THE RING BARBER SHOP S THE SHOP OF THE TOWN - and long has been ; ask history and she will tell you

Men have grown old in our patronage-Bables on their mothers' breast To bouncing boys at play; And youths by maideus fair caressed, To stalwart men with cares oppressed, And old men silver gray.

And among the honored and lasting impressions of time, and the crash of revolutions in circumstances, we stand a living monumental memento of the ingenuity and perseverance ap-pertaining to the identity of progression, plying our vocation with the highest style of art and perfection, and aspiring to achieve the highest reward of merit attainable in our humble capacity, and the sentiment of respect and approbation which the presence of superior appliances and establishment are always wont to inspire. Always to please

We share with case— Cut and comb with taste the hair: Shampoo the head with soothing care, And color the whiskers black or brown, To suit the people about the town. Then allow me politely request you to stop, And not go past nor from around our shop.

To get shaved on the basis of ability-nor a some have done for our use of the bullet for prin-ciple—sacred and right—nor under the common secret and invidious guise of enmity to complexion; for the cut of a man's coat, or the color of his skin, ought not to affect his usefulness nor his qualifications. A fair chance is all that we demand, to give the proof to all the land, JAMES W. WASHINGTON.
