SCHOOL HEAD SPEAKS AT STOUGH SERVICE

Five Hundred Attend Fourth Preliminary Meeting at Derry Street Church

The fourth meeting preliminary to the Stough campaign in November, was conducted at Derry Street United Brethren Church yesterday afternoon at 3.30. Professor I. C. M. Ellenberger, superintendent of schools in Sunbury, told of the effective work accomplished in a campaign conducted at Sunbury by the Nicholson-Hemmingway party last winter.

Professor Ellenberger said the success of the campaign would depend largely on preliminary efforts. He advised concentration on prayer-meetings and the individual work of the committees. G. A. Diehl, a layman from Christ Lutheran Church, presided. Professor Clippinger conducted the singing. Prayers were offered by the Rev. J. D. W. Deaver and the Rev. W. M. Stanford. About 500 were present at this meeting.

The fifth meeting will take place next Sunday afternoon at 3.30 in Pine Street Presbyterian Church, when Dr. E. W. Samuel, of Mt. Carmel, president of the Shamokin and Mt. Carmel Street Railway Company and a former congressman, will deliver an address.

Meetings to take place this week include a meeting of the Hazleton Trippers Wednesday evening at the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church. The Trippers will meet tonight at headquarters. To-morrow evening the general executive committee will meet at 7.55 at headquarters.

STOUGH CAMPAIGN RESULT

Father Hassett Finds New Auto Is His Own

Returning Saturday from a vacation trip by automobile through New England, which he took with friends from Philadelphia, the Rev. M. M. Hassett reached the rectory at 212 State street and spied a nice new Abbott-Detroit touring car in front of the door. It was a brand new car and it glistened in the sun. Father Hassett a little later found that the car was his and that it was a little token of esteem from his parishioners. The gift was a complete surprise.

BIG IMPROVEMENT IN LIVING CONDITIONS

Bureau of Housing provided as a branch of his department of the Pennsylvania State government by the General Assembly of 1913 and the information necessary for the next Legislature to make appropriations for its operation will be ready before many weeks. The act creating the Bureau of Housing gives the Commonwealth greater power over the living conditions of its people than any other law, with the possible exception of that creating the Department of Health, and places all tenement, lodging and boarding houses under State supervision. As some of the cities have their own housing bureaus, the State will be able to undertake correction in communities where sanitation and accommodations have been ignored, especially industrial communities.

"We have been studying out an organization for this most comprehensive subject ever since the enactment of the law last year and in a short time we will not only have the nucleus of an organization but one which will be active on the high points in what it gets into operation," said Dr. Dixon.

Educational Foundation.—This department is already, in fact has been for several years, working to improve housing conditions in Pennsylvania by the educational work of its nurses. These nurses are active in the communities where we have tuberculosis dispensaries and in some other places and have done much without attracting great attention to educate people up to the importance of cleanliness, fresh air and general banishment of dirt and disease. They have been working quietly, but, as reports show, effectively, among foreigners and new comers, educating them up to a point where they will work to improve their surroundings and take better care of their children. Before the act creating the bureau was passed the educational work that prepares the way for better housing was going on. By the Fall we will know what it will cost to operate and appropriations can be provided.

The act creating the Bureau of Housing was sponsored in the last Legislature by Representative H. C. Watson, of Indiana, but no appropriation to put it into operation was made. It being understood that the Department of Health chief should work out a plan and that the preliminary cost should be borne by the departmental funds, as, owing to the magnitude of the proposition, it would take some time to plan the work and to get it organized. Under the terms of the act, which has a preamble expressing legislative interest in movements for "clean and healthful habitation" and that "environment should promote the highest type of physical and moral development," cities of the first class are excepted from the act.

Great Control Given

The act provides that "it shall be the duty of said bureau to investigate the sanitary conditions of tenement, lodging and boarding houses, and when the same are found, in the opinion of said bureau, to be dangerous to those occupying the same, or employed therein, or to be overcrowded, to condemn the same, and to notify the owners or agents thereof in writing, setting forth the unsanitary or overcrowded conditions thereof, and specifying in writing the changes or alterations which shall be made thereto for the purposes of relieving such conditions, and further specifying the time within which such changes or alterations shall be completed or overcrowding relieved."

In the exercise of this sweeping power provision is made for a court review. When a notice is given a duplicate copy must be filed in the court of common pleas and the owner or agent has ten days in which to file an appeal. If appeal is not taken in that time appeal is to be allowed only on direct order of the court. The court has authority to name viewers and court action is to be final as to enforcement or modification of the order. Failure to comply with orders of the bureau is to be followed by prosecution. A fine of $20 a day for failure to obey orders or imprisonment, as court may direct, are provided for conviction, the penalties applying to officers or corporations or members of firms, either as owners or agents. The bureau agents are to have right of entry and denial of it means a fine of $50 to $100 or sixty days in prison.

Result of Hard Work

Operation of bureaus for the supervision of housing in New York, Philadelphia and other American cities has been attended with conspicuous success, the work of Jacob A. Riis in Manhattan having stimulated people in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and interested thoughtful people in the importance of providing proper surroundings for the men and women of to-morrow. Results obtained abroad have been the subject of much investigation by students of civics and economics in this country and the hearings by legislative committees last year brought out much about what was contemplated for the Key Stone State, but all this, as well as the speeches on the housing bill, appear to have been ignored by the Democratic candidate for Governor in his wild desire to say something derogatory of the administration and Legislature of his native State.

It is only fair to state here that the statement made by Commissioner Dixon was without regard to what Mr. McCormick had been saying in his speeches, the doctor being too much occupied with his notable work to be aware that any candidate was rash enough to speak on the stump without knowing what was going on. The coincidence of the preparations and the speech of McCormick only serve to illustrate the caliber of the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Double Struggle Is Now Predicted When Troops of Germany and France Meet

London, Aug. 17, 3.45 a. m.—An official communication issued by the French War Office Sunday and telegraphed by the Paris correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says:

"At the moment that the German main force comes in contact with our troops," says the War Office, "our allies will force both Austria and Germany to engage in an additional struggle, which, it seems likely, will be of vast proportions. It is well known by now that the Germans anticipated the decisive defeat of the French so that they might immediately follow up such success by a battle against our allies. It is also well known that they counted on the slow mobilization of the Russian forces and upon disturbances in Poland to gain time for their arms. The Emperor, however, by his promise to give autonomy to Poland, has obtained the fidelity of the Poles, and Russia's mobilization has been accomplished with remarkable rapidity. The Russian army is now moving forward for an offensive blow, the result of which will soon be felt. Already in Galicia Russian cavalry has crossed the frontier and Austrian cavalry and infantry have been routed while other battalions have turned tail.

"Germany is being put on the defensive and it is impossible to avoid the conclusion that her position at the front is not all that could be desired at such a critical time in her history."

French Plans Carried Out Successfully in Engagement at Dinant

London, Aug. 17, 5.30 a. m.—The correspondent of the Times at Namur, describing the plan of battle at Dinant Saturday when he says the French defeated the Germans and drove them from the place, states: "The general scheme of the French plan seemed to be to turn the Germans out of Dinant by a crushing force after having first allowed them to enter it, and secondly, to drive them back generally towards Rochefort, a town twenty-six miles south of Huy. "In both objects I believe they succeeded. It was a magnificent sight to see the French chasseurs advance, looking like a huge flock of crows on a yellow field."
