

The Death of Mr. Jacob Ridgway.

Mr. JACOB RIDGWAY, who, since the decease of Stephen Girard, has been regarded as the wealthiest citizen of Philadelphia, departed this life on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at his residence in Chestnut street opposite Independence Hall, in the 75th year of his age. He had been ill for some days, and was attended in his last hours by several of our most eminent physicians. Mr. Ridgway was knocked down in the street a few weeks ago by a horse and vehicle, and was indisposed from the time of the accident. He was a self-made man, and died worth, it is probable, about $6,000,000 in property of various kinds. In early life, Mr. Ridgway was a ship-carpenter. He was subsequently American Consul at Antwerp, during a most critical period of the last European war. He also resided for some time at Paris, and then returned to this country, where, his health failing, he was recommended to visit the South. He did so, but experiencing little benefit, he arrived at the conclusion that the want of employment was the real source of his disease, and he returned to Philadelphia. He resided here for the last years of his life, and was one of the most useful of our citizens,—was constantly engaged in building and other laudable undertakings, and at the time of his decease owned several hundred houses in the city and country, as well as estates in different parts of the Union, especially in Delaware and New Jersey. His immediate heirs are a son, Mr. John Ridgway, and two daughters—Mrs. Dr. Rush and Mrs. Rostch. The latter is a widow; and neither of the daughters have children. Mr. Ridgway has constantly engaged upward of 200 men, house carpenters, painters and other mechanics, and his loss, therefore, will be seriously felt. He was regarded as an excellent landlord. A friend mentioned to us on Saturday, as an instance of his liberality in assisting others, that on one occasion he loaned the late Mr. Guier, his note at 18 months for $100,000, which was discounted by Mr. Girard. He died surrounded by his friends and family, and his funeral will probably take place on Wednesday.

Sunday Doings in New Orleans.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 23d (Sunday week says.)
Military Doings for today.—We learn that some eight or nine volunteer companies will parade this morning, at 8 1/2 o'clock, at the Place d'Armes, under command of Lt. Col. Labazan. After battalion drill they are to be reviewed by Col. Richard M. Johnson, Governor Mouton and suite, and Brig. Gen. Cuvillier and staff. The review over, Col. Johnson will be escorted to the stop of war Ontario, and from thence, on board the St. Mary's Market ferry boat to Gretna, where a collation will be served.
Previous to these doings, and at 5 o'clock in the morning, Col. Johnson is to be escorted to the Pontchartrain Railroad depot. He will there visit the Lake, where the cannoniers are encamped, and after witnessing a specimen of their skill at target shooting will breakfast with them. He then visits the Place d'Armes as mentioned above.
W. G. Jones takes a benefit at the Amphitheatre to-night, on which occasion Mezeppa and Jack Rudderly will be presented, with a great variety of other entertainments, peculiar to the Circus.
At the New American this evening they play "Nick of the Woods" and the "Deep, deep Sea." The last named burletta is worth going a mile to see at any time, but more particularly so when Miss Petrie personates Perseus. Emma Luce, Mad. Arraline, and Bennie also appear.

A NICK LAW POINT.—In publishing the death of William Ayres, of the borough of Butler, the Pittsburg American says:
"A nice legal question, and one of much importance, will arise from the circumstance of this gentleman's death taking place at the time it did. Gen. Ayres was never married, but left an illegitimate son, who was to inherit his estate, and, neglecting to make any will, he applied to the Legislature to have his son legitimized, and an act to that effect was passed and approved, on the 4th ult. at about 12 o'clock. Gen. A. died at 4 o'clock in the morning of the same day. The question naturally arises, is the son legitimized? The property left is about $200,000. Their are numerous collateral heirs."

CASE OF CAPTAIN COZZENS.—We noticed a few days since that Capt. Cozzens, of the brig Pilgrim, of Baltimore, had been tried in Guadalupe on the charge of robbing a house at point Petre of $10,000 at the time of the earthquake there, convicted, and sentenced to ten years labor in the galleys in France, whether he was to be sent. A letter has since been received in Boston from Capt. Cozzens, written at Guadalupe, when he was awaiting his trial on the above charge. He says he was innocent of any intention of stealing the money, which was brought on board his brig the day after the earthquake, by persons to whom, it afterwards appeared, it did not belong. He adds that it was thought by all there that he should be acquitted; but that a petition to the Governor for further examination had been drawn up by the captains and merchants there, in case he was condemned.—His steward was also confined as a party to the theft. Capt. C. has always borne a good character heretofore.—American Sentinel.

COMMANDER MACKENZIE.—We see it stated that Commodore Read and Capt. Gwin members of the Court Martial recently convened at New York for the trial of Commodore Mackenzie, have received notice to appear before John M. Read and B. Gerhard, Esqrs. who have been appointed Commissioners for that purpose, to testify as to the votes given on the verdict of the Court. These depositions it is understood are required in consequence of a criminal prosecution, which it appears has been instituted by Commander Mackenzie against the editors of the New York Journal of Commerce, for libel in publishing the state of the vote on the verdict in question.—Jb.

THE SIAMSE TWINS MARRIED.

The Siamse twins, who have been residing for some years past in North Carolina, where they purchased a plantation with the avails of their exhibition through the Union, have entered into a state of quadruple blessedness, as appears by the following:
MARRIED.
On Thursday, April 13th, were married in Wilkes county, N. C., by Elder Colby Sparks, of the Baptist Church, Messrs. CHAS and ESO, the Siamse twin brothers, to Misses SARAH and ANNE, daughters of Mr. David Yeates, of Wilkes county, N. C.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS RECOVERED.—The suit of Wm. Wright vs. the Susquehanna Canal Company, was tried at Gettysburg, Pa. last week. The amount laid in by the plaintiff was $100,000, for damages alleged to have been sustained by him in the destruction of certain water-powers, caused by the erection of the Company's dam across the Susquehanna at or near Columbia. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of ten thousand dollars damages and costs.

ENLIGHTENED.—The French call themselves the most enlightened people in the world, and Paris "the capitale du monde." A French Geography in the usual classification of countries, puts France and Prussia among the enlightened countries, and England and America among the civilized. Is there any proof of this in the fact, that at the beginning of the present month, three women were exposed on the public pillory in Paris?

SWINE MULTITUDE.—The four States of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, and Illinois contain nearly eight million of swine.
