ROBERT MERRY'S MUSEUM,
Edited by S. G. Goodrich, author of Peter Parley's Tales. Commencing January, 1843.
SINCE the commencement of this work—now the most popular juvenile periodical extant—it has ever been the aim of the publishers to make it deserving of the liberal encouragement which has been extended towards it; and its subscription list evinces that their efforts have been appreciated by the public.
On the first day of January a new volume will commence. The character of the work will not be changed. Its design remains the same, and the publishers would assure their patrons and the public that their efforts will be unceasing to render it worthy of being a companion for the young. To plant the seeds of morality and truth in the youthful mind, to instil virtuous principles and motives into the mind, to aid in the formation of character, to cultivate a taste for knowledge and improvement, and with instruction to blend pleasure and amusement,—these have been, and will continue to be, the end and aim of the work. Every article will be thoroughly digested before it is admitted into this work, and great care will be taken that it shall not contain anything inconsistent with the object in view. It is designed to be, not interesting for the moment only, but of permanent value, and fit to form part of every FAMILY LIBRARY.
Some of the leading features of the Museum are History, Biography, Geography, Natural History, Geography, &c. These will be accompanied with lighter matter in the form of Tales, Sketches, Adventures by Sea and Land, Narratives of Remarkable Occurrences, Anecdotes, Fables, Allegories, &c. Poetry and Music will be called in to assist. Every available means of rendering the work sprightly, instructive and entertaining, will be put in requisition. Numerous and splendid embellishments and illustrations, surpassing what may be found in any other work of the kind, in this respect, will be inserted; and the typographical appearance of the Museum will be such as, it is believed, will meet the approbation of its patrons. The publishers would add, that Merry's Museum is the cheapest periodical of the kind published in any part of the world: the annual volume containing nearly as much matter as two volumes of Bancroft's History, which sell for four dollars and fifty cents.
THE VERY LOWEST TERMS.—One copy, $1; Six copies, $5; Thirteen copies, $10.
The great expense incurred in getting out a work like the Museum, renders it necessary that the publisher should strictly adhere to the cash system. All letters must be post-paid, and addressed to the Publishers and Proprietors,
