RIOTING AT SHARORIE.—On Saturday last, the interest and laborers about Shamekin were paid off by their employers. The amount paid out was larger than on any previous pay day, amounting in all to about one hundred and twelve thousand dellats. Soon after the men were paid fighting commenced, which was continued from Saturday evening until Monday. The peace officers satempted to quali the riot but were roughly handled, and not until the military made their appearance could the rioters be compelled to stop. The result of the riot was a large number of battered heads. Several arrests were made of the ring leaders. BEHRYSBURG, PA., Oct. 10, 1873.

STRON S. BOWNAN, Esq., Sec. Upper Dauphin Agricultural As-ociation, Dear Sir:
Soier, Walls and Shriner, manufacturers of the "Buck-sye" Mowers and Reapers, circulated at the Sunbury Fair a Pamphlet setting forth that they had been awarded by the Judges at the Grand Field Trial of the Upper-Dauphin Agricultural Association, the Diploma for the best Mower and Reaper. This evidentity is a mistake; the Walter A. Wood Manufacturing Co. hold now in their possession the Diploma for the "best Mower," awarded them by the Judges at that trial.
