PROF. W. HOWARD DAY, of Harrisburg, editor of Our National Progress, organ of the colored people of this State was married on Tuesday last to Miss Georgie F. Bell, of Philadelphia. This happy event produced a pleasant sensation among the elite of the colored citizens of Pennsylvania, for the Professor is well known and highly esteemed, and recognized as an energetic and useful man among his people.

One of the incidents of decoration day was that after the general demonstration at the cemetery His Excellency, Governor Hartranft, visited the grave of ex-Governor Geary, and with head uncovered deposited a magnificent bouquet thereon. He also left a handsome floral tribute upon the grave of Major P. Dalhon.

A meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee was held in Philadelphia on Wednesday, which agreed upon Wilkesbarre as the place, and August 27th the time, for holding the next Democratic State Convention.

Do they app reciate these solemn facts? If they do not, it is time they should. The Democratic papers assure us that such are the factsand who ever knew a Democratic paper to

A NORTHERN TOWN IN TEXAS. - Seven months ago the first house was built in the present town of Dennison, Texas. A census just taken shows that the population foots up near 6,000. The general business of the place is on the increase. The bulk of the people are from the north, and more from Kansas than any other one State.

HON. THADDEUS STEVENS willed a sum of money to a nephew on consideration that he abstained from the use of intoxicating drinks, otherwise the money was to go to the founding of an Orphan Asylum at Laneaster. The time of the probation of the aforesaid nephew has expired, and he having failed to give up the "flowing bowl," the sum has been turned over to the other purpose. The amount is variously estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000.

MANY people have queried where the arms and ammunition used by the Indians came from. It is believed by trappers and those living in the Northwest that the Indians of that section obtain their arms largely from the Indians of Maultoba. After the Minnesota massacre many Sioux crossed into British America, where they hunted, trapped, and occasionally hired out to the farmers of Manitoba. As soon as they got either money or furs they out to the farmers of Manitoba. As soon as they got either money or furs they bought or bartered for arms and ammunition, which they in turn sold to their brethren of the United States. The Sioux have a vivid recollection of the Mankato hanging, and are nursing a terrible feeling of revenge. A constant communication is maintained between those in Manitoba and the United States; and whenever a favorable opportunity offers they will all join in an outbreak, using Manitoba as a base and a safe retreat in case of disaster.

BOSTON, May 30-2 P.N. A great fire commenced this morning about 8 o'clock in the furniture factory of Haley, Morse & Boyden, 411 Washington street, a six-story building. On account of the combustible character of the contents the flames spread with lightning rapidity, and in ten minutes the building was one massive sheet of flame.

The fire soon worked into the blocks on either side and rear, occupied by wholesale clothiers and piano manufasturers, including Emerson & Co. These buildings soon succumbed. The fire soon crossed the street and, on account of the intense heat, the firmen were unable to work to advange the firemen were unable to work to advan-tage, and the French roof of the Globe theatre building caught fire.

The entire department and assistance from out of town were present fighting with the flames. Great excitement existed in the vicinity of the fire, and while dealers were removing goods and merchandise several accidents happened.

At ten o'clock the fire was still raging with unabated fierceness, the fire department finding themselves unable to step its progress. About five blocks are con-sumed. One of the branch offices of the Franklin telegraph company is destroyed. Engines have come in from the surrounding

At 11 A. M. the fire was still gaining on the firemen and looked as if it would go down to Chauncey street, on the edge of the burned district. Among the buildings burned are the Globe theatre, Chickering's plano warerooms and the International hotel. About three millions have already been lost.

The fire originated in the rear of Hadley, Morse & Boyden's, and extended to the stable, causing the flames to work in the direction of Tremont street. All the dealers on that street exposed to the fire have moved their goods on to the common in moved their goods on to the common immediately opposite, including Weeks & Potter, who were among those burned out at the great fire. The elegant Masonic Temple, on the corner of Tremont street, is not touched, and will be saved on account of its noncombustible charcter. The buildings between that corner and Washington on Boylston street are low structures, filled with fire traps in the rear, and were all burned, including Boylston, Banker and the corner of Washington streets.

It is impossible to get the names of the occupants and losers now. During the progress of the fire the steeple of Rev. Dr. Dunn's Presbyterian church, corner of Harrison avenue and Beach street, took fire from the window and consumed the balance of the church.

The streets leading to the scene of con-flagration are filled with teams, containing valuable merchandise.

The fire interferes with the observance of decoration day, and caused a partial suspension of business.

The fire was under control before noon and the following buildings on the cast side of Washington street are totally destroyed: Arlington Hall building, Globe theatre building, Chickering's piano forte building, Howard Place. Nine dwelling houses were burned, valued at $4,500 each.

M.-A series of proonged yells and cheers aroused this camp from a pleasant siesta a half hour after the departure of my last courier. General Davis and Wheaton and other officers and all the men rushed from house and tents to find the cause of the uproar, and at once the whole camp was in commotion. Down the level plain, north of the house, was a grand cavacade. Mounted horsemen rush-ed forward at once at a furious rate and soon neared the groups of spectators about the premises. "Captain Jack captured!" shouted a sturdy surgeant. Again the valley echoed with cheers and yells. The mounted command was Perry's. Suddenly a Modoc shot out from the rocks Suddenly a Modoc shot out from the rocks with a white flag. He met a Warm Spring Indian and said Jack wanted to surrender. Three scouts were sent to meet Jack. He came out cautiously, glanced about him a moment and then, as if giving up all hope, came forward and held out his hand to his visitors. Then two of his warriors, five squaws and seven children darted forth and joined him in his surrender.

A WELL-KNOWN AJTHOR THE VICTIM.—New York, June I.—The Sturtevant House, a fashionable hitel on Breadway, between Twenty-eighthand Twenty-ninth streets, was the scene of an awful tragedy this morning—the killer of a father by his own son. The victim is Mansfield Tracy Walworth, son of the lae Chancellor Walworth, of this State, and an author of considerable literary repitation. Has been before the public over TRIRTY YEARS, and probably has a wider and better reputation than any other proprietary medicine of the present day. At this period there are but few unacquainted with the merits of the PAIN-KILLER; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally; while others use it internally with great success, but are equally igno-Considerable literary repitation.

The following statement was made to the coroner by Frank Walwirth, who shot his father at the Sturtevant Jouse this mornwith great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all, that it is equally successful, whether used internally or eternally. It is sufficient evidence of its virtues as a standard medicine. Hartford, Conn., or Chicago, Ill. LIFE BELOW THE SURFACE, BY THOS. W. KNOX.

We feel it to be a duty, as it certainly is a plea-aure, to make conspicuous mention of this time-honored institution, when the facts in regard to its career are so remarkable important and in-teresting. Almost every one is concerned in knowing where to look for safe—which is after all the cheapest—insurance; and we feel perfectly justified in expressing a positive conviction that fore "irsurance that is sure" there is no com-pany aboad of the old Ætea of Hartford.

WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY AND SILVERWARE.

Spectacles.

These Lenses are manufactured from Minute Crystal Pebbles, united by fusion, and derive their name "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

The scientific principal on which they are constructed, prevents all glimmering and wavering of Sight, Dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

Superior to Scotch or Brazilian Pebbles at less than half the price.

They are mounted in the finest manner, at our own manufactory, in all styles of Gald, Silver, Steel, Rubber and Shell Frames of the best quality.

Manufactured by The Spencer Optical Manufacturing Company. (Successors to J. E. Spencer & Co., in the Optical Department.) New York and New Haven.
