THE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR .-The sensational reports of the withdrawal of General Hartranft from the State Ticket have all exploded. And it turns out that it was nothing more than a desire of the Democratic leaders, that such a withdrawal should take place. If the Republican press throughout the State may be taken as authority, the opposition to General Hartranft has never been more formidable, than it would be to almost any other candidate the Republicans might nominate. The Democrats are opposed to him and so would they be in any case.

PLEDGES GIVEN TO RESTORE THE LATE REBELS TO POWER.—HIS ADMINISTRA-TION TO BE DEVOTED TO THEIR INTER-

LOUISVILLE, Ky., August 9.—The fol-wing are Gen. Hodge's exact words at the Greeley meeting in Lexington, on the 2d ult. :

"I have devoted a lifetime to the principles of the Democratic party. I have grown gray in the advocacy of those principles, and each year the conviction has grown deeper that its fundamental principles are the true foundation stones for this Government. I have seen upon the battlefield thousands throw away their lives in defence of these principles. The graves of the gallant Southern dead who sleep upon every hill-side in the South, over whose graves the night winds sigh, are reminders to me of the love for these prenciples which still lingers in my heart. The second passage in Mr. Greeley's letter means that John C. Breckinridge and other chivalrous sons of the South shall be restored to their former positions of power and influence. Looking back upon the once shattered and fruitless hopes of the South, I now see that equal rights and sovereignty of the States shall be restored, and my comrades of the lost cause have not died in vain. This will be a victory for that for which they fought. Mr. Gree-ley promised to do all he could to aid us when we get a majority in Congress. I object to Grant because he is a Republican; because he is a member of that party which waged successfully to contest against my brethren of the South, whose orators kep the fires burning that filed the Federal ranks with soldiers. I have beard it said by some that the Democratic party shall have no part with Mr. Greeley in the con-sequent; but I feel that they will not be neglected. Not only will Greeley not for-us by him that we shall not be forgotten in case of success." Hodge is an elector for the state at large. Col. U. C. P. Breckenridge said at the same

They are to give you, I en of the South those places which the men of the dominant party now hold. I don't care a picayune for Horace Greeley or what he has said. He represents the dawn of a new era to us, an era that will restore us to power. Will that not be vic-tory enough for us? The city election in Louisville, Ky., on Monday, is suggestive. The Democratic and Liberal (Sorehead) ticket was beaten by several thousands. The city has heretofore been very heavy Democratic. This looks bad for the corrupt combination for spoils completed at Cincinnati and Baltimore. The people of this county always have refused to be sold out and traded around by huckstering politicians, and 31,690,380 00 they will probably continue to refuse to be sold "like sheep in the shambles." Col. John Buchanan, a leading Democrat of Greene county, is President of the Grant Club at Waynesburg.

Alderman Wm. McMullen, who was shot in Philadelphia by Mara, is on the streets again.
Mara has not been arrested.

The Norristown Defender, Democratic paper of Montgomery county says—"The voice of the steadfast Democracy of Montgomery is raised in denunciation of the outrage perpetrated by the convention at Baltimore, They never can and never will subscribe to that abjuration." And thus are honest Democrats entering their protest against the corrupt bargain and sale of unprincipled seekers after office. In North-Carolina Judge Settle was decontest the seat.

The next election to take place is that of West Virginia, where the canvass has commenced in earnest. Owing to the enfranchisement of the rebels there, the State has gone against the Republicans for two or three years; but there is said to be a fair chance now of restoring her to the folds of loyalty and the Republican party.
