

my own fault; there were things that ought to have been explained; I know you have a good heart; and I forgive you from my soul freely I may God bless you and may you prosper."

He then requested his keeper, Mr. Greene, to let him be left alone until the last moment. This was about 2 P. M. His cell was closed and he was left alone till 30 minutes to 3, when some friends of the Sheriff apprehending that he might attempt to commit suicide, one of the Deputy Sheriffs, Hillyer, went to his cell door. Colt was then walking up and down his cell, but turned round on the door opening, smiled on Hillyer, shook him by the hand, and kissed him, as he did several of those who had just previously bid him farewell. He said to Hillyer—"God bless you and may you prosper in this life, which is soon to close on me."

At a few minutes before 4, Sheriff Hart and Westervelt went to his cell to announce to him that his hour had come—but their summons was not needed. Dr. Anthon stepped into the door, but started back in horror. On looking in at the cell, the body of Colt lay stretched at full length upon his bed, his hands crossed upon his abdomen and covered with blood, and a small Spanish dirk driven to his heart, was sticking in his body. His mouth and eyes were slightly open, and the knife had not been moved after its deadly thrust. He was pronounced dead by physicians in attendance, the Coroner took charge of the body, and the cell was locked.

At this moment a volume of smoke and flame burst from the large cupola on the prison: a tremendous rush was made by those outside towards the door and by those within to make their escape. The great bell on the City Hall struck the alarm at the precise time fixed for the Execution; the engines were promptly on the ground, but as the fire was in the very summit of the cupola, the water could not be made to reach it, and it continued to burn downwards for an hour until the whole was consumed to the roof. The greatest excitement prevailed without. The multitude refused to believe in the story of his death, and a very general impression prevailed that the whole was a ruse to secure his escape.

There prevailed a very general suspicion that the cupola was set on fire; but there is no good ground to believe it. A fire is constantly kept there for the accommodation of the person employed to keep a look-out for fires. He had made a very large fire yesterday, and went to see the execution. The pipe, without doubt, became red hot, and thus set the cupola on fire.

Upon the inquest Dr. Anthon testified as follows: "Rev. Henry Anthon, D. D. sworn—I as a clergyman attended upon John C. Colt—my relations commenced on Monday and I took notes of all my visits to the prisoner; these, which he read, were very voluminous—they relate to the conversations he had with Colt on religious subjects, the belief of the latter, his apparent penitence, his assertion that he prayed, his general converse regarding his future state, the instruction the Rev. gentleman gave, the advice he imparted to him, &c. &c.—the remark of Colt that the Sheriff had taken his knife &c. from him, which he said was a needless persecution—Colt's opposition to other ministers seeing him to converse on doctrinal points—his avowal of belief in the Christian creed, the divinity of Christ, his power to save, &c.—altogether tending to induce the Rev. gentleman to believe that Colt was a penitent man, having a just sense of his sins and that he was deeply anxious about his eternal welfare. He declared most solemnly that he killed Adams in self-defence and said he would carry that declaration to the bar of God—though much would not believe him. He complained much of the newspapers, of their mis-stating and abusing him, &c.—gave a history of his acquaintance with Caroline Henshaw, expressed his regard for her, and his wish to marry her."

He disavowed on Thursday all intention of taking his own life, to Mr. Anthon, and stated his determination to die in the faith of the Gospel, and was melted to tears. To-day Colt expressed great anxiety for Miss Henshaw and his child, and gave Dr. Anthon $500 to put into the Savings Bank for his wife and child, directing him to pay her $20 a month from it while it lasted. He wished the child religiously brought up and its mother to lead a virtuous life. About 12 o'clock Mr. Anthon married Colt and Miss Henshaw; Colt exhorted her most earnestly to lead a Godly life and to take care of the child; at his request he was left alone a short time with her. Mr. Anthon detailed his conversations with Colt concerning his death and burial, the order for a coffin, Colt's request to have the coffin brought in at 3 o'clock, his praying, &c. After 2 o'clock, Mr. Anthon saw him and after conversation and prayer, Colt said he thought he would be able to die with Christian fortitude. About twenty minutes after this, Colt wished to be alone awhile before the execution. I was to come again at near 4 o'clock; I did so, and on opening the cell door, found Colt on his bed; at first thought him asleep, but saw something on him, and the Sheriff cried out, "Oh God! he is dead!" and I came away.

LANCASTER COUNTY MINERALS.—Marble of a superior quality, susceptible of a very high polish, has been found in Lancaster county, in this state, and in the same neighborhood a valuable pigment called Terra de Sienna, which has hitherto been imported from Italy. There are, no doubt, many substances useful to the arts, yet among the undeveloped resources of Pennsylvania, already rich in mineral wealth.

Dickens, in his commendation of Barnum's Hotel in Baltimore, (which is really one of the finest houses of entertainment in this or any country,) says it is about the only hotel in the United States where he found water enough to wash himself. We wonder how much water it takes to wash Mr. Dickens.—The remark we have quoted is not, we fear, the only evidence he gives of his being rather a dirty fellow.—Louisville Journal.

LIQUOR SPECIES.—In weighing Spanish change, which constitutes a large portion of the retail circulation, we find its actual value in quantities to be $20, in sixpences, (64c) weigh $17.12, 14 1/2 per cent. loss.

$20, in shillings, (12 1/2c) weigh $17.85, 10 1/2 per cent. loss.

$20, in quarters, (25c) weigh $18.45, 8 per cent. loss.

Dimes and half dimes, which have been in circulation five years and more, are found to have lost 2 per cent. Sovereigns of the dragon die, have lost 1/2, and other sovereigns 1/4 per cent. on the standard weight.

COMMON SENSE.—No one is so foolish as to suppose for a moment that we can live without eating, any more than a tree could derive nutriment from the air alone, without the soil. Chameleons may live on air, though it is well known that such air is full of insects. All, therefore, know that it is what we put into the stomach which causes us to live. We make over our bodies from the stomach. In from three to five years we make over our bodies entirely. Thus what is part of us to-day is absolutely not a part of us to-morrow. The secretions, such as perspiration and other evacuations, continually make our bodies waste, and it is from the stomach that we supply this waste—all we have to do to make our bodies ultimately healthy, is to prevent unhealthy particles from mixing with the blood. Purgation does this for us, provided the purgative we employ contains in it nothing which will weaken us or do us injury.

Breadth's Vegetable Universal Pills, for this purpose, will be found all that is required; because they purge from the stomach and bowels the superabundance of humors which may have accumulated in the system, before they have time to produce purification, and its natural consequence—death.

Orphans' Court Sale.
IN pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Northumberland county, will be exposed to sale, at the house of Charles D. Wharton, in the borough of Sunbury, on Saturday the 24th day of December next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., two tracts of land, in Shamokin township, Northumberland county, one of them called Mount Carmel, on the Centre Turnpike, adjoining land of Valentine Propst, and lands belonging to the Avon Company, on Shamokin creek, containing 1693 acres situate more or less, on which there is a dwelling house, stable, &c., now kept as a public house by Jacob Roth. The other tract was surveyed on a warrant in the name of "Jeremiah Paul," containing 206 acres, 18 perches, and allowance, also on Shamokin creek, adjoining lands of Valentine Propst, and others. The said tracts contain, it is supposed, a large quantity of anthracite coal, and the last tract is well timbered. Terms will be made known on the day of sale, by the administrators of E. G. Bradford, Esq., dec'd., as whose estate the same will be sold.

MERCHANTS' HOUSE,
No. 237, North Third, above Callowhill St.,
PHILADELPHIA.

THE subscriber takes pleasure in acquainting his friends and the public in general, that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill street.

This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants. The arrangements for heating and ventilating cool rooms is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, as to insure comfort.

The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which with the furniture, are entirely new.

From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.

P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and on charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times.
