the market to keep the streets cleaned of all rub-bish, refuse or any dirt left on them by the market wagons, and in the winter to have the snow leveled so that wagons and other vehicles can convenently back up to the curb, and see that first of all, that HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BIT-TERS is not a run beverage.

They are no alchedle in any sense of the farm.
They are composed wholly of the pure julee or vital principal of roots. This is not a more assertion. The extracts from which they are compounded are prepared by one of the alkest of German chemists. Unlike any other Bitters in the market, they are wholly free from spiritnous imprelients. The other-ton awhich hold with so much force against preparations of this class.
