PERSONAL SOCIAL

MARRIED 60 YEARS

Unusual Event Celebrated Last Evening at Their Camp Hill Home

The sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheets was celebrated last evening at their Camp Hill home, with their immediate family and about sixty guests in attendance. The house was aglow with flowers and many gifts were presented to the aged couple.

Mr. Sheets celebrated his eighty-first birthday last August and Mrs. Sheets was 82 in July. Both are natives of Harrisburg and they have always lived in this vicinity. Miss Sarah Shriver and John Sheets were married at Dauphin, November 12, 1854. Of their six children, three survive, Mrs. A. M. Clay, of California; Mrs. Orpha Stackhouse and Mrs. Anna Snyder, of Camp Hill. There are eleven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Harry N. Gassler, pastor of the Second Reformed Church, of which Mr. and Mrs. Sheets are members, held a communion service at their home, attended by the children.

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

The hostess who is planning some special entertainment, or the housewife who wishes her Thanksgiving table to be especially attractive will be interested in the beautiful baskets shown at the Studebaker Grocery Store, Second street at State. These charming baskets heaped with Thanksgiving fruits or filled with autumn flowers make lovely table decorations and may be bought at very moderate prices. Studebaker's are also showing some attractive fruit and sandwich plates and trays in new and beautiful designs. An invalid would appreciate one of these pretty baskets filled with Thanksgiving goodies, and this thoughtful remembrance can be purchased at small expense.

THE CHILD'S HOME

Environment is so potent a factor in the child's development that the whole house should be made beautiful and artistic for the child's sake, and the best place to begin is in the nursery, the center of interest for the child. The A. B. Tack Wall Paper Shop, 1216 North Third street, shows some charming decorations for the nursery, green and another in soft, delicate shades. The nursery is a delightful creature of fairy tales and fables to make artistic wall coverings, combining the educational and imaginative value of illustrated folklores with restful and appropriate color harmonies.

DAINTY GIFTS

A little white kimono jacket with pink or blue ribbon to fasten it, is just one of the many fascinatingly pretty knitted articles shown at the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Herr. There is still time to take advantage of the splendid opportunity to receive free instruction in beginning any article for which yarns are purchased. The demonstration under the direction of Mrs. Cleary will be continued all next week. Bedroom slippers in any number of attractive styles may be made, and these are so desirable as gifts for men, women and children, that they help greatly to reduce the worry of what to give so many people on one's Christmas list.

A WELL-FITTING SHOE

A shoe especially designed for those whose feet are hard to fit, is shown at the Walk Over Boot Shop, 225 Market street. It is a combination last, narrow at the heel, but wide at the ball of the foot, giving perfect comfort in both toe and heel, to those people who require width in the ball of the foot, yet a narrow heel. This shoe, known as the Solace model, has a medium heel and rounded toe, and though built for comfort, it is so well shaped and so stylish that it is a very beautiful model. It may be had either in dull velvet leather or in patent leather, with cloth top for just $4.00.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

MOUNTVILLE.—Word reached here yesterday, announcing the death at Baltimore of Dr. Samuel Butler Grimes, a former resident, but of late years a practicing physician of that city. He was 81 years old; and his death was hastened by the recent death of his son, who was injured in an accident.

NEW WOODFIELD.—Clarence Martin, a coal and grain dealer of Loyville, died early Wednesday morning of typhoid fever. He was 32 years old.

MARTLEVILLE.—Mrs. John Hartle, 39 years old, died after a long illness. Her husband, five children and a sister survive.

WAYNESBORO.—Mrs. John Furney received word yesterday of the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman, at the home of her son, John Hoffman, at Jersey City, N. J. She was 67 years of age and is survived by these children: Mrs. John Furney, Waynesboro; Mrs. Elizabeth Reader and Mrs. Albert Hoffman, both of Tyrone; Mrs. Samuel Shipley, Jersey City, and Mrs. Aaron Metcalfe, Portland, Ore.

MARICETTA.—Mrs. Emma Hibley, 65 years old, died yesterday. Her maiden name was Waller, she being the youngest daughter of the late John Waller.

LANCASTER.—Andrew J. Bletcher, 60 years old, suddenly yesterday from acute indigestion. He was a veteran of the Civil War, serving two enlistments. By trade he was a carpenter and pattern maker. His widow and three children survive.

MOUNT JOY.—Funeral services of Mrs. Anna Beckley was held this morning in the Church of God by the Rev. C. D. Rishel and the Rev. George W. Getz, of Steelton. Mrs. Beckley had been a resident of Mt. Joy for more than a quarter of a century and was the widow of Simon P. Beckley, the well-known tree agent. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth McAllister and one granddaughter, Miss Gertrude McAllister.

MOUNT JOY.—Yesterday the funeral of Miss Edith Plunell was held from her late residence in Mount Joy street. She was the daughter of the late Frank G. Plunell, former postmaster of Mt. Joy. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Plunell, one sister, Miss Emma Plunell, the assistant postmaster, and one brother, Frank Plunell.

NORTHERN PORTION OF NORTH SEA IS NOW FREE OF MINES

By Associated Press

Berlin, Nov. 13, by Wireless.—The German Admiralty has declared that the northern portion of the North Sea is free of mines. Consequently the sailing of neutral ships along this route is not attended by danger. There is danger, however, for vessels sailing through the southern portion of the North Sea and an area announced by England as being free of mines. The correctness of this, the Admiralty says, is proved by the newspaper Handelsblad, published in Norway, which declares that during the past few days several neutral ships have foundered while traversing the route recommended by the British Admiralty.
