votes, or telling us about his opponent, Mr. Scott has kept to his office, worked hard from the day of his nomination to his private affairs, and believing that he is in the hands of the people who would be left unbiased in the election of a Judge, has not deigned to see a single man, whether priest or layman, Jew or Gentile."

If Mr. Scott were not sent traveling out daily, and soliciting votes since his nomination, and most of the time seen in company with Irish Catholics, the above might be believed. But as it is a common thing, and every body sees it, he readily rebounds on the head of the author. Here in Sundbury it is well known that he can scarcely be found in his office unless his Irish friends from the Coal Region come to town. In fact the whole article is a misrepresentation of facts, and cannot be substantiated.

THE IRISH ROMAN CATHOLIC BROTHERS AND THE GERMANS.—In New York the Irish and their friends gained political power, and every German is kept out of office. Whenever they get control of labor the Germans are driven off, and treated like dogs. When France rushed upon Germany in the Franco-Prussian war, the Irish to a man took sides with France, because they hate the Germans, and because the Pope hates Germany and her great and learned men, and because he wanted Louis Napoleon, with his French soldiers to overrun Germany and desolate and lay waste the Fatherland. Through the whole war, the Irish were the friends of France and the enemies of Germany, because the Pope prayed for his favorite son Louis Napoleon.

TAXES.—Two classes of men are deeply interested in taxes—viz: the farmers, miners and operators, mechanics and owners of houses and lots, and homes. They all pay taxes, and so are interested in taxes. The other class are the consumers of taxes, the tax collectors and their friends. In Mt. Carmel township and in Coal, Pat Hester and Mr. Scott's friends collect the taxes, and thousands and tens of thousands are collected by them, and used to find their friends, who happen to be out of work or are too old and infirm to work, or too lazy to work. It is well understood that the largest amount of taxes are raised, the coal lands, and the people in the towns are compelled to pay them, and thus find multitudes of people who ought to do honest labor and not the tax payers. If these men get control of the county, then look out for heavy taxes.

YOUR COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA. (Democrat) is complaining that they have a Tammany Ring there too. An "extra" is printed and issued which reads as follows: "A Ring of corruption officials—the 'Ring' is divided. Increase in the county debt during the year, $104,000. Debt in 1870, $1,200,000. In 1871, $600,000." There is another example of Democratic rags.

A Ring of corruption officials.—The Tammany Ring having been compelled to exhibit the accounts of the city of New York, a committee of eminent citizens was appointed to examine them. The committee met last week, and waited on Controller Connelly, who assured them that all the books and vouchers would be placed before them on Monday night, the 13th. But unfortunately on Monday night, the office of the Controller was visited by burglars, and the records stolen. Our readers can draw their own conclusions. And this Ring would like to control the government of this State and of the nation.

GENERAL BARR ON TAXES.—Mayor Hall of New York has been censured for the appointment to tax. Mr. Hall, but the General does not feel disposed to mix in the Tammany Ring at this stage of the game and declines the proffered honor. All our Democrats will soon have a good deal to say about the Tammany Ring, and those outside with that party.

COME ON WITH YOUR AFFIDAVITS!

SCOTT ON THE STAND!—1st Question.—Did you or did you not, in the bar-room of one of the principal Hotels in Mt. Carmel, make certain pledges to some parties of a gang of "Molly Maguires?"

2d, Did one of them say to you: "If we help to elect you, will you do the fair thing by us?"

3d, Did they ask of you a pledge to help them to elect certain other officers?

4th, Did you then and there pledge yourself thus: "Gentlemen, if I am nominated and elected, I assure you that I will remember my friends, and my enemies mist beware?"

5th, Did you pledge yourself to secure the following nominations to the persons named and their friends, your friend Pat Hester for Sheriff, Mike Connelly for Prothonotary, and Galagher for Legislature?

Mr. Scott these are grave and serious charges, if true, no honest man can vote for you. Let us hear from you. Toot out your witness. Let us have the affidavits!! Will not Hester and Galagher and Connelly swear you this?

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—But little has been said in regard to this office, in the present campaign. In the administration of justice, it is perhaps next in importance to that of President Judge. It therefore behooves voters and tax payers, not to forget the importance of selecting a person for this office, who has the necessary qualifications. It is not so necessary that the District Attorney should be a clever fellow, as it is that he should have the ability and experience to discharge the duties of the office. In the performance of his duty, the District Attorney may save to the county thousands of dollars, which an inefficient officer, with the best intentions might lose by his want of knowledge and experience in his profession.

The best thing that can be said of the Republican candidate, Gen. Clement, is the fact, that he is well qualified for the office, and that his generally admitted by the Court and Bar, that he performed his duties, not only with ability, but with entire satisfaction, when he held the same office some years since. His opponent, Mr. Ryan, on the other hand, has but little to recommend him for that responsible office, while it is generally understood, that he was one of the leaders, if not the principal, in getting up the fraudulent vote in the coal region, by which the honest Democratic candidates, not in league with the Irish Catholic candidates, were wronged and cheated out of their nominations. Voters and taxpayers should not forget that a good District Attorney has it in his power to save large sums of money for the county, if he is properly qualified for the position.

Thousands of German voters in this country never before cast for the measures and men of the Republican party, will this Fall vote the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York and other States. They understand now fully that Republicanism is the only safe and sound policy. They are disgusted with dishonest rule like that of Tammany. The fact is that our German citizens, as a mass, have no natural affiliation with the Democratic party, which in the late war showed its affection for them by taking sides with their enemies. In New York, especially, all the desirable offices have been given to the Irish, while to the Germans was left only the empty privilege of voting to confirm the will of Tammany. It will be a good day for the country when the German element shall be emancipated from its present bondage to its foes.

THOMAS CHALFANT VS. THE MAHANOYS.—Our contemporary of the Danville Intelligencer, who is the Democratic candidate for Legislature with Mr. Galagher, is disposed to cast asure at the "Dutch Mahanoy," as he calls them, because many of them feel disposed to vote for Dr. J. B. Newbaker and Dennis Bright. As we are pretty well acquainted with the people in the Mahanoy, we can assure our contemporary that they are just as enlightened in the Mahanoy, as they are anywhere else, and know their own business best. They are honest, and would never countenance fraud and corruption in any party, nor will they do so now. They are also fully aware of the movements of the Irish Catholics in this country, and will vote against all who are known to be favorable to their movements. So lookout Mr. Chalfant! The voters of these "Dutch Mahanoy" as you please to call them, may teach you some English on the 10th of October, next.

THE IRISH CATHOLICS OF LYONING COUNTY succeeded in placing upon the Democratic ticket, a Roman Catholic for sheriff. The honest Democrats don't like it, and are determined to defeat him. Why is it that Irish Catholics are so anxious all at once to get control of all the offices in the country. Do they expect to get control of our government so as to establish Popery in this country, or is it to break up the Democratic party. In nearly every county in the State there is one or more placed upon the Democratic ticket. Northumberland county has its full share. Those who do not belong to that church, are strongly impregnated with them, and showing a willingness to aid them in order to hold office under them.

A TRANSPARENT FRODO.—The Tammany Ring having been compelled to exhibit the accounts of the city of New York, a committee of eminent citizens was appointed to examine them. The committee met last week, and waited on Controller Connelly, who assured them that all the books and vouchers would be placed before them on Monday night, the 13th. But unfortunately on Monday night, the office of the Controller was visited by burglars, and the records stolen. Our readers can draw their own conclusions. And this Ring would like to control the government of this State and of the nation.

GENERAL BARR ON TAXES.—Mayor Hall of New York has been censured for the appointment to tax. Mr. Hall, but the General does not feel disposed to mix in the Tammany Ring at this stage of the game and declines the proffered honor. All our Democrats will soon have a good deal to say about the Tammany Ring, and those outside with that party.

AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY.—

A convention was held in Schuylkill county on the 9th inst., composed of delegates of the most influential men of that county, of both parties, to place in nomination a people's candidate for Judge. The meeting was organized by appointing Hon. F. W. Hughes President of the Convention. Mr. Hughes has been a life long Democrat, and the leading spirit of the Democracy of Schuylkill county, as well as of the States for many years, but believing as we do that the office of Judge should not be a partisan one, and the Democracy of that county, like in this county, having placed upon their ticket a candidate unfitted for the position, he does not feel disposed to submit to the low trickery which has been so long resorted to in the nomination of candidates by the Democracy, to fill the offices with men totally unqualified, either in a moral or intellectual sense.

Mr. Hughes upon taking the Chair, as President, made the following remarks, which are as applicable to this county as to Schuylkill. GENTLEMEN.—I feel much gratified at the unanimity with which you have called me to preside over your deliberations. Probably no convention ever assembled in Schuylkill county whose members were actuated by pure motives, or destined to promote and give life to a greater public good than this one. Most conventions having in view the nomination of candidates for public office, are composed of members who are or expect to be in the patronage of some organized political parties. Not so with this Convention. Scarcely ten days have elapsed since it was called, and it sprang from and places into form and working efficiency a sentiment widely spread yet most commendable among our citizens. It is to lift our Judiciary above the mire of party politics—to make honesty and legal learning the qualifications and tests of fitness, rather than mere partisanship, especially when it seizes as its champions candidates not only unlearned and unlearned, but who would positively degrade the high office of Judge.

In our government partisanship is not desirable in the Judge, but it is a condition not to be shunned. The Judge on the bench who owes his election to mere party nomination, enters upon his office only with the obligations of gratitude to party friends resting upon him, but with the implied pledge to serve in his office those who have placed him there. To this extent he has placed himself under bonds to degrade his office and to practice the most grievous wrongs. Neither order or good morals can prevail in a community where the law—administered by incompetent or dishonest Judges—is thus made a mere instrument of party, and the people therefore lose respect for the law. Happily in this County the Judiciary has as a general rule been preserved free from the bias of partisanship, and with firm and honest heads and hearts our Judges have met out justice to the honest citizen, and the most unlearned alike, and without fear or affection. The good sense of our people, in many notable instances, has secured this result by ignoring party fealty in the selection of Judges.

In the Republican City of Philadelphia, Democratic Judges have been appointed and elected in every part of that city for Judge Strong, Ludvig and others. Only last Fall the Republican county of Crawford (Republican) elected a Democratic Sheriff—Chief Justice Lowrie, a Democrat whose party fealty cannot be doubted, about 600 majority. I address myself particularly to my Democratic brethren in this Convention and throughout this county, and I ask them, are you willing to administer the Republic in which you slip tickets voted it must go upon the slip headed "State."

RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman Republican Committee. WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Chairman Democratic Committee. NO MORE MONEY FROM TAMMANY.—In former years the Democrats have realized any amount of money from the New York Tammany ring—but we have been informed that the recent applications for aid have been mournfully rejected. Hall, Tweed, Sweney and Connelly have had so much trouble of late that collections for Pennsylvania Democrats could not be made.

Connelly's Confession. Controller Connelly having had his vouchers examined by the "slip tickets" voted it must go upon the slip headed "State."

THE PEOPLE OF SCHUYLKILL as well as in this county, feel too much the need of good Judges to place their property, their liberty, and their lives willingly at the disposal of ignorant and unlearned Judges.

Mr. Hughes in speaking of the proposed new amendment of the Constitution, says: "It is approved of by Democrats as well as Republicans. And well it may, for under its operation the best bench of Judges ever had. We elect two Inspectors of Elections in a single district, so too we elect two Jury Commissioners in each County, yet in each case the elector can vote for only one. It follows that each party gets an office. This principle Democratic and Republican will incorporate in the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Doubtless we shall soon have a Convention; in this State to amend our Constitution, and I hope no one will be sent from Schuylkill County who does not favor the principle of minority representation. Yes, my friends, this principle is right. It is equitable in its purest sense, because it gives to all people a voice and their fair share of representation in the management of public affairs. It will secure the best men for public positions and promote a tone to public opinion that will throw upon curious statesmen and gross abusers of power, and who only present themselves as candidates for the office of Judge.

A boy observed walking intently for a "woodchuck" to come out of his hole. "We do not suppose you can catch him," asked a passer-by. "Catch him?" contemptuously answered the boy. "I've got to catch him, stranger, we are out of meat!" This is exactly the case with those who are willing to support the fraudulent Democratic ticket in this county, they are without food, and to keep the breath of life, seize upon the Irish Catholic movement to help them out. They do not, however, see that when the Irish "woodchuck" is taken away from them.

A letter from Raleigh, N. C. says nearly four hundred persons have been brought there for trial charged with Ku Kluxism. It is said that the law will be stringently enforced.

STARVED TO DEATH.

FRESH LANDING, Sept. 16.—But a brief detail of a starvation relative to a horrible case of starvation in the O'Brien Menagerie Troupe, which performed at Stormville, Dutchess county, on Thursday night. Connected with the troupe is a performer known as Albie, the Man with the Iron Jaw, and also a French woman, who is denominated the strong Woman. They take with them also a little boy, seven years of age, whose name I cannot ascertain, but who, it is stated, was purchased in Paris by the French woman for $100, especially to aid in the performance. It was this little fellow's duty to be thrown about by the Man with the Iron Jaw in various ways, every one being dangerous in the extreme—as, for instance, in one scene he is fastened to the iron-jawed man by a belt, and the two are drawn from the ground to the top of the tent, where the man fires a pistol and is let down; then in some way the little fellow is hoisted up the same distance, hanging by ingenious contrivances from the man's jaw. He is also required to aid the French woman in a scene where she places a 5-pounder on her shoulder, and he gets up on it, and fires it off. It seems, therefore, necessary that he should not become too heavy for the business. While stopping at Stormville the French woman from some cause is alleged to have tied the little boy's hands behind him and shut him in a room alone. Slagging to the window he begged the cook to put a ladder and give him a piece of bread and butter. She had to throw it on the floor, when he snatched it up and devoured it eagerly. Another boy, said to be the real son of the French woman, observing the scene, informed her of it. She at once flew into a rage, and going to the boy's room, it is said, beat him unmercifully, saying "How dare you do so when I told you if you did I would pound you?" The little fellow begged of her not to whip him, for he would not do it again. He did not look as if he had a drop of blood in his body. When his condition was ascertained, a Dr. La Mount was called in, but he died the same night, and was buried the next morning. The doctor has said he died of starvation. Parties are already moving for the arrest of all concerned, and the inhabitants of Stormville are so indignant that if they are brought there it is feared they will meet with violence. The Poughkeepsie Eagle of to-day says that the iron-jawed man on the children have attracted attention elsewhere, and both have been denounced by the press. These two were arrested in Philadelphia months since for cruelty to this same child, but managed to escape punishment.

MEETING AGAINST THE NEW YORK TRUST.—Eugene W. Havemeyer, a life long Democrat, presided at the New York Meeting. The bonds of the city have been thrown out of the Money Exchanges in Germany, and such men as August Belmont, the Agent for the Rothschilds in this country, took part in the meeting. In two years the money market has had changes of the city and city affairs of New York, have increased the debt $23,000,000, which was unknown to the people. The debt is now upwards of 102,000,000, which is large floating claims, the amount of which is not known. These are the men that charge the Republican Administration with extravagance, while the United States debt has been decreased in two years upwards of $23,000,000, and taxation diminished within the last two years not less than $150,000,000 annually.

Oswald Ottendorfer, the editor of the great leading Democratic organ, the Staats-Zeitung, made a speech, and says that the thieves must be made to disgorge the money.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1871. The Legislature at its recent session having submitted to the people the question of calling a convention to revise the constitution of the State, and this question being one of a non-partisan character, upon which the people should be uniformly taken, we unite in the recommendation to all county committees to print an distribute tickets both for and against a convention. The ticket is to be headed "Constitutional Convention," or "Against a Constitutional Convention," in which the slip tickets voted it must go upon the slip headed "State."

CHURCHMAN REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE. WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Chairman Democratic Committee. NO MORE MONEY FROM TAMMANY.—In former years the Democrats have realized any amount of money from the New York Tammany ring—but we have been informed that the recent applications for aid have been mournfully rejected. Hall, Tweed, Sweney and Connelly have had so much trouble of late that collections for Pennsylvania Democrats could not be made.

TREVORTON, SEPT. 19th, 1871.

EDITOR OF SUNDURY AMERICAN, DEAR SIR.—I wish that the Democratic county papers are all crying against the intolerance and bigotry of the Republican press, in bringing religion into the issues, that bear upon the campaign of this fall. And to prove that Roman Catholics make good officers, they refer to some solitary instances among the past generations. Forgetting, or else purposely neglecting, to state that these men held office at the time, when there were but few Catholics in America, and that the Pope still tyrannized over the Italians as their temporal ruler. Now the life of American institutions is threatened by the hordes of Irish Catholics, who are flocking to our shores, and congregating together in numbers large enough to obtain and hold the offices in their possession, and to work everything towards the downfall of the Protestant usages of free press, free speech, and free religion. In the cities where they have obtained control, they have excluded the Bible from the schools; and such is the case in the townships of this county where they have control, and none but Catholic teachers can get employment; and such will be the case every where, as they get the power. It is no wonder to me that the Democratic press are striving to draw the attention of the people from these facts in the present campaign. For with the county ticket they have in nomination, it is best for them to make their readers believe, that the real issue is not between Catholic and Protestant, but between Catholic and Democratic candidates. Mr. A. J. Gallagher, their candidate for Representative, was born in East Norwegian township, Schuylkill county. After obtaining a common school education, he began teaching in the schools of the township, which are controlled by Catholics. In 1867 we find him teaching in Mt. Carmel township, and here he commenced his political career by offering himself as a candidate for, and being elected to the office of Justice of the Peace. Next we see him as Auditor of the county finances, and in the summer and autumn of 1870, we find him on a tour through the coal regions of Pennsylvania, lecturing to the different branches of the W. B. A., advising them to continue in their course of strikes and suspensions, and on no consideration to allow any men of work independent of the W. B. A., and in private counselling the Irish to reject Realy and all of the old members of the Grand Council of the W. B. A., and to keep themselves organized, and to show to the Pennsylvania Dutch, and the English capitalist, that the Irish could and would rule the coal regions.

Being well acquainted with him, and having given you his history so far, I would like to have the editor of the Northumberland County Democrat, or Chalfant of Montour county, to point out the qualifications, which they find so able fit him for the office. I can see none. But I would object to him, on the grounds of his being a Catholic, and an Irishman. Also, his being nominated by fraud; for in Mt. Carmel Borough where twenty Democratic votes were polled last fall, one hundred and five were returned at the primary election, and they had a return of two hundred and twenty-five votes to give to his favor; he could not be nominated otherwise; and it was the same in Mt. Carmel township. So intent were the Irish on his nomination that small boys, slate pickers from the coal breakers, were allowed to vote. And I have it from good authority, that a boy of 14 years of age, who got into his favor by election in Shamokin, on being asked on his return home, how the election was going? answered, that Mr. Gallagher seemed to be doing all of the voting himself, for in the hour that he was at the polls he saw him vote five or six times.

Think of this you honest liberty loving citizens of Northumberland county. Are you willing to trust your liberty in the hands of such a man? Do you think that he would be proof against the bribes of rings and monopolies? Will he? Can he represent you and your interests in the Legislative halls of the State? And are you willing to choose a Catholic for a Representative in preference to a Protestant? If you are so wedded to party, that you will do this, you are lacking in the intelligence attributed to you by "AN OBSERVER."

THE young man who takes himself to the West, and brings a farm from its natural wild to a state of fine cultivation, does a thousand times more for his country than the one who devotes himself to political office-seeking.

We would not recommend the frequent or constant use of any medicine. It is important to take even a good article judiciously. Parson's Purgative Pills are safe, prompt, and reliable as a laxative or cathartic.

Raise ball is undoubtedly good exercise and capital amusement, but it often occasions lunged eyes, broken shins and blistered hands. We can tell you that in all such cases J. W. Hooper's Anodyne Liniment, if resorted to, it will reduce the swelling and stop the pain.
