PHILADELPHIA. OHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylva-OHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylva-nia Farmer, and Samuel Pike, jr., late of A-merican Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st.

This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, so as to insure confort.

The receiving parlots are also furnished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with he furniture, are entirely new.

From years' experience in hatel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.

P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and soler hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present haid times. Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1842,

For the accommodation of Boats coming or going via Schuytkill and Union Canals, a Steamboat will be kept expressly for towing boats from the Schuylkill around to the Delaware and back, which will enable merchants to have their produce delivered on the Delawate, and their goods shipped at a saving of 50 to 75 per cent, on the prices for hauling across,-with these advantages they respectfully solicit a share of patronage.
