HON. J. B. PACKER. - We notice in the proceedings of Congress, that at its organization Speaker Blaine, has assigned the chairmanship of the committee of Post Offices and Post Roads to the Hon. John B. Packer, from this Congressional district. This is a deserved compliment both to Mr. Packer and his constituents, and shows the high estimation placed upon his ability and stending in Congress. This committee is one of the most important in the House, and Mr. Packer's position is perhaps one of the most distinguished and honorable year say the indebtedness was but $34,750 that has ever been conferred upon the constituency of this district. Mr. Packer's port. Dear Wivert :-

The Presidents' message was well received by the public generally, and the comments by the press are flattering to Genwal Grant. Indeed, it is the most in porant document ever presented by this administration, and the tone of it proves that he Executive has the right feeling toward he whole people, and that he has "no poly to dictate to them."

His banding of our difficulties with Spain stames him as a real statesman, and shows he familiarity with the laws and treaties governing such transactions. He had the powr to make himself a Casar, lamp falling into the can.—Stamokin

A great many persons vet apprehend war, not with Spain exactly, but with some of her subject. The hot headed Cubans are somewhat pompous, and use a vast amount of bragadocia, but when the demand is made for the Virginius they will quietly "simmer down," and that vessel will be allowed to be towed from Havana by one of our ships of war. "Everything quiet along the line" now, and the war cloud is fast receding from us.

The appointment of Hon. John B. Packer as Chairman of the very important committee of Post Office and Post Roads, is a high compliment, and one worthily bestow-Mr. Packer is a hard working member, and is continually on the watch for the interests of his constituents and the whole country. Speaker Blaine knew his worth, and acknowledged it by making this pro. motion.

A year ago I wrote to you of the importance of a Member of Congress being returned several times to Congress. The appointment of Mr. Packer to this important chairmanship proves what I then said to be true.
