

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. ARRIVAL AT NEW YORK OF THE PACKET SHIP LIVERPOOL.

That famous packet ship, the Liverpool, commanded by Capt. Eldredge, arrived on Friday night the 8th inst., from Liverpool, with advices, says the New York Herald, to the afternoon of the 6th ult.

The excitement in the cotton market, noticed on the arrival of the Hibernia, had entirely subsided, but prices remained firm and decided. Sales small.

The Queen was well. General Bertrand is dead.

The Grand Duchess of Oldenburg, Lord Douglas, and General Cunningham, are also dead.

Spain was in a transition state, in consequence of the death of the Infanta Charlotta.

France was pretty much as usual. No news from India.

All parts of Europe were quiet.

IRELAND. Our advices from Dublin are to the evening of the 5th. On that day O'Connell made his great speech on the State Trials.

After O'Connell's speech $3000 rent was collected.

On Saturday, 3d ult., the judges took their seats on the bench at ten o'clock this morning.

After the names of the traversers and the jury were called over, and all answering.

Mr. O'Connell rose and said—I wish to state to the Court that the line to be taken by me will not be precisely that taken by the other counsel, and as I know that the materials which Mr. McDonough means to use will occupy the Court the greater part of this day, if it will not interfere with the course of the trial, I would ask your Lordships not to call upon me this day. I promise the Court what I have to say shall not occupy much time, and I shall be enabled still further to condense my observations if I am not called upon until Monday.

The Chief Justice—Certainly, Mr. O'Connell. Does Mr. Steele mean to address the jury?

Mr. O'Connell—No, my Lord.

Mr. McDonough rose and resumed his address.

Mr. Holmes applied on the part of the junior bar for liberty to occupy the gallery on Monday, during the delivery of Mr. O'Connell's speech, which excites so much interest.

The Chief Justice said the Court could not interfere with the excellent arrangements made by the sheriff.

The Court adjourned soon after to Monday.

We have received the following short but interesting letter from our Dublin Correspondent:

DUBLIN, Feb. 1, Sunday evening, half past 8 P. M.—The Court of Queen's Bench will once more become the centre of attraction to-morrow morning, when Mr. O'Connell is to commence his address to the jury. Mr. O'Connell seldom ever considers his topics beforehand, but upon this occasion he has devoted much attention to the arrangement of the heads of his speech, which will, it is considered, be one of the most remarkable he has ever delivered. Indeed, I believe his chief difficulty will be to concentrate all the matter he has to urge within a single day. His address will be essentially different in the range of topics from that of the counsel for the traversers who have already addressed the jury. This statement will be much more of a political, personal, and historical character than an argument on the law of conspiracy or a commentary upon the evidence. It was generally stated yesterday, that the counsel and agents for the traversers had determined not to examine a single one of the many witnesses now in town summoned up from all parts of the country, and including Roman Catholic Bishops, members of Parliament, and ex-magistrates. The case assigned for this arrangement was, that the case of the defensive evidence had become wholly unnecessary.

On inquiry this day, I learned that this impression prevailed very decidedly amongst the traversers and their advisers; but, nevertheless, some of the leading counsel are anxious to examine witnesses—persons of property and station—to show that they joined the rapid movement, knowing that its objects were strictly legal and pacific, and that if they were not for a moment have contemned it, it would not be anything connected with the association or its projects in the least degree at variance with public order, or the well-being of society. A consultation of the counsel and agents of the defendants is to be held to-morrow evening, to determine the point whether witnesses are to be examined for the defence. It appears to be the general impression here that this "monster trial" will end without a verdict.

ANOTHER LADIES' MEMORIAL.—A memorial, signed by six thousand and ten ladies of Cincinnati, has been presented to the councils of that city, praying for the suppression of the oppling houses which abound within its limits.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—A discovery has been made, says the Natchez Free Trader, that will enable sugar planters to convert their whole crops into white sugar, without the usual interference of the clarifying process. The sugar is fabricated in an apparatus entirely by steam.

BALTIMORE MARKET. Office of the BALTIMORE MARKET, March 11.

FLOUR—Howard Street Flour has further declined, and we note sales of 750 s 800 bbls. good mixed brands from stores on Saturday and to-day at $4.50. Some holders, however, are unwilling to sell at this rate. There is no fixed receipt price.

We hear of no transactions in City Mills Flour. Some holders are willing to sell at $4.62.

GRAIN.—We continue to quote good to best red wheats at 95 a 100 cts. A load of very prime red was sold to-day at 101 cts. Sales of white corn at 38 a 39 cts; and of yellow at 42 a 43 cts. We quote Oats at 25 a 26 cts—sales.

WHISKEY.—Sales to-day of blads at 22 cts, and of blads at 23 cts—a fraction lower than the rates of last week.

A TRUE PATRIOT exhibits his love of country by administering to the comfort and happiness of the community in which he resides. He who discovers, and makes known the means of preserving the health, and consequently the happiness of his fellow citizens, evinces as much patriotism as the general who meets and conquers an invading foe. But what is he who joins the invader's ranks, or spreads disease and death among the people? A Traitor! Dr. Brandreth has discovered a medicine called Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, which has proved a blessing to the people. But Dr. Brandreth has joined the enemy's ranks by counterfeiting these pills, and are selling p-is-nous drugs in thir name: therefore buy not of them, they cannot be genuine.

ODD RELATION.—By a recent marriage in North Carolina, a son became father-in-law to his own father, the father marrying the second wife, and the son the mother of that wife.

MAXIM.—Remember that time is money, but that it does not follow that a man is a capitalist who has a great quantity of it on his hands.
