CHOICE PLANTS FOR THE PARK .- Gen. Simo Cameron forwarded some choice plants to H. D. Wharton, Esq., now on a visit to his friends here, a few days ago, for the park, in Market square. Mr. Wharton has also procured some box wood from the public garden at Washington, for Miss Lou Shissler, and Mrs. Philip Clark, residing on Market square, to beautify a portion of the new Park.

Joun Henry Dennie, better known as "Jack Shappard," editor, proprietor and carrier of Jack Sheppard's Trumpet, a newspaper published at York, Pa., visited our town on Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of soliciting aubscriptions. "Jack" is an odd genius, and by his co centrickies manages to raise the "wind" admirably. He is seen almost daily at the Harrisburg depot, blowing a silver trumpet, presented to him by the ladies of Harrisburg, selling his papers. He sold a number of copies, here and in the evening made a speech on religious toples to a large crowd on the square on Third street.
