Local Notes.

A MOST villainous outrage was committed on the person of Mrs. H. Paup, at the P. & E. shops, on Thursday afternoon of last week.

Paup was attacked by Thomas Goban Patrick Conley, Hugh Glen and Michael Brew, and while the three latter held him, Goban cut him about the head, face and hand with a knife. A gash of two inches in length on the left side of the head was made. Paup was brought to Dr. C. M. Martin & Co's Drug store, and had his wounds properly dressed by the doctor. A warrant was issued and Conley, Glen and Brew were arrested on the same evening, and brought before Esquire Pursel who committed them in default of bail. Goban fled, but was arrested at Lock Haven on the following day by Chief of police Westfall, of that place, and on Saturday was brought to this place by Constable Spotts, of Lower Mahanoy, who brought him before Esquire Pursel who committed him in default of $1000 bail. Mr. Paup is a brick layer, and has been in the employ of the P. & E. R. Co., for a long time. Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause that led to this outrageous assault, as Mr. Paup is a very peaceable, quiet and inoffensive citizen, and his gentlemanly conduct is admired by all who become acquainted with him.

Conly, Glen and Brew were released on bail on Friday, for their appearance at next Court.

On Monday morning last, Esquire Bethelmeier, accompanied by P. M. Shisler, Esq., Ira T. Hiram Price, Esq., and J. N. Hill, started to the Eastern Penitentiary with five prisoners, sentenced to solitary confinement and the House of Refuge. A large crowd of people had gathered at the depot to witness their departure. The young boys Cole, Knopig, Gross and Galloway all had friends here who much regretted that their early depravity had led them to such a sad fate. They appeared cheerful, but on entering the cars one shed tears, and many of the ladies present were seen to weep for the young unfortunates. Although none of the boys were raised in this place, being new comers, the lesson taught by their misfortune should make an everlasting impression upon the minds of the youth of our place, many of whom are traveling the road which leads to ruin, the consequences of which it is impossible to escape. The highest duty of the parent, before God and society, is the moral and religious instruction of the child. A neglect of this duty is fraught with sorrow to the parent and ruin to the child, as we have just seen in this case. The same cause will produce the same effect, therefore, if parents neglect the welfare of their children they must expect them to become the harvest of the law to be garnered in the State's prison, and they themselves to become the sorrowing objects of public pity.
