option and Bleeding at the Lungs cured, By the use of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy.

ISS EMILINE YEAGER, aged 17 years, was taken when at the age of sixteen with fell a prey to that seeking destroyer, consumption. when application to a physician was made, but to The District Attorney stated the case, and the no effect. He considered her case a hopeless one. with much expectoration of thick phlegm and cough. Her bodily frame at length became reduced to a living skeleton. Her last was anxiously looked for by ker friends, that her sufferings might end by the pangs of death. During the time her physician frequently called, and as the last re-ource, determined to test the virtues of Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTOcure performed by the medicine in similar cases. He at once obtained two bottles and administered it to her. The fourth day he found some change, which give hopes. He continued giving the medicine for eighteen days; at that time she was rendered able to be walking in her bed chamber, to the astonishment of her friends and relatives. She continued using the medicine for eight weaks, when she declared herself entirely free from disease and facts which he expected to prove, concluding with and prescrib d but little medicine for her. In the the remark that it was Wiley's duty to have arrested meantime she discharged great quantities of blood, the robber at once. His position as counsel was no protection. Dr Tyler, one of the directors of the bank, who came on here to negotiate for the recovery of the money, gave his testimoby at length. The substance of the case is that on the 26th of May the Frederick County Bank received HANT REMEDY, having note d some extraordinary an anonymous communication on the subject of the robbery, which was replied by an advertisment.

This lead to further negotiations, and of the 16 h of June a letter was received from Mr. Wiley. stating that he had been requested to act in the matter, and that he desired a personal interview with some of the directors. Two gentlemen accordingly came on, and after some negotiations, in pain, and now pursues her daily occupation in perwhich various terms were required by Wiley, it was sottled that the bank should allow 8 per cent. on the amount of bank issues restored, the bonds, checks, &c. to be given back free of churge. This was accordingly done, and Wiley restored $122,-600 of the notes of the bank, together with the bonds, stock, &c. for which he received $9,800. Wen thousand dollars in gold was retained by the thief. This is the amount of the evidence on the part of the prosecution, and was fully substantiated by Messrs, Tyler and Beale, the gentlemen who January 1st, 1812, will contain, simultaneous with conducted the affair for the bank.

'On the part of the defence, it was contended that the indictment itself was deficient. The defendant's privileges as a member of the bar, give him a right to act as he die, and that his char- Life Guardsman." acter for 35 years was integroachable in every respect. The evidence en both sides closed last evening, and after the summing up of Messrs. Price and Prescott Hall, the Court adjourned to this morning-when the case will probably be given to the jury. #### Boston and Athany.

The celebration of the opening of the rail road between these cities, on brondsy last, was a splendid affait. The extra train left Boston punctually at 7 o'clock, A. M. with 125 gentlemen from that city, Charlestown, Salem and New Bedford to attend the celebration at Albany. The train reached bellish the coming volume. Worchester (45 miles) in 21 hours, where they entered the Great Western Railway. From Worchester to Springfield (55 miles) the passage was effected with case in 1 hour and 55 minutes; from Sprinfield to Pittsfield, over the Berkshire hills and the high gradients of the road, (52 miles) in popular work, by ordering their subscriptions to 2) hours; and from Sprinfield to Albany, (49 miles) over 15 miles of the Hudson and Berkshire road, and 23 miles of the new line just completed, in about 21 hours.

The train reached the ferry opposite Albany at seven in the overing, and its arrival was announced fect health. A small pamph'et accompanies this medicine, which gives a full description of diseases, the man ner of treatment, &c. &c. For sale in Sunbury, at HENRY YOXTHEIMER, the store of Jan. 8th, 1842. Agent.

They have just received a large assortment of lamps of every description, consisting of ASTRAL, TABLE SUSPENDING AND

SIDE LAMPS. which they offer for sale at reasonable terms,

This light is a new invention, and is superior to any thing yet discovered for illuminating large and small rooms, and dispulling the darkness of the night.

It is inferior to nothing save the light of the sun ; wherever it has been introduced, it has outshone to became the light of the world.

Its prominent supe for qualifies are brilliancy, richness, splendour, cleantiness, and last but not hast, cheopness. The wick keeps entirely free from dart, and the lamps are easily kept in order. In the cities of Philadelphia and New York it has been substituted very extensively for gas, on necount of its cheapness, and because it is not so inrious to the eyes.

Directions for using will be furnished to all who buy, and orders from a distance promptly attended FRICK, BILLMEVER & RUSSEL, Danville, Nov. 27, 1841.- 4
