to exult exceedingly over the fact that we do not got paid for advertising the Treasurer's sales, and thinks it ungrateful on the part of the County Treasurer towards us after giving that officer a hearty support. Our neighbor is mistaken in supposing we supported Mr. Cadwallader, or any other officer last fall merely with the expectation of getting a little county "pap." We had a higher aim in view, and that was to make a change in the condition of things about the county offices, and as far as the Treasurer is concerned, we are happy to say there is a great change for the better already. Though we have not been in Mr. Cadwallader's office but once or twice since he is elected, we are much gratified to learn that he performs his duties satisfactorily to all who come in contact with him. The printing we suppose we might have got had we bored Mr. Cadwallader as hard as some others. We were aware that the Miltonian was entitled to it, and as to its publication on this side of the river we thought that Mr. C. was able to make his own choice. We presume Mr. Cadwallader was informvertising is procured in that way by those way, we give him credit for being a little sharper than some of our former Treasurers. If the editor of the Democrat is aware that we were instrumental in securing Mr. Cadwallader's nomination and election, and he proves ungrateful towards us, we are surely not to blame, and it is not necessary to condole with us on that account. We have so far succeeded in living without any of the county "pap,"-and really we would scarcely know how to use it were we to get any, as it would be altogether a new diet to us and might not set as well on our stomach as it did on our neighbor's, who has been brought up on that kind of pabulum-although we give nearly all the county advertising to our readers gratuitously for the benefit of the tax-payers in parts of the county where neither the Gazette nor the Democrat have a ghost of a circulation. We do not complain of an officer on that score, even though he might not have noted wisely in the distribution of his patronage.

It is very eviden, that this convention is not likely to be of the most harmonious character, for hood that all the Isms will not be comented together. While some favor a passive policy, others oppose it, and advocate the nomination of a straight Democratic or sorchead ticket. The Democratic members of Congress have concluded that if the Cincinnati Convention will adopt such a platform as the Democracy would frame, they will join in and try to secure their success. But the Southern wing of the Democracy, which always controls that party, condemns passivism, and shrewdly recalling bension which might arise on this subject.

the Brockingides and Davis split, by which W. H. ARMSTONG. they were defeated, urges the party to encourage Republican misunderstandings, meet, nominate and elect the next President. Should a candidate be found that will satisfy all these different wings, he will have to consist of many parts to unite such a conglomeration of sects and isms. The impossibility of combining the opposition as sought at Cincinnati, is an assurance that no change will occur in the government. The honest portion of Democrats and Republicans will not allow all we have such a man as General Grant to guide the ship of State. General Grant, in the course of an administration not yet completed, has seen the national debt reduced from $2,491,399,-904, as it was March 1, 1869, to $2,174,-374,298 April 1, 1872, a reduction of $317,-025,606. In the same period the annual interest has been reduced from $126,389,-550 to $105,904,908 - $20,484,552 in thirtyseven months. Taxation has also been reduced in the same time $200,000,000. without reckoning what has been done and is proposed by the existing session. The aggregates of foreign exports and imports amounted to $1,032,472,258 in 1871 against $435,710,714 so far back as 1862-an increase of more than 100 per cent, in the decade. And notwithstanding the great reduction in the debt, by which less taxation has been made possible, the development of the country has steadily progressed; new railways have been constructed everywhere; wilds have been settled and organized; factories have gone up in the south and west, as well as the north, and the momentary circulation has been brisk promuent citizens. ed, however, that by giving the job to the and commanded confidence, and in every Garque it would also appear in the Demo- calling, in every State and Territory, a crat, as it is well known that much of the ad- naw and more vital life has been felt. ### GRANT IN NEW YORK.

GREAT MASS MEETING AT COOP-

Tremendous Outpouring of People.—The President's Course Reviewed and Endorsed.

NEW YORK, April 17. An immense mass meeting to indorse the administration of President Grant and advocate his renomination was held tonight at the Cooper Institute. The decrats and Republicans will not allow all monstration has, in point of numbers and the ex-office holders to seize the reins of enthusiasm, but especially in the local and representative character of those composing been rarely equalled in New York. By seven o'clock the vast hall of Cooper Institute was densely crowded, and thousands remained outside. The police at first attempted to prevent the crowd from filling up the aisles and the uncomfortable crowding of the building. After the preceedings commenced so loud and persistent was the clamor for admit-tance that the police fell back, and by every entrance to the ball hundreds flocked in, and in a few minutes it was impossible to find additional standing room. The plat-form was also fully occupied by the officers

LABOR REFORM PARTY.

The Pittsburg Morning Mail says: The Labor Reform party, which was organized with such a show of importance at the Columbus Convention on the 22d of Februthe New England States denounce their Executive Committee for the vacillating course pursued by them touching the tendering of the nominations of President and ential members of the labor organizations of Pennsylvania and other States, have also expressed themselves dissatisfied with the whole movement so far as Presidential can-didates are concerned, realizing that they have been made the tools of designing politicians opposed to American industry. workingman can consistently advocate or aid in the election of a free trader like Davis or even the nominee of the Cincipnati Convention, who will either be a revenue reformer (the more palatable title for free trader,) or be placed on a free trade platform. All the movements against the Republican party are prompted by one single motive, and that is to throw open our markets to the pauper labor of Europe, break lown our industries, and enrich the few foreign importers and their agents and presses. This is the secret of the Cincinmati Convention, although it will contain other elements to cover up the real design. Like our soldiers who vote as they fought, for the perpetuity of the Union and its in stitutions, let our mechanics and laboring men vote as they work, for the mainten-ance of good wages and the domestic blessings that follow.

TERRIBLE RIOT IN INDIAN TERRITO-RY.—A riot occurred in the Court at Tala-quab, Indian Territory, on Friday last dur-ing a murder trial.—The alleged murderer was acquitted, at which a relative of the murdered man, who was in the court room at the time, became so greatly enraged that he shot the person dead who was on the trial for the offence, and afterwards, level-ing a pistol at the judge's head, fired, the ball taking fittal effect. This desperate action was the signal for a desperate fight, during which a number of persons, estimated at ten, were killed, and several men were severely injured. Three United States marshals, named Hawkins, Wilson and Owens, who were in the court room at he time, were mortally wounded.

AT a Convention of colored men recently held at New Orleans, a resolution was adopted recognizing "the noble work of the Germans in our emancipation and enfranchisement." Such an acknowledgment is just and manly, as no class (if we may use the word) of men in the country did more for emancipation and impartial suffrage during the past ten years, than our Ger-man adopted fellow citizens. The German is the natural foe of tyranny. He antagonizes oppression the moment it appears, and under no circumstances acknowledge inequality in man. It is to men imbued with such convictions, adopted as well as native born, that the Republican party may confidently look for future victory.

The Philadelphia papers last week pubcal monomaniaes, among whom the name of A. K. McClure figures. The Press and Bulletin, whose ink is hardly dry which promulgated the assertions that McClure was a Grant man and advocated his election to the Senate on that ground, when they are compelled to acknowledge them-selves belied and cheated. Verily, soft soap must be plenty in the Quaker city when men there can be gulled as easily as they were. Had it been country editors it would have been a matter of course, in the estimation of the "great men," but that two city editors of "great dailies," should Hon. E.
