CARE OF HORSES' LEGS .- Few men who handle horses give proper attention to feet ing that can be done will not avail any- useful. thing if the horse is forced to stand where his feet will be filthy. In this case the feet will become disordered, and then the leg will get badly out of fix, and with bad feet and bad legs there is not much else of the horse fit for anything. Stable prisons generaily are terribly severe on the feet and legs of horses, and unless the buildings can afford a dry room where a horse can walk around, lie down and roll over, they are DRUGS & CHEMICALS, not half so comfortable to the horse as the pastures, and should be avoided by all good hostlers in the country. While the ground is wet as It always is in the spring and fall of the year, horses are liable to be PATENT MEDICINES, OILS, PAINTS afflicted with scratches and grease in the heel. To cure and prevent all these disorders, the parts should be well washed with emulcient soap, and afterward rubbed very dry with soft cloths; after which they may be touched with sweet oil or bealing ointment, and the animal should be kept out of the wet as much as possible. - Ohio

MANURE.-Liquid manure is always exsellent, if it can be obtained. Apply theroughly in all parie. he rate of three gallous to a square roof Well-rotted barnyard manure can be applied in the fall as a top dressing with excellent results. Lime, gypsum, or plaster can be used when well pulverized, and in quantities varying from ten to twenty-five bushels per acre. The best artificial fertilizer is the following: FINE JEWELRY and SILVERWARE. Bonedust, mixed with sifted soil, and sown thickly broadcast (with after - rollings.) forms an excellent ingredient both for lawns, and in restoring and quickening the verdure of decayed grassplots.

KILLING WEEDS, - Spading the garden in the fall, though beneficial in other respects, will not kill weeds. The seeds of the weeds are not to be frozen out. The only way to get rid of weed seeds in the soil is to allow them to germinate, and ranted. then kill the young plants. If taken at the right time this may be done in the garden with the rake. Do not hope to destroy the vitality of weed seeds either by freezing or burying; as soon as the influences are favorable they will grow as sure as fate.

CRAMP IN COLTS.—"Importer" wishes to know what is the matter with his colt. From his description it is a case of cramp that all young horses and mules are obnoxious to-also young cattle. I have always found young animals when first confined in stalls more troubled with cramps than older ones, who knew better how to stretch themselves and lie at case. As soon as I can get the patient on its feet, I stand it with its head towards the open door, throw -lter over its neck, and take a long

If attacked afterwards, it is best to change the stall and the mode of fastening. If there is any stiffness remaining, apply a linimen; of hartshorn and oil, which any druggist will prepare for him. "One wishing to learn" says that his colt was stifled, and when it slipped out he had great trouble to get it in again. He was mistaken in his diagnosis, for had the patella been off, it would have staid off. HOUSEROLD.

ECONOMICAL USE OF NUTMERS.-If a person begins to grate a notineg at the stalk end, it will prove hollow throughout : whereas the same nutmeg grated at the other end, would have proved sound and solid to the last. This circumstance may thus be accounted for : The centre of a nutmeg consists of a number of fibres issuing from the stalks and its continuation through the centre of the fruit, the other ends of which fibres, though closely surrounded and pressed by the fruit do not adhere to it. When the stalk is grated away, these fibres, having lost their hold, gradually drop out in succession, and the hollow ont nues through the whole nut. By beginning at the contrary end, the fibres above mentioned are grated off at their core end, with the surrounding fruit, and do not drop out and cause a hole.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

WIVES SOLD AT AUCTION. - An Extraordinary Feature of English Life.—It is possible some of our readers are not aware that the practice of wife-selling still exists in England. It is not very often we hear of it-perhaps not oftener than five or six times in the year, but from the cool way in which the English papers give such occur-Buffalo Express leaves Philadelphia, 12.55 p m rences, we should judge the thing is done 9.20 pm much more frequently than is recorded, 2.15 a m | and that they mention it as not so much 8.50 a m novelty in itself as for the sake of some cir-3.05 a m | cumstance connected with the sale-as for 7.30 a m the sake of some circumstance connected 10.05 a m | with the sale--as, for instance, the extra-7.20 p m ordinary low price fetched.

This is a surprisingly lew bid. We note also, in connection with this, that prices & M. S. R. W. and at Corry and Irvineton with have gone down considerably in the English cattle market. This certainly is inexplicable that English chattles should fall just now, in view of the threatening aspect of the eastern war cloud, when prices very naturally might be looked for as sure to SCOLDING .- Scolding is mostly a habit. There is not much meaning to it. It is often the result of nervousness and irritable condition of both mind and body. A person is tired or annoyed at some trivial cause, and forthwith commences finding fault with everything and everybody in reach. Scolding is a habit very easily formed. It is astonishing how soon one who indulges in it at all becomes addicted 2.00 and 4.05 p. m., stopping at Lebanoo and principal way stations; the 4.05 p. m., train consonable habit. 'I don't believe much in the Bible,' said a collegian to an old Quaker. 'Does thee believe in France ?' 'Yes, I do. I never saw it, but I have plenty of proof that there is such a country.' 'Then thee does not believe anything unless thee or thy reliable friends have seen it?" 'No, be sure I wont, 'Did thee ever see thy own brains ?' 'No.' 'Did thee ever know anybody that has seen thy brains?' 'No.' 'Does thee believe thee has any brains?'

Festus wished his lady-love was all lips, and Nero wished the human race had but one neck; but a Parisian lover distanced both when he sent a bottle of perfume to to his sweetheart, with the sentiment : "When you smell this, you will wish you were all nose."

A man with a pistol bullet in his left side, an inch above his heart, a six-inch cut on his head, and a fractured leg, called at a Bangor doctor's office to get fixed up the other morning. He said they had been having some fun "over the way," but he refused to tell where.
