SPECIAL COURTS NO LONGER NECES-SARY .- An erroneous opinion having been industriously circulated in relation to the necessity, that will necessarily arise for the holding of "Special Courts," in the event of the election of a practicing lawyer to the position of President Judge, in the county in which he resides and has practiced his profession, for the purpose of disposing of the cases in which he may have been concerned as counsel, a simple reference to the late Act of Assembly upon that subject, will be sufficient to correct it, and to show that any other President Judge in the State can be called to hold the REGULAR TERM of the Court, when there are cases, upon either the civil or criminal list, which the Judge of the proper district, by reason of any disability, cannot try; and that all such cases may therefore now be tried at the REGULAR TERM, without calling Special Courts as was at one time supposed to be necessary.

The Act to which we refer provides, that "In case of sickness of a President Judge, "in any Judicial District in Pennsylvania, "or sickness in his family, or of his inability "to hold the regular term of his Courts, in "any county, from any cause whatever, it "shall be lawful for him to call upon any "other President Judge in the Common-"wealth, who may not himself be engaged, "to hold said regular term of Courts, and "said President Judge, so called upon, is hereby authorized and empowered to dis-"charge the duties appertaining to said 'office as fully as the regularly commis-"sioned President Sudge of said district not. But they do now ask you, after com-"could do if present,"

In a case recently before the Supreme Court of this State, the Judges, in an opinion, delivered upon the 27th day of February lact, and reported in the last book of reports-14th P. F. Smith's Reports, page 33, held this act to be constitutional, and who is under obligations to them to deal upon a very careful review of the whole subject, they say, "Our conclusion there-"fore, is that, in the case of sickness and "other disability contemplated by the act "of legislation already referred to, the Pre-"sident Judge of the proper district has "TERM of his Courts in any county in his "district. The President Judge, so called "in, when sitting, has jurisdiction and "authority to hear and try all causes pend-"ing at that term in any of the courts, "CIVIL OR CRIMINAL, including capital "and other felonies in the Courts of Oyer "and Terminer and General Jail Delivery."

defalcations of Republican officials, as if it was wonderful that any dishonest officer dictate, who should hold the offices, and should be found outside the Democratic party. Why does not the Democrat notice the fact, that John Harris, Democratic County Commissioner of Cumberland county, was convicted last court of receiving a bribe of fifty dollars from a bridge builder, and sentenced to be dismissed from office with a fine and costs amounting to two hundred dollars. Is it because these things are common and not unexpected among Democrats, that they are only noticed when committed by Republicans. Why does not our neighbor refer to the enormous robberies of the New York Democratic officials which in three years amount to many millions, or more than all the frauds of that kind in the United States for the last twenty years.

STOPPING THE LEAK. -So wasteful of public money did they become in Coal township, that some of the oldest and best citizens were obliged to apply to Court for an injunction to stop the leak, and the posed to be gone, all hands squat down Court granted the injunction and stopped them. Suppose they get control of the county as they have Coal and Mt. Carmel townships, and run riot in squandering the public money, and have their own Judge the power of these on the Beach, what then ? No Judge like before it is too late. Judge Jordan to take a bold and determined stand, but a Judge who goes there pledged to seward his friends and punish his enemies. No Judge then to stop the who will oppose the fraudulent nominaand as thick as blackburries.

COME ON WITH YOUR AFFIDAVITS !-SCOTT ON THE STAND !- 1st Question .gang of "Molly Maguires ?"

2d, Did one of them say to you: "If we help to elect you, will you do the fair thing by us ?"

3d, Did they ask of you a pledge to help them to elect certain other officers? 4th, Did you then and there pledge yourself thus: "Gentlemen, if I am nominated and elected, I assure you that I will remember my friends, and my enemies must beware ?"

5th, Did you pledge yourself to secure the following nominations to the persons named and their friends, your friend Pat Hester for Sheriff, Mike Connely for Prothonotary, and Galagher for Legislature?

Mr. Scott, these are grave and serious charges, if true, no honest man can vote for you. Let us hear from you. Trot out swear you this?

FATHER HYACINTHE.—The great and earned Romish Priest, who, like Dr. Dollinger, and all the great German Roman Catholic Priests, is too honest to follow the political leaders of their Church, says he left the Pope because he was making a political party of Church. That is just what a shadow of authority from the Bible for tee say. In New York the Irish Catholics became a political Democratic Party, and robbed the Treasury of millions and milhons of dollars, till good men of all parties joined and rose up against them, and will send the leaders to the State's prison.

That is just the move now in Northumberland county. The Irish Roman Catholies are a political party, swallowing up what is left of the Democratic party, and making a sort of Irish Roman Catholic Democratic party, and when they get the power, then look out.

Let every tub stand on its own bottom. The Roman Catholic Church as a Church; and a religious body, is as free as any other Church in its own religious faith, but when it becomes political, as it has in Europe, and tries to subdue this Republic, and overturn our freedom, then it becomes a dangerous political engine, and we oppose it.

OUR farmers adjacent to the coal region should remember the scenes of the last few years. The outrages committed upon them when bringing their produce to market will cause them to reflect before they will cast their vote in favor of the candidates nominated by the same party that helped to rob them on the public highways at Locust Gap and Mt. Carmel township. Will not Democrats who are honest in heart look at the condition this county will be brought to if the candidates pledged to this thicking party of the coal region are elected. Remember that when these Irish Catholics attacked you on the highway and stole your meat, grain, &c., they did not ask you whether you were a Democrat or mitting these outrages, to support the men they wish to place in office. Are you willing to accede to their wishes and vote for he men you know are their choice ? Are you willing to place a man upon the bench as President Judge who is their choice, and out justice. Are you willing to elect their candidate for Legislature to make laws for you?

Are you willing to elect their District Attorney, who should be a feeling man, or a man who will protect the injured and "power to call in the President Judge of bring to conviction the criminals who may 'another district to hold the REGULAR outrage you on the public highway, to that office, when you know that he owes his nomination to them and is placed under obligation. Are you willing to yield to them all your rights and privileges, and make Northumberland county the dark corner. If you are willing to do so, vote the Irish Catholic ticket from top to bottom.

THE Democrat of last week endeavors to It was under this Act of Assembly, as create an impression that Republicans obconstrued and enforced by this dicision of ject to Mr. Scott, because he'is an Episcothe Supreme Court, that Judge Woods, of palian, by quoting an extract from the Mifflin county, held the last regular March Sunbury correspondent of the Miltonian to Term of our Courts, although it was sup- that effect. This was also the case with District may have been employed before the Democratic party, until of late years, when the Catholic element became so strong in that party, that it arrogated to itself, as THE Democrat publishes all the petty it always has done in all ages and countries, when it felt itself strong enough to overpower all others by force, if they were

So the peoples' money is wasted, and ten times worse will it be when they rule the county. Are the people ready to put all in the power of these men. Look to it now,

"EVERY honest man will prefer the Dem ocratic ticket. "- Democrat

That is to say, the 500 or more Democrata,

IT is amusing to see Democratic office hunters abusing their fellow Democrats Did you or did you not, in the bar-room of who are disposed to keep their party pure one of the principal Hotels in Mt. Carmel, by opposing the corrupt men in their party, make certain pledges to some parties of a although having been intimate all their to that of President Judge. It therefore lifetime and co-workers in the Democratic cause, they, because their honest conscience will not allow them to support men who are trampling their old principles in the dust and adopting fraudulent plans to work themselves into office. We saw several evidences of this during the past week, when honest Democrats were set up and denounced as renegades and traitors because they choose to uphold the Democratic principles which they stood by from their childhood. Nothing was too mean to cast up to them just because they refuse to accept measures which are destined to ruin the Democratic party to which they adhered to all their life time.

"Go on Masser; unless this whole race you. Let us hear from you. Trot out of superlative Episcopals are exterminated your witnesses. Let us have the affidavits !! by the second Tuesday of October the air Will not Hester and Galagher and Connely around the North Pole will melt with fervent heat."-Democrat.

We have heard of the Protestant Episcopal and the Methodist Episcopal Churches, but never before of the "Superlative Episcopal." Every church presided over by a Bishop is of course, Episcopal. The Bishop of Rome is, we presume, the "Superlative," since he usurped the title of Pope, without such usurpation, and now asserts his supremacy over other Bishops. Under this unwarranted title he claims not only spiritual but temporal power over the whole world. How can freemen or democrats sustain principles like these. "Melted air" is a subject above our comprehension. Is it a Romish miracle or a branch of the Inquisition?

ROAD TAXES IN MT. CARMEL AND COAL TOWNSHIPS.—One of the curiosities of Irish rule are the road taxes of these two townships-the amount and the way expended. Tweed & Co., of New York will have apt scholars, if the Molley Maguires get our county once fairly into their hands. Let them elect their ticket this fall, then look out for breakers! Hundreds of some of the best men will sell out and leave the

PAT HESTER has apparently become an elephant in the ranks of the Democracy. They don't know what to do with him. They are afraid to ignore him entirely and yet are extremely anxious to get rid of him. The Democrat tries to treat Pat's nomination as a candidate for Sheriff as a kind of a joke. He knows full well that Pat would | with his movements. have been the Democratic candidate two years ago, only that Pat had the misfortune to be tried for his life in a criminal prosecution.

HE HAS TAKEN THE STUMP. - We notice that ex-Sheriff Weaver, who changed his politics several years ago to be elected Sheriff of Northumberland county, has taken the stump for Scott, Gallagher, and Ryon, and is denouncing all honest life long Democrats who do not feel disposed to support the Irish Catholic ticket, as renegades and traitors. His maiden speech at Snydertown a few evenings since surpassed every thing that has yet been heard .. that the tring little village. He evidently had forgoten that he was the rival candidate of Pat Hester for the next sheriff, for he apfied all the modern epithets to his fellow Democrats, that do not think as he does.

It must be very gratifying to the ex-Sheriff to reflect that it has been but a few nent, did not vote at all that day.

Now the facts are these, through the aid they have forsaken him now, leaving him to form a more agreeable association, the Irish Catholics.

WE ARE informed that speakers of the Irish Catholic Democratic party pretend to do to attend to my own business, with that G. W. Ryon, the candidate for Discout opposing Wm. C. Johnston." that G. W. Ryon, the candidate for District Attorney, was not in any way interested in the fraudulent ticket nominated. It is well known that Mr. Ryon was the prime mover in getting up the fraudulent votes in the coal region, and we would ask them whether Mr. Ryon has not been sitting in the same buggy with Mr. Gallagher driving through the Irish districts soliciting the Irish vote within the last two weeks.

WE have received the following card from a prominent Democrat of Montour County for publication. The writer has been on the most intimate terms with Mr. Chalfant, and therefore is well acquainted

A CARD.-TO THE DEMOCRATS OF MONTOUR AND NORTHEMBERLAND.-We see by Tomas Chalfant's paper, that he assumes his offence to be that he refused to nominate a man without first being recommended by the people. Now, fellow De-mocrats of Montour county, that assump-tion is false. We did not ask him to nominate Dr. Kester, nor did we expect him to do so. To the contrary, we knew that Chalfant was not a delegate, and we also knew that it took a majority of the delegates to make a nomination.

If Chalfant assumes the authority to make or unmake such nominations, he assumes more than the party is willing to accede, and he certainly does assume it in his article, when he says he would not do it for a bosom friend," and for no one else; adding that the Democracy of Montour would sustain him.

Dr. Kester's interview with the Intelligencer man was very short and very pointed, particularly on the part of Chalfant. The Docter proposed to him to go into the convention and ask that respectable body Calling them "wornout political hacks," their deliberate judgment, wether he had any right or any claim at their hands, leaving the matter entirely with them, as the Doctor had voted for them at the delegate election, whilst Wm. Shortly before this occurred, Wm. C. Johnston considered "Tom. Chalfant the most corrupt man in Montour county," and Thomas Chalfant said that "Wm. C. Johnston is a venemous viper, an old rusty fos-sil, and must be kicked out of that office at the first opportunity."

Now Democrats of Montour! many of you are no doubt aware of the unwhole-some character of the Democratic party in this town. There is an ulcer, a festering sore that must be probed, from whatever source the instrument may come. In the present condition of things here, and which has been getting worse and worse since Chalfant assumed the dictatorship, there can be no healthy action. There can be no doubt that the evil effects of the rotten ulcer referred to defeated Mr. Britian for Commissioner, as well as poisoned the at-mosphere and prevented Dr. Kester from being nominated. The situation is exactly The Democrats of this county who want a nomination, must first come and ask Mr. Chalfant and Chalfant will grant or reject his request, according as it may tend to advance his own selfish ends. With him it is "Chalfant" all the time, everlastingly up for office, and grasping at every chance presented, without regard to the interests of the party. He is ready to split the party, to alleniate its warmest friends, and to combine with the Republi cans—only so that he yets office, He had no compunctions of conscience

Wednesday was a day of excitement in Massachusetts, it being set apart for the assembling the Republican State convention, at Worchester, to nominate a candidate for Governor. The contest narrowed itself down to Washburn and Butler, the former receiving the nomination, the vote standing 643 to 464.

If the Democratic speakers and editors believe all they say and write concerning their expected victory in October, they must be of most remarkable sanguine and hopeful dispositions, for a more discoraging prospect could hardly be placed before men in their positions.

THE best evidence of the unworthyness of the Democratic ticket is the fact that the best men of the party refuse to support it, and denounce it in their own public meet-

lence St. Louis Republican.] Apropos of Rome newspapers, I send your readers the following translation of a letter from the Pope to his Vicar, Cardinal Patrizi on the subject of the liberal press, which has produced a considerable sensation here, and has caused a great amount of ridicule to be thrown as of ridicule to be thrown upon excom cation in general:

Signor Cardinal! When God in his lofty it is that he should have the ability and experience to discharge the duties of the office. In the performance of his duty, the District Attorney may save to the county thousands of dollars, which an inefficient officer, with the best intentions might lose by his want of knowledge and experience in his profession.

Signor Cardinal! When God in his lofty designs allowed Rome to be unjustly occupied, the usurpers said that Rame was necessary for the integrity of Italy, and the perfect union of all her parts, as if there were not in Italy two other little portions which remain still under their ancient government, and which I hope will always remain so. But the object of the great manouvres of the revolution was not only to usurp a city like Rome, but it also was and is to destroy the centre of Catholicism all sent their little contingent to this meand the saints, to abuse and beat the ministers of the sanctuary, to profane churches and festivals, multiply houses of prostitu-tion, deafen ears with sacrilegious cries, and shameless, hypocritical, lying and irreli-gious. This infernal phalanx proposes to take away from Rome what it calls religious fanaticism, as said also an Italian philoso tions. Voters and taxpayers should not forget that a good District Attorney has it in now want to make her incredulous, or mistress of a so-called tolerant religion, as those wish who only have before their eyes the present life, and those whose idea of God is that he lets everything run on without occupying himself much about our affairs. Does the government which tolerates all these disorders belong also to the same phalanx? We must hope not, for the case for 15 years. The five schools of the affirmative would be a sad declaration the Nineteenth Ward are ruled by Catholic of the fall of the throne. For all the rest alluded to above respecting the violation of the laws of God and the Church, you must say to each curate, Argne obsecra nerepa! THE MOVEMENTS OF THE IRISH CATHO-LICS OF NEW YORK EXPOSED.—The law requiring the Bible to be read in the schools is a dead letter in most of the wards in N. York City. The Tribune has been investional to the school of the wards in N. tigatigating the matter, and the following facts are contensed from a statement in the paper: In the sixth Ward the Catholics make up three-fourths of the population, and these are controlled by the priests. Here William Mullany, who has been principal of Ward School No. 23 for 25 years, says that the Bible has not been read for 20 years at least; and yet he reports his de-linquency every mouth. There was a dis-turbance about the matter in 1861, and the turbance about the matter in 1861, and the salaries of all the teachers in the schools of the ward where the reading was not maintained were suspended for six months; but the dereliction was finally acquiesced in. James Campbell who keeps a grog-shop at No. 82 Centre street, is one of the school trustees in the Sixth Ward. The following remarks of Mr. Campbell to a reporter at once illustrate his views of the question and his qualifications for the office which he his qualifications for the office which he holds: "Whin I went into me place here, an' that's agoin' on eight year, the Boible wasn't a bein' read; an' shure, I didn't ax any questions about it. I guiss its all right it is, and they've fixed it wid the Board uv Eddycashun, so as there wont be nothing said about it. Anyhow, I couldn't 'pon me honor, tell yer anything about it, sur." In the Twenty-first Ward Sara J. J. Me-Caffray, principal of Primary School No. 16, uses a Catholic Bible. In the Fourth Ward Schools there has been no Bible reading for 11 years. Here again the pay of teachers was stopped on account of the omission. There was much excitement and the teachers brought suit for their salaries. The suit finally went by default. In one case a trustee carried off a Bible from matter. An evidence of the real anamus and intention of the Romanists is found in the fact that a reporter, visiting this school found the pupils engaged in celebrating the Catholic festival of Ascension Thursday by singing and other exercises. The teachers in this ward are nearly all Catholics. In the Fourteenth Ward there is no Bible reading. In school No. 21 this has been up parochial schools here, and keep their children away from the public schools on religious holidays, and also keep them at home for months together to prepare for yearly confirmation or "first communion." Nothing but the great superiority of the public schools enables them to withstand the competition of the parochial schools. Some parents even pay the price of tuition in the latter while they send their children to the former. In the Twenty-first Ward two schools still use the Protestant Bible The recitation of the Lord's Prayer ceased in 1870. The priests of St. Gabriel's church fight the public schools very hard. They induce the children who attend their schools to call all who go to the others 'litproclaimed in the pulpit that parents who swear, or do all kinds of evil, should send them to the public schools." The Fifth Ward was formerly strongly Protestant; but the Catholics are getting the upper hand. Carmel township, Scott received 365, Reimensnyder, 261. These figures show for themselves. I do not want to do Mr. Reimensnyder an injustice, for I believe him to be an honest man. The only trouble with him is, that he is in bad company; and it is my carnest prayer that the bad company outside of himself will be beaten so badly that they will not know what ails them after the election. How can it be explained that Mr. Scott only got two votes in Delaware; in McEwensville, none; in Point, two; in Cameron, one; in Upper ever recurring questions met with in look-ing over our correspondence is: "What Little Mahanoy, one; in Jordan, two; in ing over our correspondence is: "What articles of food may properly be called the vegetables, and what fruits?" GERMAN CATHOLICS,-The great reformation in Germany is steadily gaining ground. Three thousand families in Vien-na have applied to the minister of religion for permission to have mass performed in the cathedral by priests who have remained faithful to the "pure old Christian docfaithful to the "pure old Christian doc-trine." The Old Catholics are organizing throughout Bohemia and Corinthia, and they have started their first newspaper. A fund has been started for the support of priests who may be excommunicated or deprived of their benefices for opposing the dogma of Papal Infallibility. Above all, a through understanding has been all, a through understanding has been reached that this movement shall not rest with repudiating the new dogma; but that a general reform of the Church must now take place. The laity must be admit-ted to power in the Church, and the whole scheme of church dogma must be revied. Singularly enough, this movement seems to be quite as strong among the Catholics of Austria and South Germany as in the northern countries.—Independent, Sept. 4,

WHY IS IT.—We believe there are several billiard tables in this county, and on some of them we know that taxes have been paid, which, according to law, should go into the State Treasury. And yet the Auditor General's report, while crediting the Treasurers of other counties of the State with taxes on the billiard tables in the counties, fails to give any credit to Northumbland county. Mr. B. Huth, of this Northumbland county. Mr. B. Huth, of this borough, holds the Treasurer's receipt must have received the money. What was done with the money? The Auditor General says the State did not get it. Has the Sunbury Democratic Ring taken it to grease the wheels of their political machine? The tray recovery chine? The tax payers are interested in learning what is done with the money. We also notice from the Auditor General's Report that nearly all the counties in the State pay a tax on their eating houses, beer houses, restaurants &c., but this county pays into the State Treasury no such tax. Who gets this money? The same with peddler's licenses. Who will enlighten us on these points Y-Miltonio

Correspondence.

TREVORTON, Sept. 25, 1871. MR. EDITOR.-Funny things will happen eveywhere, and Trevorton is no exception to the general rule. It had been amounted for some time that on the 23d of September the W. B. Association would have their annual parade at this sociation would have their annual pastrong, and place—that they would turn out 1800 strong, and they to the gentiles and the "unfaithful," that show to the gentiles and the "unfaithful," that they are yet a mighty and a powerful fraternity, and no doubt frighten and scare the "black legs," as they please to call those who are inde-pendent enough to work independent, out of the place. Well the day arrived, and the W. B. A. arrived. The first delegation was a half-drunken fop coming up from the depot to Campbell's cor-ner, where he leaned against a hitching post, and tried to yell, but his voice being so far drowned in ten cent in piration, be made a noise similar to that of a young raven with food in its mouth Next came the full delegations from Shamokin. Mt. Carmel, and all the upper colleries, includ tle Protestants'; and one of their preachers | ing part of Schnylkill county, and we will coneeds to them that at first sight it looked rather respectable as they came down the railroad on a long train of platform cars, fixed up for the occasion. They got off the cars and formed in pro-cession 650 strong, and paraded the principal streets of the town with some music, a number of banners, and a flag with nine stripes—was it an Irish flag ? Next on the programme was drinking until about 1 o'clock, p. m., when the cal associates is shown by the following reply of the "Hon." Mike Murphy to the friends of a staunch American Tammany

"Spaches" over and cars ready to take them home, drummers were again sent out about the aloons as before, when it was ascertained that some were so "weak in the knees" that it became necessary to detail a number of right hand and Fifth Ward; an', bedad, ye may make up yer minds that it won't come again very some one of the upper places; handled each other so roughly, that it became necessary to have a physician, and there being no Iri-h ductor about there was no alternative but to call in Dr. Newbaker, who responded to the call, and 'fixed them up' again. After they got on the cars, and the train got in motion, and having given several yells, they "forgot that they were brethfians into whose hands they have fallen. ren, and remembered, Iri-hman like, that the We are not in favor of forcing the reading usual amount of fighting was not done, they an accompany a grow a present the tracely one again because ed each other off the cars, buts and men flying in every direction, until the front car was nearly emptied. The engineer seeing that he was cut short in his "precious freight," stopped the train and allowed them to pick themselves up again, when off he went with them to their respective homes. The number present would have made a respectable township meeting, but to look upon it as the strength of the W. B. A. of North-mobile and content of the description of the west of the strength of the west.

on it as the strength of the w. B. A. of North-umberfand county it looked rather slim.

As already stated, they numbered by actual count 650 in procession; of these there were, at a low estimate, 200 schoolboys, leaving 450 men of 21 years and upwards; now make another de-duction of, at a low estimate, 150 Schuylkill was the "intelligenterest" of the two, and must be voted for.

Now, Mr. Editor, and readers of the "Ameri-can," if we have sunk so far beneath the standard of true Americanism as to assist in putting men in high positions to domineer over us and our posterity, who are members of, or pledged to a sect as intolerant as the Irish Roman Catho-lic have shown themselves to be, in almost every age of the church, and but a few weeks ago in the great American metropolls, then we might as well lay down our hands at once, and say begone American libertles, we acquiesce in Codtish AMERICUS.
