

Workingmen's Ticket in Centre.

The last number of the Centre Democrat, which accidentally fell into our hands, contains the ticket which has been formed by the Democratic Workmen of Centre county, at the head of which stands the name of CHARLES W. HEGINS, Esq., as their candidate for Senator.

A nomination of this kind, unthought and unexpected by Mr. Hegins, indicates the high estimation in which his public services are held by a portion of the Democratic party of that county, among whom, at this juncture, the editor of that paper seems to have fallen. In his remarks upon the qualifications of the candidates presented by the Workingmen, the editor speaks of Mr. Hegins as a gentleman "of more talents than political or moral honesty," than which a more false and nefarious sentence was never written. Mr. Shugert, who speaks thus, we believe has not the honor of a personal acquaintance with Mr. Hegins, and under present circumstances it is probable never will enjoy that pleasure. The political course of the latter gentleman speaks for itself. Whatever talents and ability he may possess they have always been honestly directed, and firmly devoted to the best interests of the country, and whatever he has done, for good or for evil, has been performed openly, with an independence of spirit and firmness of purpose, that at once attested his zeal in the object of his pursuit, and the uprightness of his intention. He has, however, at all times, exhibited such an ineffable contempt for the puerile and contracted views of a certain class of party political desperadoes, that they never let slip an opportunity of scattering their foul aspersions upon his head. The instance before us is the most vicious we have seen. Not content with an unmerited and unprovoked attack upon his political course, Mr. Shugert deliberately and recklessly impugns the moral character of the gentleman to whom we have alluded. This has been done without knowledge and without inquiry; done either ignorantly or maliciously, and without a semblance of truth. No man in this, or any other community, stands upon higher moral ground, or professes a higher reputation, for stern integrity, for honesty of purpose, for independence of spirit, purity of action and every other quality and feeling that distinguishes an honorable man and a gentleman, than does the subject of the unprovoked, unjust and libelous attack of the editor of the Democrat.

We regret very much the unfortunate disagreement of the conferees appointed to nominate a candidate for Senator for this district, and ardently hope, that at their next meeting they will be able to lay aside their sectional and personal prejudices, and agree upon a man who will do honor to his constituency, and save the Democratic party of this district from distraction, or disunion of any description.

Jonathan Roberts, Esq. has been removed from the office of collector at Philadelphia, and T. S. Smith, Esq. appointed in his place. We never admired the politics of Mr. Roberts. But we believe he has always sustained the character of an honest man. His appointment was unexpected and unasked from President Tyler. Mr. Roberts has published a statement of the whole matter, with the President's letters to him, among which is one requesting him to dismiss a number of clerks &c., and to appoint others, which he names, in their places. If the statement of Mr. Roberts is correct, the whole transaction places Mr. Tyler in a light that must be as painful to his friends as it is humiliating to the American people, and is more belittling the bigotry and intolerance of a churchly tyrant, than the President of the United States. Gen. Jackson, it is true, removed his Secretary of the Treasury, but not on account of his political opinions.

Miss Tyler, daughter of Captain (bless her sweet little soul!) is at Bedford Springs. Wonder if she is engaged?—Lycuming Gaz. Yes, and married to, so says a young friend of ours who saw her at Bedford.

Corn at 50 cts. for yellow, and 50 to 51 cts. for white. Sales of Penna. yellow at 51 cts. Sales of Md. Rye at 45 to 50 cts. We quote Oats at 20 cts. which is the current price to-day.

WHISKEY.—Sales of hbls. at 21 cts. and lbs. at 22. The demand continues quite limited.

EPILEPSY OR FALLING SICKNESS.—John M. Harmer, living at Frankford, in the State of Pennsylvania, for a period of 12 years has been afflicted with this terrible disease. He had as many as two or three fits a month, and towards the last had become almost incapable of attending to business. Four or five months have now passed since he commenced using Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and although he was having fits very frequent and with increased violence, yet, since using the Pills, he has had only two fits all winter. He continues to take the Pills and attends to his business—feels assured that nothing is wanting but a perseverance in the use of them to effect a perfect cure.

More Proofs

Of Dr. Harleth's Compound Strengthening Tonic and German Aperient Pills.

MR. JOHN ROBERTSON, of Columbia county Ohio, is happy to state to the afflicted the great benefits he received from the use of these invaluable medicines. Being afflicted for five or six years with a Debility and Nervous affection and its natural consequences, during which time I procured many medicines, always found them to aggravate the disease in a greater measure. Seeing these medicines performing cures on many of my friends, I was induced to give them a trial. Happy am I to say that the good results were soon visible which entirely cured me of that dreadful and peace destroying disease. I really hope that those similarly afflicted will see the necessity of getting the use of such vile and drastic compounds as some that appear in the public prints, which I am fully persuaded almost cost my life, besides bringing on the piles, which far more increased my disease. I heard say by many of my intimate friends, that the same vile compounds fixed them the same way. I feel confident that if persons use those "Drastic Medicines" according to their directions that they will give any person the piles.

When commencing with Dr. Harleth's Medicines, I found them to be an invention, viz: an Aperient Medicine, to carry off all diseases and impurities from the system, accompanied with a "Strengthening Tonic" medicine, to give strength and tone to the system and reanimate the functions of the animal economy. These medicines are truly invaluable, and the best extant.

TO THE ELECTORS OF NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY. The subscriber being prevailed on by his friends, respectfully informs the public that he will be a candidate for the office of COMMISSIONER, at the ensuing general election. He promises, if elected, to fulfill the duties of said office, with care and fidelity. JOHN YOUNG, May 7th, 1842.

John Young, Of the borough of Sunbury, at the solicitation of his numerous friends, has consented to their wishes in continuing his name before the public for the office of COMMISSIONER at the ensuing election. Ever since the formation of the county, one of the Commissioners resided in the county town, for the purpose of accommodating persons having business to transact in the office; and as Mr. Young had a majority of the delegates assembled in convention, which by some management deprived the people of their rights, we hope the voters of the county will come up to the polls on the 2d Tuesday of October next, and support their rights. Sept. 17, 1842.—MANY VOTERS.

Wm. Heilman & Co., Commission & Forwarding Merchants, Foot of Willow Street Rail Road, PHILADELPHIA. HAVING associated with them Joseph Barret, late of Easton, Pa., respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and well known store and wharf at Foot of Willow Street Rail Road, lately occupied by Jacob Barret, where they purpose doing a General Commission and Forwarding Business, and from the local advantages of the place being connected with all the public improvements that have their outlet to the city, they flatter themselves they will be able to do business as advantageous as any other house, and upon more reliable terms, than any other establishment. Their new arrangements made in them shall have their strict attention, and no exertions spared to give entire satisfaction. They are also prepared to receive and forward goods to any point on the Delaware and Lehigh Rivers, between Marsh Creek, Easton and Philadelphia, via Delaware Division and Lehigh Canal; also to any point on the Juniata River, or North and West Branches of the Susquehanna via Schuylkill and Union, or the Chesapeake and Fall Water Canals. For the accommodation of those coming or going via Schuylkill and Union Canals, a Steamer will be kept expressly for towing boats from the Schuylkill wharf to the Delaware wharf, which will enable merchants to have their produce delivered on the Delaware, and their goods shipped at a saving of 50 to 75 per cent, on the prices for loading vessels, with these advantages they respectfully solicit a share of patronage.
