THE COLUMBIA FURNACE was follown out on Monday last, after having been in blast for nearly ffrom months, during which time she has worked admirably well. Mesers, J. P. & J. Guoves have been induced to this step by the low price of Iron. and the little demand for the American article, in consequence of the large stock of Scotch metal in Eastern market. If no sufficient protection is af forded to our fron Masters, the rest of the furnaces will seen follow suit, which will throw some two or three hundred hands out of employment-a practi--cal illustration of the beauties of "free trade," that cannot fail to go home to the heart of many a famriy; now dependent upon those establishments. MALL BORNERY .- John C. Gentzel, editor of the (Centre Berichter, a German gaper, published at Aronsburg, was on Saturday week brought to Bellefonte, and lodged in jail, on the charge of having abstracted from the United States Mail a draft drawn by the Northumberland Bunk on a Philadelphia bank, in favor of an individual in the weston part of the State for $150. Payment having been stopped, the draft when presented was traced to Gentzel, who says he purchased it in Harrisburg. but does not, we believe, know of whom he got it. He was admitted to bail on Monday in the sum of five hundred dollars.

VISITATION OF AMERICAN VESSELS -The Salem Gazette says that Capt, Conway, of brig Mermaid which arrived yesterday at that port, last from Rio Grande, was bounded twice on the coast of Africa, from H. Captain C, was informed by British officers, at St. Helena, that their government had given precise orders to abstain from proceedings of an offensive nature, such as the removal of hatches, and similar proceedings which have been complained of heretofore. Even in the British colony of St. Helena, public opinion was strongly expressed against the former seizure of the barque Jones of Salem.

Sanderson's New Hotel.

ANTHRACITE IRON.-We stepped into the new Franklin House, now being prepared in Chesnut street, just above our office, for the public accommodation, under the excellent superintendence of tion to Christ Church in that place, which selieves our friend Sanderson, late of the Merchant's Hotel, and were delighted with the novel, economic, and superior arrangements we beheld around us. The lower floor will form an elegant restaurat whence meals can be furnished to any boarder at a price suited to the depth of his packet. Board can thus be furnished at from $24 to $10 per week. A handsomely furnished private parlor, communicaling by folding doors, with a neat chamber, was shewn as, to be let at the extremely low price of $4 per week. But what struck us most, was the profuse employment of iron, manufactured from anthracite coat, about the premises. This is a novel-experiment. This iron is very handsome, and cost about one-third the price of ordinary iron. The railing from the front is beautiful. Its material was manufactured at the Shamakin Furnace, and cast by Savery & Co. of this city, from a drawing by Sanderson. It weighs 1250 pounds, and its whole cost is only $62.

Sanderson is bound to go shead, and we shall be much surprised if his new Hotel be not one of the most feshionable and liberally patronized, as it will be one of the most elegant and comfattable, in Phi ladelphia .- Spirit of the Times.

An American in Inida.

We understand that it was a natural Yanker who had taught the Affaghana-to resist the British -power in Iodia so long, and who left the seeds of diplomacy and discipline with them, that recently burst forth so successfully at Cabool. His name is Dr. Horlan, -a native of Philadelphia. Harlan was found occupying a high rank in the Affaghan a my when Cabeal was first taken by the English. The British captured him, and cent him buck to Europe. He is now in this country, and says that, with a military leader, the Affaglians could overrun all India and China, create a new Mogul empire.rival Geoghis Khan-and drive the Britsh entirely from the east.
