About eleven o'clock p. m. the handmaid, in obedience to a hint from her admirer, took the lamp in hand and proceeded down cellar in search of something for him to eat. Though she used everyprecaution not to awaken the Springer the celler door, a strange cat bounded out into the room unbeknown to her, and a moment later emitted one of those sad and melancholy howis that cats are wont to give when concealed in a strange room.

Mrs. Springer heard the cat yell, and after digging at Springer's shins with her toe nails until he was awake, she said, "Go down stairs, Mr. Springer, and let that cat out of the house." Springer, bated the job, but was forced to comply, and descending the stairs in his night shirt and bare feet, found himself in the dining-room where all about him was dark as pitch. The maid servant's beau had heard Springer descending the stairs, and fearing that if he were found there it might make trouble in the family, began to feel his way to ward to back door. In doing so, however, he tripped over the chair his sweetheart had been occupying, and fell headlong into a clothes horse full of garments that were being dried by the kitchen stove. The clothes horse struck the cat in its fall, and with another howl of misery, that animal began to cavort around the room, scale the walls and climb the tables seeking for an exit. A negro living in a neighboring county having been fortunate enough to accumulate considerable of this world's goods, desired, as all loyal subjects should, to pay a tax on the same. It being a new business to him, he did not know there was a proper officer to receive tax, and concluded all that was neccessary was to find a man with a white skin. Consequently he hailed the first white man he met with, "Say, boss, I want to pay my tax; mus I gib it to you ?" On being told that it would be received by the comprehending white gentleman, the negro gave him $25, and asked if that was enough.

"I suppose it is," said the white man.

"Boss, gim me showin' for dat," said the Again the wits of the white man were at work, and he soon handed the negro a slip of paper with the inscription : "As Moses lifted the serpent out of the wilderness, likewise have I lifted $25 out of this negro's

Not long after this the negro met with the tax-collector proper, who asked him for his tax.

"Done paid it, boss, and here's de 'ceipt," at the same time handing the piece of paper to the officer.

He read : "As Moses lifed the serpent out of the wilderness, likewise have I lifted $25 out of this negro's pocket."

"Hold on, boss, you read um wrong," ejaculated the astonished darkey, as he enatched the paper and carried it to another man, who began to read :

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "athousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The en-riched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secre-tions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or ac-companied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial. See that each bottle has PERU-

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this herrid disease make their appearance, such as nicerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall , and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts or nature, are literally dug up and carried a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending out of the system in a short time by the use him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or unskillful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life Vigor and Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment. To such, therefore, Dr. Jonnston pledges himself to preserve the most Inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most certain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world

Agricultural.

"A STITCH IN TIME."-Now is the time, says an Iowa farmer, to make all repairs that are needed about our farms and machinery, so that when spring, summer and harvest come we will be fully prepared to go ahead with our work without stopping to 5.05 p m make repairs. I find that I have a plow 9.20 p m beam to make, a shovel plow handle to fix, 8.50 a m and an arm for one of the rakes on my 10.20 p m self-raker; a new bottom for my wagon 7.30 a m box; a new hay rigging, and a head piece 8.40 a m for one of my harrows. This kind of work 7.20 pm I do when the weather is too bad to work 8.00 a m out of doors-hauling up winter's and sum-1.30 p m mer's wood-just rough enough to work in 7.35 pm the shop. Many farmers will find they bably some new wood work needed some-3.25 p m where about the farm machinery. Now is 9.00 p m also a good time to look to your seed and 4.50 a m clean it thoroughly. I put in a side spout 9.10 a m that goes with my fanning mill and take 11.20 a m out just the very largest and best grain for 9.55 p m seed-and it pays well to clean seed tho-11.10 p m roughly. If you will separate out the best 8.00 a m of your wheat and then sow right by the 7 55 a m | side of it the small and inferior grain, and 1.50 p m some just as it comes, you will see what a 5.50 p m difference it will make. You can tell as soon as it comes up, and you will see the Philadelphis, 2.50 a m | dividing line all the time until it is harvested, and will notice still more difference

when you thresh. If you were not fortu-

GREASING BUGGIES AND WAGONS .-The Canada Farmer says that greasing buggies and wagons is of more importance than some people imagine, and that many a wheel is ruined by oiling too plentifully. DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, SILVER AND PLATED WARE. A well-made wheel will endure constant Cutlery, Clocks, Bronzes, English, French and wear from ten to twenty years, if care is taken to use the right kind and proper amount of oil; but if this matter is not attended to, the wheel will be used up in five or six years, or it may be sooner. Lard should never be used on a wagon, for it will penetrate the hub, and work its way around the tendons of the spokes and spoi the wheel. Castor oil is a good materia for use on an iron axle; just oil enough should be applied to a spindle to give it a light coating; this is better than more, for the surplus put on will work out at the ends, and be forced by the shoulders and nut into the hub around the outside of the and purchasers will find it to their interest to boxes. To oil the axletree, first wipe the spindles clean with cloth wet with turpen tine, if it won't wipe without it.
