

From Matamoras—Confirmation of the Capture of the Texian Army.

By the arrival of the schooner Doric, we have received from Matamoras confirmation of the intelligence received by the last steamer from Texas, that the division of the Texian army under Colonels Fisher and Green had been captured at Mier.

On the 4th December General Ampudia received a despatch from General Woll, informing him that the Mexicans, 800 or 1,000 strong, had taken Loredo, and that he, Gen. Woll, had been compelled to fall back; that the Texian forces were taking the northern route towards Matamoras. On the receipt of this intelligence Gen. Ampudia left Matamoras, with two battalions of sappers and miners, in quest of the enemy, and reached Mier, 50 leagues distant, on the 22d Dec. A body of Texians, under the command of Colonels Fisher and Green, had, in the meantime, crossed the river and attacked the town in the night. The Mexican troops stationed in that neighborhood immediately went to the assistance of the city, when an engagement took place, which lasted seventeen hours. Every house and street was desperately defended. After the battle had been maintained on both sides with determination and obstinacy for such a great length of time, the Texians, finding themselves surrounded on all sides, resolved to surrender, and finally capitulated on honorable terms. It is feared, however, that the articles of surrender will not be faithfully complied with on the part of Mexico.

The Mexicans report their loss during this engagement at 420 killed and 130 wounded. The loss on the part of the Texians was 11 killed and 10 wounded.

Gen. Ampudia returned to Matamoras on the 7th January, with 212 Texian prisoners.

At the recent bloody fight between the Mexicans and Texians, in the town of Mier, there were six boys in the Texian party, of whom the oldest was but 17 and the youngest 14. The last named (say the New Orleans papers) distinguished himself by shooting twelve Mexicans in succession, as they were brought up to man the guns. Artillery was at length brought to bear upon the boys, which was at once shattered, when the boys attempted to escape to an adjoining one. In the act of entering the window two of them were killed, but the others effected an entrance and recommenced their firing upon the artillery men, which they continued until they were ordered by their commander to desert.—Baltimore American.

The COURT OF THE CAPTURE.—In adjusting the awkward Monterey business, the following stipulations were entered into between the high contracting parties:

6th. St. Thomas Ap. C. Jones will deliver five hundred complete suits of clothes, of woollen, for the infantry, to replace about one-half of what was spoiled of the Mexican division, by their forced march in continued rains to recover the port which he invaded.

7th. St. Thomas Ap. C. Jones will pay into the Treasury of the nation fifteen thousand dollars, which were expended in the general alarm occasioned in the department of the California by his invasion of the port of Monterey, as well as for a complete military band of musical instruments rendered useless by the same cause.

REVIVAL AT HARRISBURG.—The Harrisburg Telegraph of the 1st instant, states that "there is much religious excitement in the different churches in that borough. Meetings are daily held in them all, and a large number are said to be awakened. Mr. Hale, a Millerite, has been preaching his doctrines, and many are reported as having become converts to it. It is stated moreover that one-third of the good people of Harrisburg are more or less believers in Millerism. This is scarcely credible.—Read, Gaz.

REVIVAL IN LEWISTOWN.—There has been a revival of religion in Lewistown, Pa. The Methodists and Presbyterians have each had an increase of about 120 to 130 new members. The Lutherans and Baptists have also made many converts to it.

REVIVAL IN ROBERTSON.—A great revival of religion is taking place at Robertson, N. J. In the Methodist Episcopal Church, more than one hundred and twenty have already been admitted. The Baptists have immersed sixty, and a very general interest prevails throughout both congregations. B.

DEGRADATION.—We find the following sad record in the Mobile Herald:

A man named James Reid, a regularly educated Presbyterian Clergyman, a graduate of the University of Edinburgh and an immediate descendant from the celebrated philosopher Reid, was on Wednesday last sent by the Recorder of the Second Municipality of New Orleans to the work house as a confirmed drunkard and vagrant.
