Historical, with Sixteen Choice Oil faronce, after paintings by the most celebrated artists of the world, giving a rish and magnificent variety of Oriestal custome and beauty. Mrs. Stowe in her character style has written a book full of interest, and without a duit page to it, which even if not thus rated would sell rapidly; but the BRILLIANT OIL PICTURES make it one of the most unique, original, and temarka-able backs ever offered. The richarca, it published set as-rately, would readily self for $2 each—or $32, while the eather book, with the sixteen pictures, together with sumptuous bindrings of the volume, can be had for one-field of that amount. The book is making a tremen-dous. SENSATION AMONG AGENTS
