thing might not be impossible, for we learn that report, and he ought to know what he helped to do. Should the investigating committee not find it true, it will only expose the lying propensities of this meddlesome and hypocritical Democrat.

Another reason assigned is that a few Democrats who are looking for office advised the Democrats on that jury "that it was not policy for Democrats to vote for a new jail." This looks as though a few of the Ring were operating to keep building the Court House. At that time Com-nissioners were able to buy farms as well as other officers. We know they were not Republicans, and perhaps some Democrats, who did not succeed in getting a "divy," are the ones now looking out for speculations in the building of a > HARPER'S MAGAZINE FOR SEPTEMBER, 1875 .-Harper's Magazine for September, containing seventy-five excellent engravings, has a happy blending of the light and picturesque with its graver and more important article. Foremost among the latter will be ranked Professor Sum ner's comprehensive review of the financial development of this country, being the eleventh paper of the "First Century" series. No topic ould be more timely, when it is considered that 'the monetary history of the United States,' as Professor Sumner says, "from the first coloni zation until now, is a history of experiments with cheap substitutes for money."

The Number opens with a beautiful illustrated article on "Gloucestor and Cape Ann," by S. G W. Benjamin, the author of recent Hinstrated papers on Brittany and the Channel Islands. POLICEMAN.

I have not enjoyed good health for several years past, yet have not allowed it to interfere with my labor. Every one belonging to the laboring class knows the inconvenience of being obliged to labor when the body, from debility, almost refuses to perform its daily task. I never having heard the VEGETINE spoken of so highly, was determined to try it, and shall never regret that determination. As a tonic (which every one needs at some time) it surpasse anything I ever heard of. It invigorates the whole system; it is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood There are many of my acquaintances who have

HEARTFELT PRAYER

St. PAUL, Aug. 22, 1865. Dear Sir-I should be wanting in gratitude, if failed to acknowledge what the VEGETINE has done for me. I was artacked about eleven months since with Brouchitis, which settled into Consumption. I had night sweats and fever chills : was distressed for breath, and frequently spit blood; was all emaciated, very weak, and so low that my friends thought my case hope-

R. H. STEVENS, ESO.

Dear Sir-I have heard from very many sources of the great success of Vegerine in cases of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Catarrh, and other diseases of kindred nature. I make no hesitation in saying that I know VEGE-EINE to be most reliable remedy for Catarrh and neral debility.

My wife has been troubled with Catarrh for many years, and at times very badly. She has thoroughly tried enery supposed remedy that we could hear of, and with all this she has for several years been gradually growing worse, and the discharge from the head was excessive and

I am now happy in informing you and the public (if you choose to to make it public) that she is entirely cured, and VEGETINE accomplished the cure after nothing eles would. Hence I feel justified in saying that VEGETINE is the most reliable remedy, and would advise all suffering humanity to try it, for I believe it to be a good, honest, vegetable medicine, and I shall not besitate to recommend it.
