From the Baltimore American. TWENTY SEVENTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29, 1842. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The Journal of proceedings having been read, there was a cush for the floor, stud the first effort was to adopt a Resolution allowing extra compensation to the chaptains of the two Houses of Congress. The resolution was not adopted for want of time to consider it.

TROCKERINGS OF THE DAT. Some thirty or forry Bills, most of them private, baving passed on Saturday, were signed to-day. Revenue Bill in the House.

THE BILL WITH THE CRESIDENT. The Revenue Bill was the great question of the

Jay. The Secretary of the Senate was at the bat with the Bill from the Senate at an early hour, and as soon as he made his Report, the Chairman of the 'Committee of Ways and Means moved that the House proceed at once to consider the Bill. "AGREED-AGREED !"-Was heard from all sides of the Hall. The Bill was taken from the table, and considered.

Mr. FILLMORE moved a concurrence in the amendments of the Senate.

Mr. WISE hoped that they would be printed. Mr. FILLMORE said that they had been. [This seasonable service was done yesterday in the Clerk's Office.1

Mr. Fillmore stated that an apprehension had gone forth that the Bill interfered with existing treaties. Such was not the fact, There was a section in the Bill which prevented it.

Previous Question.

Mr. LINN of N. Y. hoped it would be withdrawn. He wished to explain his vote. "No," "no," "don't withdraw," was heard upon all sides of the Hall.

Mr. LINN-"But for three minutes." Mr. FILLMORE-"For that time I withdraw it, if my colleague will renew it." Mr. LINN-"I will." Mr. L. proceeded to state why he had voted against the Bill when before under consideration. He regarded it as yielding too much to the Executive, and he could not conscientiously give the Bill his support. His friends had thought differently, and he acquiesced in their judgment. He was known to be a Protection man at home, and was so here. Mr. Linn acted to-day as a friend of the Bill, Closing his remarks, he moved the Previous Question, according to the pledge given.

"No," "no," "no," "no," was heard on all sides of the Hall; and Mr. Fillmore did not withdraw. There was a second almost without objection.

The question returned upon laying the Bill up n the table.

Mr. BOTTS of Va. rose to address the House briefly upon a motion to be excused from voting. He stated that he had been overruled in his opinion by his friends in the two Houses of Congress, He had believed the passage of the Bill would be yielding to executive dictation. He had believed that Congress dishonored itself by allowing Congress so to yield. He could not now vote for the

ing and sent off prisoners to Mexico. It appears | ATTENTION SUNBURY GREYS. | that the Governor's nephew, with the proceeds of the property of the expedition, has been on here and purchased a large stock of goods with the spoils, and embarked with them at St. Louis for Santa Fe. Intelligence of this movoment having reached Texas, an expedition was immediately fitted out of 175 men, well armed and equipped, consisting in part of the old Santa Fe expedition to intercent the treacherous Mexican Treebooters, and will lay in wait for them on the Santa Fe road. where it is to be hoped they will succeed in recapturing Mr. Armigo's nephew, and his invoice of goods, and thus get back part of their former losses. We learn these facts by private letters from Texas, no doubt of an authenic character. Monsigur Saligny, Charge from France has arrived here from Texas .- N. Y. Union.

BALTIMORE MARKET. Office of the BALTIMORE AMERICAN, Aug. 29. FLOUR .- We note a further decline in Howard st. Flour. Sales of good standard brands were made from stores both on Saturday and to-day at at $4,75, and holders are offering to sell at the same price now. The receipt price is $4,625. On Saturday sales of City Mils were made at but one or two small lots have been sold for something less: Sales of Susquehanna Flour to-day at $4,75 eash.

GRAIN .- The demand for Wheat has been rather less active to-day, but the sales have generally been made at about the prices of last week. We quote good to prime Md, reds at 80 a 90 cts. and Mr. Fillmore closed his brief remark with the inferior sorts lower as in quality. On Saturday a lot af Penna, white and red mixed was sold at 953 cts. on time, and to-day a parcel of Penna, red was sold at 93 cts. also on time. Both lots had smut in them. Sales to-day of both white add yellow Md. Corn at 50 a 51 cts. On Saturday a lot of Penna, yellow was sold at 50 cts, and another lot to-day at 531 cts. Sales of Penna. Rye. at 60 ets, and a lot of Md. at 45 a 50 ets. We quote Oals at 22 a 23 cts.

WHISKEY .- The market is more settled today, all the New Orleans Whiskey having been bought up on Saturday at 19 a 20 cents for bills. Sales of Small parcels of Pennsylvania Whiskey to-day at 20 cts, for hhds, and 22 cts. for bbis, which we quote.

ABOUT BRANDUETH'S PILLS .- Dr. Brandreth wishes his medicine to rise or fall by its own merits. He feels confident that upon a fair trial it will not only secure a place in the public estimation, Mr. BOTTS begged Mr. Fillmore to withdraw but retain its hold upon the affectious of the prople, without resorting to the vulgar, though common practice, of abusing other medicines. His Vegetable Universal Pills, by purifying the blood, have succeeded in curing the most inveterate and opposite diseases by the one simple act of continually ev coating the bowels with them, until the disease gives way; therefore, whatever may be said of the theory, the utility of the prectice is now beyond all doubt. His medicine in fact continues to herald its own fame by its astonishing effects. T Purchase in Sunbury, of H. B. Masser, and the agents published in another part of this paper.

Cold Settled on the Lungs, a very common complaint, and can immediately be removed by Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy. This disease produces much suffering and distress, and finally becomes alarming on account of its threatening severity. Physicians are sent for, and medicine prescribed, but to no effect, when they at once pronounce the lungs to be entirely gone, and the case hopeless ; that the patient must die of CONSUMPTION. In this largering situation hundreds are left under the mistaken idea of their disease ('to be Consumption,') when it is nothing more than a "Cold settled on the lungs," when the patient is thus neglected until the lungs do actually become diseased. Why is it that so many (pronounced) hopeless cases have been re-stored to perfect health? The reason is very plain and obvious. They commenced using Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, and when the lungs were not entirely gone, they finally recovered. A fair trial of this Medicine will convince all of this
