Unrobing a Swindler.

A singular scene was witnessed in Baltimore, on Saturday last, as we learn from the Sun. A person met another in one of the most public places, and accosted him thus -"Sir, you must either pay me the money for that suit of clothes you have on, or I will have the clothes. You the 22d day of February next, at 12 o'clock, at can, perhaps, whip me, but I will tear the noon, clothes off you." This speech attracted the attention of bystanders, when the gentleman spoken to appealed to the other not to expose him. "I will go with you," and away they went together. Upon inquiry, we learned that this scene was occasioned by the following circumstances, An individual, who gave his name as Horace J. Hill, commission merchant and ship broker, No. 6 Bowley's wharf, corner of Wood street, Baltimore, called upon Mr. Thaddeus Mabee, tailor, and obtained from him a suit of clothes, directing them to be sent to his store. Mr. M. himself, went with the clothes, and as every thing appeared right, he left the garments. No pay came forth, and Mr. Horace J. Hill in a few days could not be found, until he was recognized on Saturday. The conversation upon recognition has been given above, or something like it. Arrived at the store, the quasi commission merchant was stripped, and supplied with a round-about and pantaloons, a little the worse for wear, with which he made his exit, EUGENE SUE -Eugene Sue has gone to London to collect materials for a new work to be called "Misteres de Londres." The demand delphia. for the "Misteres de Paris' continues unabated -50,000 having been sold in Paris alone. He received 15,000 francs from the Johrnal des Debats for permitting the work to be printed in its columns, and 50,000 francs for the copyright -making 65,000 francs, (over $12,000) for a single work. But he is, notwithstanding, deep- thing in the lose of Dentistry. His work will be ly in debt, as he spends enormous sums with his mistresses, one who figues in the "Misteres de Paris" as the Marquise d'Harville, as well dolphe.

A HORRIBLE MONSTER .- The Paris papers contain appalling lists of murders and suicides, and of attempts to commit those crimes. At St. Denis, a monster of Herculean strength, seized upon an unoffending young man, and throwing him down on the road, held him firmly un- ven. Prompt attention to this notice will save cost. til the wheels of an approaching wagon had passed over his head.

GAMBUNG .- No less than nine gambling housus have been entered by Capt. Winters and his police since we last published. Fourteen of the fraternity have been made prisoners, and much of the paraphernalia of the game has been secured - N. O. Pic.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depura L tive Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally. that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care ; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is off-red with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifter of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body .- For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fostula, Chronic Cough Asthina, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla. Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W, OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Becks County, and to be had of the following persons :

In Northumberland County .--- H. B. Masser, | Sunbury ; Leland & Mixel, McEwensville ; D. Krauser, Milton,

In Union County .- J. Geathart, Seliasgrave ; A. Gutchus, Mifflinburg.

In Columbia County .- R. W. McCay, Washington.

Rending, March 14, 1843.

Mu. OARLEY :- I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the b nefit of their fellow man, and having had po-irive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I m st conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the midutone to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous soces that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known temedies, including Swatons' Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Deparative Symp of Susamarilly, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last res rt; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verify believe it has not its equal. JOHN MOYER, Tailor,

Douglassville, April 19th, 1843. MR. OAKLET :- My son Edmund Leaf, hal the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Nonistown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiester, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles. the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who seen him during his sfill-ction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a
