THE KING BARBER SHOP IS THE SHOP OF THE TOWN—and long has been; ask him and she will tell you. Men have grown old in our parlour—Babies on their mothers' breast. To be young boys at play; And youths by maidens fair caressed, To state we will not care, oppressed, And old men silver gray. And among the honored and lasting impressions of time, and the crash of revolutions in circumstances, we stand a living monument of the ingenuity and perseverance appertaining to the identity of progression, plying our vocation with the highest style of art and perfection, and aspiring to achieve the highest reward of merit attainable in our humble capacity, and the sentiment of respect and approbation which the presence of superior appliances and establishments are always wont to inspire. Always to please. We shave with ease—Cut and comb with Lucid the hair; Shampoo the head with soothing care, And color the whiskers black or brown, To suit the people about the town. Then allow us politely request you to stop, And not go past nor from around our shop. To get shaved on the basis of ability—not on some have done for our use of the bait for principle—served and right—not under the common secret and ostentatious guise of cunning to complexion; for the cut of a man's coat, or the color of his skin, ought not to affect his usefulness nor his qualifications. A fair chance is all that we demand, to give the best, and we will not be trifled with. JAMES W. WASHINGTON, Proprietor. Sunbury, April 8, 1873. No. 91, Market st.
